Maroons, Canadiens, Wings, Hawks Win

H. A. Explanation Is Unsatisfactory

LEAFS SPLIT, LOSING TO WINGS AND WINNING FROM BOSTON — LIONEL CONACHER BRILLIANT IN MAROONS' WIN.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—Lionel Conacher, Canada's leading all-around athlete, came through with a sensational individual effort tonight to give the Montreal Maroons a 2-1 victory over the New York Americans in a National Hockey League game.

The victory shot the Maroons into first place in the International division of the league, one point ahead of the Toronto Maple Leafs, who dropped a 4-0 decision to the Detroit Red Wings.

The Maroons tallied first, in the opening period when Jimmy Ward was on the scoring end of a combination play with Hooley Smith and Baldy Northcott. The Americans fought hard all through the second period but failed to tie up the count.

Canadiens Trim Rangers

MONTREAL, Jan. 19—Montreal Canadiens were off on what they hoped was a new winning streak tonight with their first victory of the season over New York Rangers in the records and their first home victory since Nov. 23, when they beat Americans.

Sylvio Mantha directed play from the bench Saturday night as his full-strength squad sped to a 3-1 victory in a speedy National Hockey League game that gave Canadiens a precarious hold on third place in the League's Canadian section. It was also the first time this season Manager Mantha had all his players available.

DETROIT, Jan. 19—Detroit's high scoring Red Wings, counting in every period, shut out the Toronto Maple Leafs 4-0 here tonight before more than 13,000 fans, the largest crowd of the season.

Detroit, adding to its lead in the National League American Section thoroughly outclassed the Leafs. It was the third victory for the Wings in three starts against the Toronto club.

Sorrell in a double pass from Wally Kilrea and Pete Kelly, opened the scoring in the first period. In the second, Howe beat goalie Hainsworth with a neat backhand on Pettinger's accurate pass and in the same frame Pete Kelly scored with help from Sorrell and Goodfellow.

Take N.H.L. Lead Again

TORONTO, Jan. 19—With the first National Hockey League victory of 1936 tucked away in spectacular style Toronto Maple Leafs held first place in the Canadian section once more last night—even if it was to be for only 24 hours. The Leafs jumped a point ahead of Montreal Maroons here Saturday night by scoring a brilliant 5-2 win over Boston Bruins.

Chi Holds Third Place

CHICAGO, Jan. 19—Chicago's Black Hawks strengthened their hold on third place in the American division of the National Hockey League tonight by conquering Boston Bruins 2-1 in a lively battle presented before 13,500 spectators in the Chicago Stadium.

Johnny Gottselig put the Hawks ahead late in the first period, connecting during a gang attack, while Max Kaminsky, Bruin centre, was serving a penalty for tripping Mush March. March, Tommy Cook and Doc Romnes were credited with assists.

DEVON JUNIORS HEAD LIST IN YORK LEAGUE

The Devon Juniors jumped into first place in the York County Junior Hockey League when they defeated the Gorman coached Fredericton team by a score of 4-2 Saturday night in the Arctic Rink. The Marysville Juniors defeated a second Fredericton team 3-0 in another game. The other Fredericton team takes the place of the North Devon team which withdrew from the League.

In the Devon-Fredericton game Bob Brown carried away most of the scoring honors, bagging two for himself and making an assist on another. The other two were scored by Dave Brown and Wade.

The Fredericton Outlaws, the team which took the place of the former North Devon team, went down to a 3-0 defeat at the hands of the fast-moving Marysville sextet, coached by Mark Wade. Marysville scored all their goals in the first period. Several "juniors" who were ruled over age did not take part in the games.

LOCAL CURLERS AWAY TO PROV. BONSPIEL

About a dozen of Fredericton's most expert curlers left this morning for Campbellton where they will compete in the Provincial Bonspiel which opens there tomorrow morning. The singles rink, headed by Judge Walter Limerick, and the doubles rinks, headed by R. B. VanDine and "Chipper" Hatt, represent one of the best teams this city has sent into competition for some time.

For the singles rink Harvey Ramsay will lead, B. H. Kinghorn, number two, A. McF. Limerick mate, and Judge Walter Limerick skip.

For the doubles rink the players are B. W. Fleiger, Dr. A. S. McFarlane, Sterling Limerick, J. Hazen Flemming, Ald. F. S. Mundle, A. H. Porter and Skips VanDine and Hatt.

