SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Miss C. C. Jones, of the staff of Ottawa Ladies' College, returned to the Capital last evening after spending the holiday season with her parents, President and Mrs. C. C. Jones at the University.

Governor Carleton I.O.D.E. Meeting

A well attended meeting of Governor Carleton Chapter I.O.D.E. was held last night at the home of Mrs. J. W. Osborne, Church street, the Regent Mrs. J. B. Crocker presiding. Money had been contributed toward Christmas work at Anderson's Road, and friends of the Chapter who are ill had been well remembered. Three splendid baskets had been packed and sent to families at the Christmas season, one going out of town. The appreciation of these families was extended to the Chapter through Mrs. Osborne. The results of the special contribution toward the Endowment Fund were most gratifying. Governor Carleton Chapter is also sending a percentage of the yearly earnings to that fund. A substantial amount was voted toward the Work in India, and ways and means of raising funds was discussed. Delegates to the Social Service Council to be held Jan. 20th were appointed. Nomination of officers for the coming year took place, regrets were expressed that some of our secretaries were ill, and the meeting closed with the National Anthem. Refreshments were served and a delightful social hour was enjoyed.

The first meetings of the week of prayer now being observed in Fredericton were held last evening, one in the Fraser Memorial Hall and one in the Salvation Army Citadel. The meeting in the Fraser Memorial Hall, under the chairmanship of Rev. George Telford, was attended by a congregation which filled the hall. Rev. John Linton delivered a fine address on the subject The Church and Evangelism. Mr. Linton based his talk on the words of the Lord to his disciples "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to all nations." The preaching of these men was the start of evangelism which has been taken up by St. Francis, the Wesleys and scores of others. Unfortunately, mass evangelization has fallen into disrepute, Mr. Linton said, because of manipulation and exploitation by unscrupulous people. In its stead there has arisen a personal evangelism. Essential as this is it does not go far enough and mass evangelism must be restored to its former high plane. A social consciousness must be linked with the evangel of Christ to burn out the dross of sin in the world, Mr. Linton concluded.

Mrs. David Haines who has been the guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Horncastle, returned yesterday to her home in Moncton.

Anagwakade I.O.D.E. Meeting

The Anagwakade chapter of the I.O.D.E. met last evening at the home of Mrs. A. R. Slipp with the regent Mrs. D. W. Griffiths in the chair. Report was read of Christmas cheer sent in the city and to the Broad Road. Notes of appreciation were received from East Saint John hospital, from the Seamen's Mission and from River Glade Sanatorium. A donation was voted to the endowment fund. Mrs. D. W. Griffiths, Mrs. K. E. Golding, Mrs. A. R. Slipp and Miss Waycott were appointed delegates to the Social service council which meets on Jan. 20th, the sum of one dollar being voted for membership. An interesting bulletin on the endowment fund was read. Discussion of ways and means and nomination of officers took place. Refreshments were served by Mrs. A. R. Slipp, Miss Jeanie Hodge and Mrs. K. E. Golding.

Picardy Chapter

The Picardy Chapter of the I.O.D.E. held its monthly meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. J. Warren Maxwell. The regent Mrs. Martin C. Horncastle was in the chair and twenty-six members were present. Letters of thanks for Christmas cheer were read from Jordan Memorial Sanatorium, Miss Nan Estabrooks, Mrs. McGinn of Anderson Road district and from needy families in the city. A nice letter of thanks from the teacher of Maple Glen school for a donation for a library, also for remembrance from an absent member. The educational secretary was instructed to send I.O.D.E. calendars to all schools in which the Chapter is interested. Five delegates to the Social Service council meeting were appointed, one dollar was voted for membership. An interesting bulletin on the endowment fund was read and after very favorable discussion the sum of $75 was voted to the endowment fund. The nomination of officers took place, after which the meeting adjourned and a social hour was enjoyed, the hostesses being Mrs. T. C. Barker, Mrs. O. B. Kitchen, Mrs. Robt. Riley and Miss Kathleen Brewer.

Week of Prayer
The first night of the week of Prayer was conducted at the Salvation Army Citadel. The opening hymn was Revive Thy Work O Lord. Rev. Bell offered prayer and the Rev. Greig read the scriptures. A short season of prayer was engaged in and quite a number took part. The address of the speaker of the evening was of the highest order (Rev. F. A. Watson). In connection with the subject "The Church and Evangelism." The speaker stressed the fact that the life-blood of the church was in Evangelism and that is the need for the present day, and also a more holy enthusiasm. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Greig.

The scripture lesson from the Acts of the Apostles was read by Rev. Dr. Ross. A cantata solo The Old Rugged Cross, was sung by Miss Ruby Miller accompanied by J. Harrison Wade. Prayers were offered by Dr. Ross, Rev. Harold Roley and William Boone. The offerings received at these meetings are to be used for benevolent purposes.

CHILDREN DEMAND REALISTIC BOOKS

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Children in the slum districts like fairy tales, but the reading tastes of the youngsters in the better residential sections run more toward books of a "practical" nature, librarians said today.

