NO PAPER MONDAY
Monday, Thanksgiving Day and a statutory holiday, The Daily Mail will not be published.

CONFINED TO HOME
Friends will regret to learn that J. C. Veness, director in charge of the Dominion Forestry Service here is confined to his home today with illness.

TO SELECT SUCCESSOR
The congregation of the christ church Parish church will hold a meeting on Monday at which time a successor to Ven. Archdeacon A. F. Bate former rector, is expected to be named. Today the name of Archdeacon Bate's successor as rector of the Parish church, was yet unknown to the nominating committee. The congregation elect a successor.

WHAT ONE MAN CAN DO
Here's a story of what one man can do when he sets his mind and hands to it. J. K. Liston, of Millville ex-county councillor, this week completed cutting 1,100 cords of pulp doing the work himself. He will float the pulp next week for the Port Royal Pulp & Paper Company at Saint John. Quite an ambitious undertaking for one man.

THE LISTENING POST
The Listening Post programme for the coming week is as follows: Monday, Rev. C. S. Young, Mouth of Keswick; Tuesday, Rev. W. Steadman Smith; Wednesday, Rev. Reginald Barker, Prince William; Thursday, Rev. Dr. George E. Ross, Fredericton; Friday, Rev. H. J. Rowley, Keswick Ridge, and Saturday, Rev. G. W. Guion, Fredericton.

HEADS GLOUCESTER TEACHERS
Robert J. Love, formerly of Devon, and now principal of the Bathurst Grammar School, was elected president of the Gloucester County Teachers' Institute at the closing session held yesterday at Bathurst. Mr. Love is well known in this city and is a graduate of the University of New Brunswick, class of 1928. He received his M. A. in 1930.

PRESENTED WITH PIANO
The Mauderville Agricultural Society, No. 191, have reason to be appreciative to Frank L. Cooper, of this city, who recently donated them with a piano for their hall. On the occasion of the Rotary Club's recent visit to Mauderville, Mr. Cooper used the piano in the hall there and found that it was in bad shape. It had been greatly damaged by the spring flood in that area. Mr. Cooper immediately took it on himself to see that the Mauderville Agricultural Society had the old piano replaced by another one.

EGG LAYING CONTEST
The 49th week of the New Brunswick Egg Laying Contest, conducted at the Dominion Experimental Station was concluded on Thursday, October 8, with a production of 631 eggs and 726.0 points. This is an average production for the week of 37.5 per cent. The Barred Rocks owned by W. A. Sansom, Durham Bridge, led in production for the week with 41 eggs and 48.7 points. The Barred Rocks owned by Karl W. Smith, of Prince William, were in second position for the week with 39 eggs and 45.1 points. EXPANSION OF "Y" ACTIVITIES COMING SEASON

Secretary R. J. Albrant Announces Outline of Winter Work
Includes All Classes
Recreation School, Forum, Business Men Classes

An expansion of Y. M. C. A. work "on all fronts" for the approaching winter season was announced by Ralph J. Albrant, "Y" secretary here, at a meeting of the directors of the community "Y" held last evening in the office of the secretary. George W. Brown, president of the Association, presided. Reginald A. Murray, chairman of the finance committee, presented a report on the financial campaign which indicated that only a small percentage of the pledges of contributions were still unpaid and that his committee was following these up personally. W. J. West reported for the nominating committee and pointed out that the constitution called for the annual meeting and election of officers for the ensuing year, to be held this month. A motion was passed setting the date for this meeting as Thursday, October 15.

R. J. Albrant, general secretary presented a programme for the consideration of the board and said that due to the strength the organization had gained it should feel that it must expand its programme on all fronts this next year.

FISH STOCKING SEASON ENDS, REPORT WORK

Allan R. Menzies Gives Out Statistics on Fish Stocking
686,000 Fish Planted
Marking of Fish Aids in Getting Early Run on Nashwaak

Allan R. Menzies, chairman of the fishing stocking committee of the local branch of the Fish and Game Protective Association today announced conclusion of the season's work with statistics on the number of fish which have been planted during the year. The total amounts to 686,000 fish, including trout fry, trout fingerlings, salmon fingerlings. The last of the fish-stocking programme was carried out today when 13,000 Restigouche salmon fingerlings were placed in the main Nashwaak by Mr. Menzies.

The report of the fish-stocking committee of the Fredericton branch of the N. B. Fish and Game Protective Association is as follows:

Nashwaaksis and tributaries, middle branch, 25,000 trout fry; Meadow branch, 15,000; Kingsley branch, 30,000; main Nashwaaksis, 20,000; tributaries of the Nashwaak river: Peniac, 25,000; Manzer Mills stream 25,000; Dunbar, 15,000; Tin Kettle 15,000; Hayes brook, 10,000; Thomas brook, 10,000; Pigeon brook, 10,000; Lime Kiln, 10,000.

Trout fingerling—Harvey Lake, 30,000; Baker Brook, 10,000; Rusiagonis stream, 15,000; Kelly creek, 15,000.

Salmon fingerling, from the St. John river hatcheries—For main Nashwaak river, June 24th, 90,000; June 25, 90,000; July 2, 80,000; July 7, 50,000; August 5, 40,000; Sept. 28, 13,000; Sept. 30, 12,000; Oct. 2, 14,000.

Restigouche salmon fingerling—For the main Nashwaak river, Oct. 9, 14,000; Oct. 10, 13,000. These Restigouche salmon fingerlings are about three inches long and the right pectoral fin cut off, and the adipose. All the fish are marked so as to ascertain if the fish come back again. The reason for the marking is to endeavor to get an early run of fish in the Nashwaak river. As a rule salmon come back to the spawning ground or the place where young salmon are planted.

PASTOR OF ST. PAUL'S EXTENDED MONTREAL CALL

Rev. George Telford May Accept Erskine United Pastorate
Preaches There Sunday
Is an Energetic Worker and Also Eloquent Preacher

It is understood on good authority that Rev. George Telford, pastor of St. Paul's United church, has been extended a call by Erskine United Church, of Montreal. This is one of the most important churches in the city of Montreal. The pulpit of this church was formerly occupied by the late Rev. Dr. A. J. Mowatt, a former pastor of St. Paul's church, who left here about thirty years ago to accept that pastorate. Rev. Mr. Telford, who had been connected with St. Paul's church since September, 1927—almost ten years—is an energetic worker and an eloquent preacher and has a large number of friends in this city who are not confined to any denomination. He has taken an active part in every thing that stands for community welfare.

Rev. Mr. Telford left here last evening for Montreal, where he will preach before the congregation of Erskine church tomorrow. It is understood that he has not yet decided whether he will accept the call or not.

BAILEY ESTATE PROBATED

The estate of the late Dr. George W. Bailey, who died on September 21 in this city, was probated here this week. The total value of the estate is $3,500, which is left to his wife, Mrs. Gwendolyn Bailey, and children. The executors named are his wife and Rolfe K. Nevers, this city. There is no real estate.
