REPORTED REVOLT OF CIVIL GUARDS IN MADRID TODAY

(Special to The Daily Mail)
LONDON, Nov. 6—Reports were current here today that Spanish civil guards had revolted and were fighting the militia in the streets of Madrid. White flags were said to have been raised on the outskirts of the city.

These reports were unconfirmed, however.

W. A. Turner of Peterboro is a visitor to the city for a few days.

Buy a Poppy

TOMORROW IS POPPY DAY.

The purpose of Poppy Day is the selling of poppies and poppy wreaths. The purpose is two-fold, viz: to honor the dead and to help the disabled living and needy dependents of the dead. Surely there could be no cause in which a patriotic people would rather share.

The wreaths and poppies that are offered for sale each Poppy Day are made by disabled war veterans—veterans who are permanently and seriously disabled and who need our help. The proceeds of the poppy sales are used to help these poor fellows and also the dependents of the comrades who are no more. The disabled take this means of seeking to help themselves financially.

Could any appeal go more to the heart and the purse?

We were surprised when informed that cases have been known of people wearing the same red poppy year after year, to escape paying the price of a fresh poppy.

We respect the thought that goes with the bestowing of wreaths on the Cenotaph and the wearing of a poppy in the button hole of one's coat. The outward expression is fine, and is as it should be, but that in itself is not realizing the object of the day.

Those who observe the spirit of the day should see that their poppies are of the 1936 model.

The call, coupled with the little flower, is surely such as to merit the investment as well as the display. Receive those who call in a spirit of courtesy. Buy a poppy—remember the boys from here and elsewhere who sleep beneath the poppies in Flanders Fields. Some were your own. Some were the playmates of your youth at the York, Charlotte, Regent or other schools.

A Remembrance Day Poppy can be bought for a few cents. Is that too much sacrifice to make in memory of heroic dead, or for the crippled and orphaned living? No amount is too small, none too large. Give what you can afford.

On November 7th buy a poppy, and on November 8, 9, 10 and 11 wear a poppy—a 1936 poppy—in memory of those who gave their lives, or who became disabled in "a war to end wars."

WINTER FAIR OPENING ON SATURDAY

AMHERST, N. S., Nov. 5—Premier Angus L. Macdonald will attend the Maritime Winter Fair here next Wednesday, and it is expected that during the week official representatives of other provinces will be present at the show. Today, C. F. Bailey, Fredericton, president of the Maritime Stock Breeders' Association, arrived in town and expressed satisfaction at all arrangements carried out to date. Mr. Bailey was amazed by the entry list for the horse show, 179 horses having been entered from the three provinces. In some of the leading ring events, 38 horses will appear.

Nearly 700 head of beef and dairy cattle, in addition to entries from boys' and girls' club clubs, will be in their stalls on Saturday morning, while the poultry house will be well filled. A record entry of sheep and swine has also been received.

Entries commenced to arrive last evening and freight and express officials were busy all day. The big rush will be under way tomorrow and Saturday.

Naval Conference Reaches Agreement

(Special to The Daily Mail)
LONDON, Nov. 6—The five power Naval Conference, which included Great Britain, United States, India and Japan have come to an agreement. The commander of a submarine must communicate with the captain of the ship before sinking it, to ensure the safety of the crew and the passengers. The safety of the ship means that the ship must be near land. Co-operation between the air ministry and the naval authorities in regard to bombing ships must be ensured.

NEW TRADE AGREEMENT BY ENGLAND, ITALY

(Special to The Daily Mail)

LONDON, Nov. 6—The new trade agreement between England and Italy for which arrangements have been taking place during the past six weeks, was expected to be signed today. Two main points are contained in the treaty. One was the liquidation of frozen debts, Italy owing Britain over two and a quarter million dollars, and the importation of Great Britain's material into Italy. There was no official comment made by Italy's press today in regard to Sir Anthony's speech. The only thing to cause Italy any concern probably would be the failure of Eden's speech to admit England's recognition of Italy's conquest in Ethiopia.

