TIGERS OUSTED FROM THIRD PLACE BY BOSTON RED SOX

Foxx Hits 27th Homer—Red Sox Out of Second Division

NEW YORK, July 25—Boston Red Sox pulled the Tigers out of third place in the American League and into a tie for fourth place today by coming from behind at Detroit to win a 7-4 ten-inning decision with a three-run rally in the extra frame.

The result enabled the idle Chicago White Sox to take third place in the loop, and brought the Red Sox out of the Second Division.

Trailing 3-1 going into the eighth inning, the Sox finally solved Vic Sorrell and completed the win against Roxie Lawson.

Jimmy Foxx belted his 27th homer in the eighth with none on.

At Cleveland, the Indians fired their heaviest hitting barrage of the season at the helpless Philadelphia Athletics and picked up half a game on the American League lead with a 16-3 victory.

They smashed out 22 hits, including Earl Averill's 17th homer, to score in every inning but the fifth and pull up to seven and a half games behind the idle New York Yankees.

Denny Galehouse held the A's to seven hits for seven innings. Bob Feller, 17 year old rookie, took over the job for the last two, and after a feeble start held the Mackmen help- less.

The Indians found the offerings of "Dusty" Rhodes and rookie Flythe easy to solve, getting 13 hits off the former and nine in the three innings Flythe was on the mound.

If Washington's sluggers had not opened up on Earl Caldwell in the last two innings at St. Louis to pound out a 1-4 victory over St. Louis, Monte Weaver's four-hit pitching would have gone for naught and the three Senate errors in the seventh would have loomed large.

Those three misplays by Kuhel, Lewis and Travis, plus Julius Solters' single, brought in two runs to break a tie and give the Browns a 4-2 advantage. But it didn't last long. Cliff Bolton's homer with two on base accounted for three Washington runs in the eighth—enough to win—and five more runs came over the plate in the ninth.

DAVIS CUP COMPETITION STARTS TODAY

British - Aussie Singles Matches — Doubles on Monday and Finals on Tuesday.

LONDON, July 25—Battle lines were drawn today for the challenge round of the 1936 Davis Cup Tennis competition starting tomorrow between Great Britain's cup-holding team and Australia. Both teams are confident of victory.

Machine-like H. W. "Bunny" Austin who has been a big factor in the last three successive cup conquests, will open the best three out of five series against the veteran Jack Crawford of Australia.

They will be followed on Wimbledon's famed court by champion Fred Perry, against the Australian champion, Adrian Karl Quist. For the final singles matches on Tuesday the players will swap opponents.

Naming of Quits at the official draw today occasioned some surprise. Quist twisted his ankle in the inter-zone final against Germany's Gottfried von Cramm last Saturday and was forced to withdraw from the remainder of the competition.

It was expected his place again would be taken by Vivian McGrath. However, Quist practiced at Wimbledon this morning to see how the ankle would hold up. "I think it's all right," Quist said afterwards. "I think I'm quite fit to play tomorrow."

Although competitors for the doubles do not have to be named until one hour before the match on Monday, it was believed that Crawford and Quist would take the line against England's combination, Pat Hughes and Tuckey.

WASHINGTON, July 24—Wilmer Allison, United States singles champion, said today he would not defend his title this fall and that he definitely was through with "serious" tennis.

MARITIME TENNIS TOURNAMENT AUG. 10

The picturesque courts of the Tennis Club of Rothesay will be the setting of the 1936 provincial tennis championships, which will commence on August 10, under the auspices of the New Brunswick Tennis Association.

For the first time since 1928, the provincial tournament will be purely Maritime Provinces affair as in former times, being confined to players who are members of clubs affiliated with any of the provinces of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia or Prince Edward Island. Decision to open the tournament for this year only to Maritime clubs was reached by the tennis governing body at its annual meeting in 1935.

Notices announcing the tournament have been sent to all New Brunswick clubs and to other parts of the Maritime Provinces. Entries, which close on August 6, are to be sent to J. H. Drummie, secretary of N. B. T. A., 50 Princess street, Saint John, N. B.

