Fredericton and Devon Win

WINNERS IN SATURDAY NIGHT'S JUNIOR GAMES NOW TIED FOR FIRST PLACE IN STANDING - DANGER OF AGE LIMIT RAIDING RANKS.

The Fredericton Juniors and the South Devon Juniors are tied for first place in the York County Junior Hockey League standing as a result of their wins Saturday night over the other two entries in the league, Marysville and North Devon. These two teams have had two wins in as many starts while the other entries have lost both their games.

The Fredericton team, playing with the services of "Mannie" McIntyre, scored three goals to shut out the boys from the cotton town 3-0. McIntyre, who has been transferred from the North Devon team in accordance with a scheme to try to make one all-star forward line to play on the team representing this district in the N. B. playdowns, worked well with McLennan and Mawhinney. One goal was credited to each of this line. McLennan scored in the first period while Mawhinney and McIntyre registered in the third.

South Devon, scoring two goals in the first period and in each the second and third, won a hard fought victory from their home town rivals, North Devon. The North Devonites scored their lone goal in the first period when Stewart Willis tied the score after Harry Cameron had put North Devon one up shortly after the game opened. "Mush" Morehouse put his team ahead when he scored near the end of the period making it 2-1. The second period produced no scoring, but in the third Feeney and Dave Brown scored for the winners.

The lineups follow:
Fredericton—Goal, Scott; defence, Ron Laskey, Jack Doherty; forwards, Ben Mawhinney, Dick Hall, "Bun" McLennan, McIntyre, Gerald Cain, Tommy Hughes, "Lefty" Searles and Rolly McLennan.

Marysville—Goal, Andy Peterson; defence, Harold Tait, John Thorpe; forwards, Mark Fallon, Chubbie White, Harley Peterson, Alfred Tait, Herb Wade, Mosey Arnold, Odbur Elliott, Clair MacDonald, Jack Finnamore.

North Devon—Goal, Bill Grant; defence, Mills, P. Grant, Seymour; forwards, Willis, Irvine, Staples, Neale, McIntyre, Gourley.

South Devon—Goal, Doug McLagan; defence, Flowers, Bailey; forwards, Cameron, Monahan, Bill Tait, Fred Wade, Dave Brown, "Mush" Morehouse.

Dandurand Interested English Pro Hockey

MONTREAL, Jan. 13—Leo Dandurand states that he will look over the professional hockey prospects when he goes to England shortly. He has been in touch with English promoters who are interested in a pro hockey project in London itself. He will sail on January 22, and will go to the Olympic Games at Garmisch.

YORKS LEAVE ON SECOND BORDER TRIP

The York All Stars left early this morning for St. Andrews where they will meet the St. Andrews Senators in a regular Southern League game tonight. Tomorrow they will journey to St. Stephen where they will play the St. Croix. This is the second two game trip that the Yorks have made in two consecutive weeks, having made the same trip just last week.

After two stiff workouts over the week end the Yorks are in good shape for their two road games and expect to return to the Capital four points higher in the league standing. A slightly different lineup than the one which made the trip last week left here this morning. Those who made the trip were, Goal, Young or Staples; defence, Goodine and Minue; forwards, Mills, Cameron, Keenan, Lifford, MacDonald, McIntyre and Haining. Manager Ralph Boyce will be in charge of the team on this trip, neither Coach Williams nor Assistant Coach Steen making the trip.

RED AND BLACK BASKETEERS BUILD AROUND THREE

About twelve prospective basketeers turned out for the first practice session of the 1936 Red and Black squad held Saturday afternoon in the College Gymnasium. Coach Doug Gemeny gave the candidates a stiff P. T. session, followed by practice in basket shooting.

With only three of last year's N. B. Intercollegiate championship team left, Captain "Scotty" Donaldson, "Les" Inch and "Hec" McKinnon, much difficulty will be experienced in filling the vacant positions. "Syd" Thomas, one of the best basketeers to represent the college on the hill in several years, is gone, as are his team mates, "Til" Tilley, "Tubby" Culbertson, "Andy" Likely and "Bob" Davis. Manager "Ted" DuChene is optimistic about the new material which turned out Saturday. Ralph Freeze, a sub of last year, is showing promise, as are also "Scotty" Burgess, Ken Corbett, and Bob Likely, all stars of the Interclass League.

The greatest blow to the U. N. B. basketball, however, is the loss of the services of Murray Ross, Ross coached the 1935 team to the Maritime Intercollegiate finals which game was lost to Acadia by one point. Ross is now attending Acadia University.

According to Manager DuChene, U. N. B. will enter only in the Intercollegiate League. However, exhibition games will be played with the Saint John Trojans, Woodstock Senators and a team from Bar Harbor, Maine.

Lindstrom Draws Release From Cubs

CHICAGO, Jan. 13—Freddie Lindstrom, centre-fielder with the Chicago Cubs, was unconditionally released today after the other clubs in the National League waived on him.

Lindstrom's release marks the first shakeup in the National League champions. He came to Chicago from Pittsburgh a year ago.