A survey covering 35 major cities at the midwinter conference of the American Library Association showed that fairy tales were in demand by colored and foreign children but there was a growing tendency by juvenile readers toward realistic books that tell about the world in which they live.

The report also pointed out that "the influence of the movies and the radio cause children to demand a great deal of action and excitement in their stories, but at the same time, the movies are responsible for unprecedented calls for such classics as 'David Copperfield,' 'The Call of the Wild,' 'The Count of Monte Cristo,' 'Anne of Green Gables' and 'Little Women.'"

LINDBERGH'S EVEN AVOIDED WAITER

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 6.—Even the waiter who served the Charles A. Lindberghs their meals in the Adelphi Hotel here failed to see them.

In the three days the Lindberghs and their son, Jon, stayed at the hotel, the waiter never caught a glimpse of them, he said Saturday.

He was ordered to leave the tray on a table in the living room of the Lindbergh suite while the family remained in another room.

Despite their seclusion, the Lindberghs and Jon ate heartily, the waiter asserted.

CONTEST FOR MAYOR AND ALDERMAN

After a lull of interest for ten years Fredericton is now assured of a civic election, both for mayor and for one aldermanic ward. Ald. Moses Mitchell of Wellington ward, and Ald. G. Willard Kitchen in St. Anne's ward are the mayoralty candidates. The aldermanic contest will see Ald. Dr. H. S. Wright, who has decided to offer again in Carleton ward, opposed to Dr. Byron R. Ross, who is a new candidate. All nomination papers were filed before four o'clock yesterday with P. I. Haviland, city clerk and treasurer.

The four other aldermanic seats will all be filled by acclamation. Ald. Ivan McKnight in King's ward, and Ald. T. Earle Doohan in Queen's ward will take office by acclamation, as will also W. Raymond Crowdon in Wellington ward, and Murray E. Hagerman in St. Anne's ward. The former will take Ald. Mitchell's place and the latter will succeed to Ald. C. Hedley Forbes, who has decided not to offer again.

Election day is next Monday. A by-election will be necessary to fill the vacancy created by Ald. Kitchen's nomination as a mayoralty candidate since he had another year of his aldermanic term to compete. His nomination automatically left his seat at the council board vacant. Those aldermen who have another year to serve are F. S. Mundle in Wellington ward, David McCaughy in Carleton ward, Warren J. Maxwell in Queen's ward, and H. Ralph Gunter, M. P. P., in King's ward.

His Worship Mayor W. G. Clark, M. P., is retiring after having served as chief magistrate of civic affairs since 1926. His record has been an enviable one.

ODDFELLOWS INSTAL OFFICERS FOR YEAR 1936

The Victoria Lodge No. 13, I. O. O. F., at their first meeting of the New Year officially installed fifteen new officers of the lodge at the Oddfellows' Hall last night. Following the installation proceedings members of the lodge and several guests were entertained by a short program of speeches and music and a magnificent dinner was served by the Rebeckas. Among those who spoke were Rev. Dr. Geo. E. Ross, Deputy Grand Master Alfred E. Wood, Rev. W. A. Burge and Nobel Grand Frank Gunter.

The officers were installed as follows: N. G. Frank W. Gunter; V. G. A. D. Shatford; R. S. R. B. Harvey; L. S. E. C. MacDonald; F. S. S. N. Keetch; Financial Secretary, Warden, H. Carr; Conductor, W. Blair; O. G. Wesley Tait; I. G. Jack McGinnis; R. S. N. G. F. S. Lister; L. S. N. G. J. Law; R. V. G. J. MacMinaman; L. S. N. G. H. A. Perry; R. S. S. W. Blizard; and L. S. S. Carl Fraser.

Rev. Dr. Ross was the first speaker on the program, reviewing the motto of the order:

"The motto of 'friendship and truth' appealed to him, he said. There should be more friendship in the world today during these troublesome times. He did not believe, as some people do, that the world is worse than in years gone by. He expressed optimism in speaking of the future saying that "the pendulum would swing as far back as it did the other way and that it is on its way back today."

He praised highly the ideals of the I. O. O. F., and expressed the belief that they were, as in other fraternities, closely connected to the church. He thought that no fraternity could exist if it were not for the church. He reviewed the motto and ideals of the order pointing out their necessity to good living.

For good living, he advocated a "balanced life" the same as a balanced diet. A general development of character of life so that we will not become too one-sided in our views.

Alfred E. Wood, deputy grand master, was greatly impressed with the attendance during the past year and conveyed his thanks for the co-operation of the other officers.

He explained briefly the benefits of fraternal organizations, pointing out that they, along with the church and benevolent organizations, had done

Mr. Gunter, the new Noble Grand, spoke briefly to his fellow Oddfellows thanking them for their support in placing him in the honorable position which he now holds. He pledged his support to the lodge and outlined briefly the plans for work for the coming year emphasizing especially the drive for new members which is to be made. Rev. Mr. Burge then spoke for a short time reviewing some of his experiences as an Oddfellow.

Vocal selections were rendered by John MacMinaman, and Leslie Delong, a reading by Barry and a harmonica solo by Jack McGinnis. Miss Vera McKean accompanied the entertainers on the piano.