LOUIS CALLED MARVEL OF THE RING BY VET.

NEW YORK—Jan. 20—Jack McAuliffe, retired undefeated lightweight champion who has seen all the major heavyweights since John L. Sullivan, ranks Joe Louis with the best of them. The dapper little master who never was licked in 55 ring battles and held the lightweight title from 1884 to 1893, said today that Louis is a phantom out of the past—a fighter who brings back memories of Sullivan, Young Griffo and other ring immortals.

"Against Max Baer, I never took my eyes off Louis," Jack who will be 70 next March, recalled. "I disobeyed doctor's orders and left a hospital bed to see the scrap. I almost was hypnotized by the young Negro. I never thought I'd see a real old time fighter in this age but I saw him in Joe Louis. He has mastered the rudiments of boxing and how he did it in so short a time, I can't understand."

Confidence Amazing
McAuliffe's only concern about Louis, whom he thinks might become the greatest heavyweight in history, is the fact that Joe "must have some weakness."

"I couldn't detect any against Baer," Jack said. "But because he is so young and hasn't found anyone in recent fights who wasn't afraid of him, I figure he must have some weak spot in his armor."

"Another thing that amazes me is his supreme confidence. If the Baer fight had been in the bag, Louis couldn't have been more confident."

"What kind of a fighter can stop Louis?"

"A man who knows how to lead and counter and who can punch with both hands," Jack said. "In addition, he

C.A.H.A. Officials Fail to Appease Anger of Maritime Associates — Marples and Gilroy Now On Atlantic.

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 20—Canada's Olympic hockey team, hopeful of maintaining the Dominion's precedence in that game at Garmisch-Partenkirchen this winter, was far out at sea today on the Canadian Pacific liner Duchess of Atholl.

A heavy snowstorm beat down on the ship as she sailed slowly out of Halifax early yesterday morning with Coach Albert Pudas of Port Arthur, 14 players, a trainer, and President E. A. Gilroy and Treasurer Fred Marples of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association aboard.

Behind them was left a controversial battleground strewn with discharged players, angry and disgruntled officials and the memory of bitter arguments such have never before accompanied the choosing of an Olympic team.

For the first time in its history, the C. A. H. A. was forced to break away from established custom when Halifax Wolverines, winners of last year's Allan Cup, disbanded and necessitated choice of another team. Both Port Arthur Bearcats, finalists with the Wolverines in the 1935 playdowns, and Montreal Royals, eastern semi-finalists, wanted to go.

The Bearcats, bolstered by four Wolverines and three of the Royals, were finally chosen, and began training in December. Early in the year, the four Wolves—Daddy Bubar, Ernie Mosher, Chumlie Lawlor, and Vince Ferguson—were discharged from the team because they were alleged to have demanded financial support for the families while they were in Europe.

New players were chosen to fill the gap, Jimmie Haggarty, former Port Arthur player now in England; Dinty Moore, Port Colborne, Ontario, contender; Pud Kitchen, Toronto Dukes defenceman; Hugh Farquharson and Herman Murray of Montreal. Kenny Farmer of Montreal was later added to the team.

The new players strengthened the team, but Maritimers charged discrimination because of the dismissal of the four Nova Scotians and the refusal of the C. A. H. A. to allow them to play against the Olympic team in Halifax.

Explanation Unsatisfactory

On the night before the team left for Europe, Maritime Amateur Hockey Association officials demanded a meeting with Gilroy and Marples to learn officially why the four Wolverines were dropped.

President James Wry of the M. A. H. A. termed their explanation "unsatisfactory," but the contingent left Halifax before anything could be done about it.

But in spite of all the difficulties surrounding its selection, the team was a strong one—"the strongest I've ever had," according to Coach Pudas—and they left Canada "with a quiet feeling of confidence and good fellowship."

AT 60, THINKS HE'S BIT OLD FOR SKI-JUMPING

RED WING, Minn., Jan. 20—Carl Ek, a former national ski champion and one of the oldest jumpers in the United States, today announced his retirement after the national tournament here next month. "A fellow just can't go on doing this sort of thing," said the 60-year old rider as he thought over his 52 years as a member of Red Wing clubs. "But I sure wish I could."

must have even more courage than Louis. Perhaps courage may be Joe's weak spot. He hasn't had to take a punch yet, say like the blow Dempsey took from Firpo. But then Louis may never have to absorb any blows, because he's a finished boxer of the old school who knows how to stand up and knows what to do with his hands."