PREDICT EASY VICTORY FOR PERRY TROUPE

LONDON, July 25—With Adrian Quist, Australian champion, injured and possibly unable to play, experts last night predicted a 4-1 victory for Great Britain in her defence of the international tennis prize—the Davis Cup—against Australia starting Saturday.

The decision whether Quist, who injured his foot against Gottfried von Cramm of Germany, in the inter-zone final last Saturday, will play, has not been made. Earlier this week his physician ordered Quist to take a 10-day rest.

The Anzac, titleholder's place probably again will be taken by Vivian McGrath, who filled in for him in the doubles and one singles match against Germany. The other half of Australia's bid to recapture the trophy lost in 1920 to the United States will be borne by the veteran Jack Crawford.

Britain, as usual, will bank on her old favorites, Fred Perry and H. W.

"Bunny" Austin, backed up by Charlie Tuckey and Pat Hughes in the doubles.

Both Perry and Austin are in good physical and mental trim, the former demonstrating his fitness in the recent all-England championship which he won for the third time.

Hughes and Tuckey still are going like a house afire, continuing the form which gave them the all-England doubles title a fortnight ago.

Whatever the result of the challenge round, the cup is certain to remain in the British Empire. Great Britain and Australia haven't met in the challenge round since 1919. Then the Aussies won 4-1 at Sydney.

Albany Player Wed at Plate

Robert K. "Bobby" Loane, 21-year-old outfielder of Albany's International League club, went to home plate a bachelor last night and came away with a bride and a brand new automobile.

Speaking their vows over an amplifying system that let a baseball crowd of 7,500 in on the ceremony, he and Barbara Welch Berg, 18, of Oakland, Calif., his hometown sweetheart, were married under the lights of Hawkins Stadium.

The small coupe was the gift of the club and was pressed into immediate service for a honeymoon that ends tomorrow night. Loane must be on deck for a double-header with Rochester.

ANTI-NAZI PROPAGANDA TO THE UNITED STATES OLYMPIC SQUAD

The anti-Berlin movement that has caused disruption in Olympic ranks for more than a year was mysteriously renewed today on the eve of the American team's arrival in Germany.

Pamphlets protesting against America's participation under the Swastika are being left in the athletes' tourist quarters, presumably by someone travelling tourist, as the propaganda is left late at night when cabin class is separated from the tourists.

The ship's personnel, however, has not been asked to keep watch for the anti-Nazi, and inquiry indicated that the entire incident is being pointedly ignored by all hands.

After halts at Cobh, Ireland, and Plymouth, England yesterday, and at Havre, France, today all of which interfered with practice, everyone is now occupied with plans for the arrival at Hamburg late tomorrow and debarkation early Friday.

The party will rush to Berlin for its first land workout this afternoon following the German reception at Hamburg.

Chief Coach Lawson Robertson found it necessary today to warn the athletes to take their limbering easy. "They are anxious and eager to run," he said, "and may do themselves more harm than good unless they are restrained."

Don Lash of Indiana and other distance runners, for instance, are impatient and need workouts badly. Lash is needlessly walking around the decks, and the same is true of Glenn Cunningham and Archie San Romani. Jesse Owens continues to recover from his cold, and is working every day. Coaches told Frank Wykoff to "tuck in his chin" at the finish of a sprint, for his head is otherwise too high.

Sam Francis is working with the shot nicely, and Larry Snyder says that Jack Torrance accomplished his 54-foot throw just before sailing because his distance had previously been held down by mistiming of his left foot.

Wrestling trials revealed Francis Millard at top form as he threw Fred Parkey. Roy Dunn's victory over Howell Scooby came as a surprise, as previously they had always appeared to be about even. Trials, based on the best two-out-of-three, continued today.

WINS ANOTHER TITLE

LONDON, July 25—Johnny Coulson, brilliant young Toronto Argonaut Club sculler, today had another title to his credit.

He won the London Cup sculls at the Metropolitan regatta at Putney yesterday. Coulson defeated H. Morris and F. Taylor, both of Thames Rowing Club, in the final. He led Morris by several lengths at the finish. Rowing through rough water, the Canadian's time was 9 minutes 15 seconds.
