down enough votes in the past week to assure him of a spot on the American League team.

Joe di Maggio, sensational rookie outfielder of the New York Yankees, remained the top choice of the fans among American League outfielders.

In the balloting for the National League right fielder, Frank Demaree of the Chicago Cubs has surged far ahead of Mel Ott of the New York Giants. Ott's teammate, Honk Leiber, is setting the pace among centre fielders, leading Wally Berger of the Boston Bees by some 3,000 votes.

Carl (Screwball) Hubbell of the Giants, Van Lingle Mungo of the Brooklyn Dodgers and Dizzy Dean of the St. Louis Cards are the popular favorites in that order for the National League pitching assignment.