Certain Champion

McAuliffe believes that Louis is certain to win the title, but believes the campaign to find a "white hope" is a bit premature.

"I don't see any need of finding a man to beat Louis while Jimmy Braddock still is champion," he said. "Louis figures to beat Max Schmeling, but Max might soften Joe up and Braddock then might beat him."

McAuliffe, who has been ill a year with a throat infection, is slowly winning his way back to health.

RED SOX END HOLDOUT TALK

Sign Foxx to Contract For $25,000 ..

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—The Boston Red Sox have settled in a simple manner one problem that threatened to be a severe headache to Owner Tom Yawkey and Eddie Collins, business manager.

They tore up Jimmie Foxx's old contract, which still had two years to run, signed him a new one-year document reputedly at a somewhat higher salary, and hushed the threat of a holdout that might have had a serious effect on the club.

Before the Athletics sold him to Boston, Foxx had announced he would demand a higher salary if traded. He came into the fold after a brief conference in Yawkey's office here yesterday, accepting a reported figure of $25,000 instead of the $17,000 he was understood to have received from the A's.

With Foxx in line it is expected Boston will have little trouble signing up its other stars.

Foxx is expected to be the Red Sox's "key man." Playing in a park especially suited to his slugging style, he is expected to start a new assault on the home run records. Besides his regular job of first basing, he can catch or fill in at any of the infield posts on occasion.

Since he came up to the majors years ago, Jimmie twice has won the American League most valuable player prize; established a mark of 58 home runs in 1932—falling two short of Babe Ruth's major league record—and compiled a lifetime batting average of .339.

Yawkey denied that Boston was contemplating a trade with the New York Yankees involving Roger Cramer, another recent acquisition from the Athletics.

"There isn't the slightest chance of us trading Cramer for Ben Chapman," he said. "I'll admit that we were strong for Chapman last fall and we offered a couple of players for him, but that was before we had the opportunity to get Cramer."

As a sporting town, the hamlet of McAdam is one of the best. After a season of both American and English Rugby, the athletes out there have settled down to hockey and basketball. The McAdam hockey team defeated the Fredericton Junction team 5-0 in a game at the McAdam Rink last Friday night. A report says the McAdam team although lighter than their opponents played a better brand of hockey and took advantage of the breaks much more than did the Fredericton Junction team. Very little body checking was done by the boys from the railroad town, but the Fredericton Junction boys handed out some bruises, the report said. Dick Edgecombe, former Fredericton boy, is on the McAdam lineup and scored in the game.

The McAdam High School is also showing a good team this year, beating St. Stephen High by a score of 2-0. This week they stack up against the St. Andrews High School team, and present indications point to a successful year for the McAdam High team. The team is coached by M. D. Ogilvie.

Three teams in all, two from the town of McAdam and one from the High School, are vying for New Brunswick basketball honors this year. Tom Estabrooks is coaching the Intermediate team which defeated the Vanceboro, Me., team 33-24 last Monday night. Ed. Thorburn is looking after the strong Junior team as well as the High School team. The High School is also presenting a girls' team which shows great promise.

In an item that should be of some interest to our local curlers appears the name of E. H. Allen, who was one of the well known curlers of this city fifty years ago. The item is taken from the files of Eastern Chronicle, New Glasgow, N.S., dated January 14, 1886, and reads as follows:

"Representatives of most of the curling clubs of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia gathered in Moncton and formed a Maritime Branch of the Royal Caledonia Club. New Glasgow was represented by P. A. MacGregor, D. M. Fraser and W. A. MacIntosh. Pictou by John Yorston and Dan MacDonald. Stellarton by James R. Corbitt.

"E. Hutchinson of Chatham was elected president, S. F. Matthews of Saint John, 1st vice president; John Yorston, Pictou, 2nd vice president.

Hon. Provincial Secretary McLellan, of New Brunswick, presented to the newly-formed branch the McLellan Cup as a challenge cup to be competed for as the branch determined. It was decided to play for the cup under the same rules as govern the game for the Governor General's cup.

"Following the meeting a match was played, and won by Nova Scotia rinks. Both Nova Scotia skips were from Pictou. Skip D. MacDonald, 12, vs. Skip A. Malcolm, Saint John, 6. Skip Yorston, Pictou, 22, vs. Skip E. H. Allen, Fredericton, 13.
