SUNDAY TENNIS O.K. IF NO FEES ARE CHARGED

Mayor Walker, Marysville Council Cannot Prevent It

"Shorts" Matter Petty

Dawson Club President Passes Opinion In Controversy

Discussing the matter of the Marysville town council's action in opposition to the playing of Sunday tennis in that town, His Worship J. Walter Walker of Marysville says that the town council did not pass any regulation forbidding Sunday tennis at Marysville. Both Mayor Walker and other members of the Marysville town council are agreed that the Marysville council has absolutely no power to prevent the playing of tennis, golf, or any other game on Sunday, providing no admission is charged in connection with the game. Some of the members of the council are opposed to Sunday games. Others, even while they do not play themselves feel that it should rest with the players to use their own opinion in the matter.

Regarding the matter of the wearing of "shorts" somebody mentioned it at the council but the remark was not taken seriously. It was pointed out that in these days tennis players find it more convenient to play such games as tennis and golf in the abbreviated costume and that is a general custom all over America at the present day. While this may shock some of the older people who are not used to such costumes, nevertheless they are getting used to it.

Members of the Marysville Temperance League at a recent meeting, as stated in The Daily Mail yesterday, passed a resolution commending the council for expressing their opinion in regard to Sunday tennis.

Speaking to The Daily Mail last evening, Hilton Robinson, president of the Dawson Tennis club stated that the Marysville club had not been in the habit of playing tennis on Sunday, although it reserved to itself the absolute right to play tennis any day that it wished. He pointed out that there was no law to prevent the club from playing tennis on Sunday or any other day, provided any of its members thought fit to do so, and did not charge any admission.

FINAL DRIVE OF PULP GOES PAST CITY TODAY

Sackers' Camp on Devon Shore Complete Keswick Operations

Between 200-300 Cords

High Water Has Meant Speed-up in the Operations

The last of the season's driving operations on the St. John river is taking place at this point this week. Between two hundred and three hundred cords of pulpwood of the Port Royal Pulp and Paper Company at Saint John is floating in the waters here today.

Fifty of the employees of the company are encamped on the Devon shore and are carrying on "sacking" operations. They have just completed the drive on the Keswick stream and sacking activities up river.

Because of the continued high water the driving conditions have been especially good all season. At the present time the water of the St. John river above the Fredericton pumping station is all clear of pulp and boating is now back to normal. Floating pulp has been a menace all season.

In other years the final driving operations of the Port Royal Pulp and Paper Company were not completed until the fall of the year. The reason for the speed this year is the high water.

No Promiscuity

Among Beavers—

"Royal Mates"

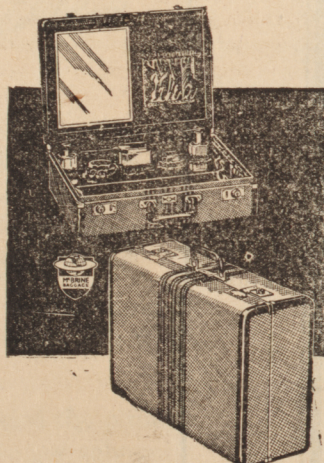

There are now three beaver at the Game Division of the Department of Lands and Mines in Fredericton. The game warden in charge of them had an interesting story. The first beaver captured was a female from Shaw Creek near Tracy; later a male was taken from Sand Brook and placed in the same pen but with a wire separating the two. The female made such a fuss that the dividing partition was taken down and the two lived together. Later another female was captured, she came from Sand Brook, the old home of the male. The male now had a mate so the new arrival was kept in the separate pen. But trouble brewed and the two females fought. The Sand Point female won and the first female took a back seat.

All of which only proves that beaver like Canada Geese are "royal mated"; they will not take a second mate unless they are sure the first love has died.

WISH PROJECTS STARTED IN THE NEWCASTLE AREA

Delegation Before Premier A. A. Dysart This Morning

Cabinet Ministers Here

Premier Spent Pleasant Time with President of United States

A delegation from Newcastle, headed by Mayor T. H. Whalen, were in conversation with Premier A. A. Dysart here today in connection with a request for the commencement of certain projects in that town to relieve unemployment conditions. One of the projects would be the hard-surfacing of the highway there. Premier Dysart promised consideration of the request.

Premier Dysart and members of the provincial cabinet, who formed the provincial delegation to welcome President Roosevelt to New Brunswick, returned to Fredericton yesterday afternoon. They attended a meeting of the government in Saint John yesterday before motoring to this city. While at Campbellton the party met the distinguished visitor from the United States and chatted informally with him. This morning the Premier was engaged in routine business at his office. Hon. W. S. Anderson and Hon. A. C. Taylor remained in the city today, but Hon. F. W. Pirie returned to Grand Falls late last night.

The Premier was scheduled to leave this afternoon by motor for his home in Buctouche. No government meeting is scheduled for the capital until next week.

In conversation with The Daily Mail today, Premier Dysart referred to his visit to Welchpool, N. B., to meet President Franklin D. Roosevelt. "It was a most enjoyable occasion," said Premier Dysart. The Premier and other members of the provincial cabinet chatted informally with the U.S. President on the sands at Herring Cove, and remained with him for about an hour and a half.
