BURDEN NOTES

BURDEN, N. B., May 26—Owing to the cold backward spring the farmers are not more than half done seeding yet.
 Last Thursday afternoon the Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. Luke Kelly, there was a good attendance with a number of visitors from Kingsclear.

Roy Tapley has purchased a new horse from Mr. McCann, of Smithfield.
 Among those who were visiting friends at Island View on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Murray Long, Miss Myra Long, and Mrs. Lewis Jewett.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Niles and family of Long's Creek were calling on friends here on Sunday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jewett and family of Fredericton spent the week-end holiday at their summer home here.

Harold Preston of Lower Prince William, is painting the residence of Dr. W. A. MacKenzie.

Huey Evans is peeling pulp for Roy Tapley.
 Harry Cliff has returned from visiting friends at Central Kingsclear Island View and North Devon.

Eldon Jewett started last week on his season's job of trucking cream to the Farmers' Dairy at Fredericton, his route will take in the Saint John Valley to Pokiok and across to Millville.

A number of the young people of this vicinity attended the dance at Lake George last night.
 Messrs. A. Appleby and W. Kitchen of Kingsclear are here putting in the crop on Frank Gunter's place.

The auto traffic on the highway for Empire Day, holiday, was very heavy here.

Central Kingsclear

CENTRAL KINGSCLEAR, N. B. May 27—The weather for the past few days has been very agreeable for the farmers who are nearly finished their seeding operations.

Rev. H. S. Rowley has been holding special services in the United Church for the past two weeks. The meetings have been well attended and much enjoyed by those attending.

Mrs. Jas. Grey who has been very ill at her home is now much improved. Miss Anna Tupper is the nurse in charge of Mrs. Grey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chase of Fredericton, spent the week-end and holiday with Mrs. Chase's sister, Mrs. Sam Gallagher of this place.

Adds Zest to the Meal

Mrs. Walter Gallagher and daughter Ruby are spending a few days with relatives at Marysville.
 Miss Fanny Fox, who is teaching school at Nasonworth spent Saturday at her home here.
 Rev. H. S. Rowley spent Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, calling upon his people in Kingsclear.
 Joe Whitty, who has been employed cutting pulpwood had the misfortune to cut his hand quite badly while at work.
 Aubrey Anderson is remodelling and rebuilding the Jewett house, which he recently purchased.
 A programme was carried out at the School on Friday, Empire Day. Both the teacher and children did their part to entertain those who visited the school. The school was visited by members of the I. O. O. F. also on that day.
 Mr. George Anderson and son Burn have gone to St. Croix where they are employed in the pulp-wood.

AS THROUGH LIFE YOU GO

Don't look for trouble as through life you go,
 And even when you see them,
 It is kind and wise to be somewhat blind
 And look for the virtue that's back of them,
 For the darkest night has an appearance of morning light
 Somewhere in secrecy of life's harmony,
 It's better by far to hunt for a star
 Than the spots on the sun abiding
 The current of life runs ever a-non
 To the crest of God's great ocean—
 Don't get your force 'gainst the river's course,
 And think to alter its motion.
 The world will never assent
 To suit your whims to the letter
 Some things will go wrong your whole life long,
 And the sooner you know it the better.
 —EDWIN H. CLARKE,
 Fredericton, N. B.,
 May 25th, 1936.

As the Crow Flies

Sometimes the longest way is the quickest way. But many of life's convenient shortcuts are well worth knowing. Take the ever-present problem of buying things. If you had to trot around from store to store for every purchase, you wouldn't get much accomplished—and you'd be sure to miss some of the best values. But don't you do it—you take the short-cut by reading the advertisements in this newspaper.

In the advertising columns, you'll find a panorama of who has what to sell, and where the wisest buying can be done. You can make your choice in a few minutes' time—based on well-known trade marks, trusted brand-names, accurate descriptions, even photographs—and go straight to the right place to buy it. No lost time, no indecision. The advertising pages of this newspaper show you the shortest short-cuts. Read them regularly. Make every minute and dollar do more.