Manager Charlie Grimm said he would shift Augie Galan from left field to centre field, with Frankie Demaree going to left and Chuck Klein being retained for right field. The Cubs also have Johnny Gill, heavy-hitting outfielder, obtained late in the 1935 season from Minneapolis, in reserve.

STRATFORD, Jan. 13—Miss M. Crerar, a member of the City Hall staff, went into a store today to buy an empty carton. She paid fifteen cents and was invited to select a carton from a pile in the basement. She chose one, and asked that it be delivered. Later an employee from the store called at her home and asked to see the carton. She had not opened it. The man from the store did so. It contained eight pairs of towels, six pairs of pillow cases, two pairs of sheets and one woollen blanket. The goods had been meant for a bride's trousseau and the box had found its way into the heap of empty cartons by mistake.

McNair and Cramer Sold to Boston Sox

Athletics . Finally . Divulge Part Two of A's Red Sox Trading—Sox Give Johnson, Neimiec and Cash.

PHILADELPHIA Jan. 13—Philadelphia Athletics have finally announced the trade of infielder Eric McNair and Outfielder Doc Cramer to Boston Red Sox, in exchange for pitcher Henry Johnson, infielder Alfred Neimiec and an undisclosed sum of cash.

The deal, made known officially on Saturday, after having been reported a number of times, is part two of the A's Red Sox trading, which began with the sale of First-Base Man Jimmy Foss and Pitcher Johnny Marcum to Boston last month.

Cramer is regarded as one of the standout outfielders in the major leagues. He is 28, and has been with the A's since 1929.

McNair was the first-string shortstop and an infield sparkplug of the A's last year.

Cramer batted .332 in 149 games last season, and has been a consistent .300 or better hitter for the last few years. McNair, apparently affected by the poor showing of the A's in 1935, turned in only a .270 average in 137 games.

Johnson, the pitcher coming to the A's, is a right-hander. He was with New York Yankees for several seasons and began twirling for Boston in 1933. Last season he performed in but 31 innings and had a record of two wins against one loss.

Neimiec, who also comes to the Athletics, was with the Syracuse International League Chiefs for part of last season. He is a former infielder for the now non-existing Reading New York-Pennsylvania League club.

No announcement of the cash involved was made, but estimates are that between $300,000 and $500,000 was deposited in the A's treasury in the two deals, that involving Foss and the one announced last night.

BROWN BOMBER GAINING WEIGHT WITH EACH BOUT

Likely to Reach 220 or 225, as Predicted by Trainer Blackburn

CHICAGO, Jan. 13 — Joe Louis is "a growin' up," as they say down in his country. A year ago when the Brown Bomber knocked out Lee Ramage he weighed around 195 pounds, but he has been putting on a touch of beef for each fight as he goes along on the championship.

Louis weighed in at 196 for Primo Carnera, did 198 for Kingfish Levinsky, 197½ for Max Baer and 200½ when he crushed Paulino. Now Joseph is preparing for an engagement with Charlie Retzlaff here on January 17 and announces he will scale 203 or thereabout for that entertainment.

20,000 Expected at Bout

Joe is still a young fellow and may continue to grow for a couple of years. Jack Blackburn, the Bomber's smart old trainer, said last summer, when Joe was drilling for Levinsky, that Louis would eventually fight at 220 or 225 pounds. That's more weight than any recent heavyweight champion except Primo Carnera has carried, but Blackburn believes his man can pack the load without losing speed or effectiveness.

Louis has started some road work in preparation for his go with Retzlaff and will add brief boxing drills to his program next week. He will not box more than four rounds any day while training for Retzlaff, which may indicate that Joseph does not expect Charles to be in the ring for any great length of time. Although the bout is of little importance, the Chicago Stadium anticipates a huge crowd and it prepared to take care of 20,000 customers and all the seats may be needed, since Louis is that popular in this town.

U. S. BASE OLYMPIC HOPES ON HOCKEY

American Team May Decide Results if Rivals Split Up Other Honors.

By WILL WEDGE

If the United States hockey team can keep in the form it showed in exhibitions before it sailed this week with the Olympic Argosy, the U. S. has an excellent chance of landing top honors next month in the quadrennial winter games at Garmisch-Partenkirchen. Our entries are figured favorites in the bobsledding and speed skating, with the Scandinavian countries likely to split up the skiing honors and Norway and Austria possibly repeating in women's and men's figure skating. The hockey players, mostly former Harvard, Dartmouth and Princeton boys assembled from the local St. Nicks and the Boston Olympics, have it in them to tilt the scales in favor of the United States.

America is overdue in hockey, Canada having won in all the previous winter games. The Winnipeg Falcons took the international crown in 1920 at Antwerp in the unofficial winter games of that Olympic year. The Toronto Grinits did the trick at Chamoni, France, in 1924 in the first official Olympic games. The Toronto University Grads won in 1928 at the second Olympic winter games, and the Winnipeg boys brought Canada the hockey laurels in the third Olympic winter games at Lake Placid, N.Y. in 1932.