FINAL ATTACK ON MADRID STARTED THIS MORNING

(Special to The Daily Mail)

MADRID, Nov. 6—The Spanish insurgents started the final attack on the capital at six o'clock this morning. Since then, the artillery has been bombing and shelling the city incessantly. Moorish troops have come in direct contact with the defenders and the Spanish government reports that 8,000 Moorish troops and 2,000 Europeans are attacking the city.

The Spanish Embassy in London is in contact with Madrid by telephone today. The loyalists claim that Madrid is not falling. Every man is standing his post. British warships have so far been successful in carrying over 6,000 refugees since the start of the war.

COLLEGES LOOK TO 'WHOLE MAN' FOR CANDIDATES

Dean Hawkes Says They No Longer Select New Students on Ability Alone.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6—The new philosophy of college education being adopted at the present time looks to the "whole man" rather than to only the scholastic ability of the students as has been done in the past, Dean Herbert E. Hawkes of Columbia College, said yesterday in his annual report to Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University.

American colleges today are "assuming responsibility for students' health, character, conduct and manners, while in the past scholarship was virtually the sole obligation imposed upon undergraduates," Dean Hawkes said. "Under the old regime," he added, "if a boy could pass the entrance examinations he was admitted to college, and remained there as long as he did creditable (Continued on Page Four)

Any Attack on Roumanian Border Will Mean War

(Special to The Daily Mail)

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Nov. 6—In reference to Mussolini's speech from Milan over Sunday, a former Prime Minister of Rumania, in making a public speech, stated that any attack on any Rumanian border on the part of Italy would mean war.

ABOARD S. S. EMPRESS OF BRITAIN, Nov. 6—King Edward VIII is planning a visit to Canada soon after his coronation next May, Prime Minister Mackenzie King indicated last night as he came back from a European visit.

The prime minister said the King was looking forward to a visit to Canada as soon as possible after his trip to India, which is planned for almost immediately after the May coronation. Mr. King said more about the monarch's proposed visit to the Dominion. It was the first official indication King Edward expected to visit this country next year.

King Edward's trip will mark the first time in history that a reigning British monarch has visited Canada. He has travelled through the Dominion a number of times, but before he came to the throne.

His father, King George V, also visited Canada, but it was prior to his accession.

King Edward's visit to India, preceding the journey to Canada, will be for the purpose of being crowned Emperor of India. A ceremonial Durbar will see him vested as ruler of India's millions.

The warm friendship or stronger feeling possessed by the King for Mrs. Simpson continues to be the main topic of conversation at the clubs and in fact in every place where (Continued on Page Five)

WAR VETERANS ENTERTAINED AT BORDER

ST. STEPHEN, Nov. 6—The 20th annual dinner tendered by the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion members was held last night in the Masonic Hall here and was attended by about 200. The long tables were beautifully decorated, and Casey's orchestra played as the war veterans marched into the hall. They also played during the dinner. Fred McAllister was accompanist during the programme. The chief speakers were Brigadier L. F. Page, Saint John and Rev. Benjamin Clarke, Calais, chaplain of Sherman Bros. Post No. 3, American Legion.

General Health of England is Better Than Ever

(Special to The Daily Mail)
LONDON, Nov. 6—Forty speeches were heard in the House of Commons today in connection with the Labor amendment. The main topics discussed were nutrition and small wages. The Minister of Health stated that the general health of England was better today than ever before. A movement is on foot for physical training among the young people and organization along those lines.

EACH NATION SHOULD MIND ITS OWN BUSINESS - CANADA'S AFFAIRS ARE LOOKED AFTER

Peace Prospects Brighten --- League Doing Good Work

QUEBEC, Nov. 6—Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, Premier of Canada, returned home today from Geneva.

Mr. King appeared well after his trip and said he would be glad to be back in Ottawa. He arrived in the Capital at noon today.

Reports that Canada is planning a large defence programme are "quite misleading," Prime Minister King told newspapermen tonight.

The prime minister, met by newspapermen who boarded the Empress of Britain off Father Point, Que., said defence matters in general were discussed in London but defence of Canada, or Imperial defence, was not discussed as such. Canada, he said, was not committed to anything.

Peace Prospects Brighter

Mr. King said he returned to Canada convinced each nation should mind its own affairs, meanwhile exerting good will for peace which, he (Continued on Page Five)