The Port Arthur Bear Cats will represent Canada this year, and there is some question whether they are the best amateurs in the Dominion. They were beaten 2 to 1 in an exhibition December 30 by the Fort William (Ont.) Wanderers. On the same night the United States Olympic team beat the New York Rovers 2 to 0 at the Garden, and the United States went on to beat Princeton, 2 to 1.

Generally Canada is represented in the Olympics by the team that wins the Allan cup (senior Dominion amateur title). This winter's Allan Cup finals will not be contested until after the Olympics, so last winter's Allan Cup winners, the Halifax Wolverines, would have been Canada's standard bearers, but they disbanded and the Port Arthur Bearcats inherited the obligation.

Jersey Jones, the Garden seer of amateur hockey, is still wondering about the Halifax Wolverines and hoping that they do not bob up in a new guise next month to upset the plans of the Americans.

"I have a suspicion that most of the Halifax Wolverines went to England," he says. "Wouldn't it be funny, now, if they should bob up playing for England and should take both Canada and this country for a ride? It could be possible; the Halifaxers may be naturalized Englishmen by this time, and it would all be for the glory of the British Empire. But unless something like that turned up I think the United States team has a swell chance to cop, for it is the best picked group that ever went skating for this country."

In the last winter Olympics only four countries, Canada the United

It seems that the old man with the scythe is about to decrease the number of junior hockey players in the York County Junior League. It is not yet definitely known how many the age limit will affect, but it is reported that the executive of the league is about to take action in disbarring several players whom they know to be over twenty years of age. In view of the fact that the York County League is only a house league from which it is the intention of the executive to pick an all-star team to enter the N. B. playdowns, we do not think it is fair to throw these boys out of hockey. If they are thrown out of the junior league it means they will play no more hockey this year just because they are too old to play junior and not experienced enough to play with the senior team. This would be extremely unfair, especially in view of the fact that these same players have been encouraged to play hockey during the past year or two. Such action as the executive of the league plans might disillusion the young players to such an extent that they would never try to play hockey again. This would be a blow to hockey in this district. After all, those in charge of the league must be trying to promote hockey in the community in bringing young players into competition, so why not allow these boys to play in the league during the winter and then, when the all-star team is picked to enter the N. B. playdowns, leave them off with the many others who will not be chosen. Thus, the boys would not be left out of hockey entirely, and the promoters of hockey in this community would be doing something worthwhile.

The Yorks left this morning for their second trip in two weeks to the border where they will play league games with the St. Andrews Senators and the St. Stephen-St. Croix. After two stiff workouts over the week end the Fredericton District team is in fine shape for their road games. Last week they were victorious in both games and hope to bring back four more points this time. With the exception of Goodine in the place of Chalmers and Minue in the place of Steen the lineup is the same as that which they took last week.

After playing the two games away from home the Yorks will return here and meet the Senators in a return game. Coach Williams was unable to make the trip to the border, but he says he will have the team in shape for their next game with the Beavers in Saint John.

CANADIENS WIN TWICE, MAROONS SPLIT TWO GAMES

TORONTO, Jan. 12—For the first time since the season got properly started, Toronto Leafs were out of the National Hockey League's Canadian division leadership tonight, the result of a humiliating 7-3 defeat by Montreal Canadiens, the section's cellar club in a one-sided fixture Saturday night.

While Maroons were taking over the top spot by outscoring New York Americans 3-2 in Montreal, the down-trodden Habitants rose up to win much as they pleased from the mighty Leafs on Leafs' home ice.

Joliet Nets Victory Goals

CHICAGO, Jan. 12—Aurel Joliet's two goals late in the final period gave Canadiens of Montreal a 21 triumph over the Chicago Black Hawks in their National League hockey battle tonight staged before 10,000 spectators.

Bruins Down Rangers

NEW YORK, Jan. 12—Boston Bruins kicked around considerably in the National Hockey League this year turned on New York Rangers with a vengeance tonight and left Madison Square Garden with a 6-3 victory over their favored rivals.

States, Germany and Poland, had hockey teams at Lake Placid, and the United States only lost out by Canada by only one goal.

In the coming fourth Olympic games eighteen nations will be represented with hockey teams, and twenty-eight nations will participate in the full program, which comprises skiing, bobsledding, speed skating, ice hockey and figure skating.

Wings Blank Maroons
DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 12—Detroit Red Wings outplayed an apparently tired band of Montreal Maroons here tonight, handing the Stanley Cup holders a 6-0 defeat before 12,600 spectators, the largest crowd of the season.

MONTREAL, Jan. 12—Montreal Maroons held first place tonight in the National Hockey League Canadian section. They displaced Toronto Maple Leafs, leaders for more than two seasons, by a 3-2 victory over New York Americans here Saturday while Leafs lost to Montreal Canadiens at Toronto.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 13—Thousands of dollars in mutilated bank notes was raked from a sewer by two street cleaners.

Police and Secret Service agents who examined the bills said they are genuine. They are of the old large type of currency recalled by the Treasury in 1928.

Although police estimate the values of the notes at $2,700, one of the finders said he counted "at least $6,000." Counting was difficult inasmuch as the money was torn into 300-odd pieces. It is in denominations of $1, $5, $10, $20 and $50.
