ELEANOR IS STILL WRANGLING WITH OFFICIALS

Beautiful Swimmer Hits at A.A.U. Heads Again — Was Discriminated Against.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Eleanor Holmes Jarrett, the bathing beauty who rocked the American Olympic boat last summer, isn't going to Houston, Texas, but she would like the administration's forces to know what she thinks about the situation before they look horns with prospective opposition in the 1936 convention of the Amateur Athletic Union, with Avery Brundage wielding the gavel.

"If they want to bury the Olympic medal, as Brundage suggests, they can do so without worrying me," remarked the girl whose dismissal from the Olympic team for violation of training rules shook the athletic world.

"If, on the other hand, they bring the Olympic arguments back into the open, I would like to have the officers of the A. A. U. explain why they permitted varying standards of conduct to exist on the trip to Berlin, why I was singled out for punishment when the so-called training rules were violated by dozens of athletes and why the star chamber proceedings of the Olympic Committee concerning my case never were fully made public?"

Concerned About Status

Mrs. Jarrett also is concerned about her status as an amateur. Despite an official opinion that she has automatically professionalized herself, first, by writing newspaper articles during the Olympics and, second, by capitalizing her swimming reputation in night clubs or vaudeville, the back-stroke swimming queen insists she has violated no amateur code.

"Whether I ever compete again as an amateur is beside the point," she declared. "Any and all contracts I have signed for personal appearances specifically provided my swimming record was not to be used in any advertising."

"Why would I reject the offers I have received to commercialize my swimming ability if I did not want to remain within the letter and spirit of the amateur rule? Why would I spend my own money to go to court and fight an attempt to force me into going with a professional swimming tour if I wasn't determined not to jeopardize my amateur standing?"

"There's another point Mrs. Jarrett would like to settle with Brundage, who acted to disbar her from any amateur competition in Europe, despite the fact she had no intention of seeking to compete, under any auspices, amateur or professional."

Brundage Explains Remark
Brundage was quoted on his return to the United States as saying: "Mrs. Jarrett wasn't dismissed from the team just for drinking."

The chairman of the American Olympic Committee made the same statement to an Associated Press correspondent in Berlin.

"I was misinterpreted," he said to the same writer in Chicago, where he was told Mrs. Jarrett had challenged the remark.

"What I said or intended to say was that Mrs. Jarrett wasn't dismissed just for taking one glass of champagne." She was given a second chance after her first offense. She defied the committee's strict warning. She had only herself to blame for the action that the committee had no alternative but to take."

It remains to be seen whether a "fresh chapter in the celebrated 'Jarrett Case'" will be written in connection with the A. A. U. convention December 4-6.

Fredericton Capitals Meet Moncton Tonight; League Opener

ST. CROIX CLUB HAS 18 TRYING FOR 1936 SQUAD

ST. STEPHEN, Dec. 1.—The St. Stephen entry into the Southern New Brunswick Hockey League, greatly strengthened by the addition of four new players, took the ice for the first real hockey practice of the year before a large crowd of sport enthusiasts. Playing Coach Rollie Robertson, former Mount Allison star, put the 18 players, trying for position, through two hours of strenuous workout. He tried out various combinations of forwards, several of which clicked to perfection.

Coach Robertson was pleased with his charges and the manner in which they performed at such an early date. Co-managers Whitlock and Priulsky were also pleased with the performance of their new men and members of last year's St. Croix Club and predicted that they would have a team of championship calibre on the ice in a few weeks.

Of the four newcomers Coach Robertson will probably play defence. Doucet, former St. Joseph University star, and McIntyre and Cameron, late of the Fredericton Yorks, teamed up with Lowe, Russell and Jack McIntee to form two fast and shifty lines of forwards. Love, Wilson, McCurdy, McKinnon, McCracken, Ralston and Veazey, the latter of North Battleford, Sask., will probably race for positions on the third line. Teamed up with the coach on defence will be "Boo" MacIntee, Calder and Armstrong of last year's team. Practices will be held every night this week until the team meets the Saint John Seawulls in Saint John on Friday night.

BRADDOCK AND SCHMELING WILL MEET SHORTLY

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The New York State Athletic Commission has made a move toward setting a date for the world heavyweight championship bout between James J. Braddock and Max Schmeling. The board served notice to the Twentieth Century Sporting Club and the Madison Square Garden Corporation, associated in the promotion of the bout, to name a date for the show within two weeks.

Braddock and Schmeling were to have met last September, but the fight fell through when the champion was seized with an attack of arthritis. The promoter then decided to stage the bout next June, and the necessary papers were signed with the boxers.

Besides notifying the promoters to name a date, the commission also cabled Schmeling, who is now in Germany, asking him to be present here in two weeks or to designate power of attorney to some one now here to guard his interests.

Braddock submitted to an examination by Dr. George Howley, Dr. William Walker and Major Charles Bles of the commission staff and was pronounced completely rid of the arthritis, that interfered with his defending his title last September.

The matter of Braddock's posting a $5,000 forfeit to insure his fighting Schmeling was not discussed by the board, nor was mention made of the proposed twelve-round no-decision fight between Braddock and Joe Louis, which Herman Taylor of Philadelphia plans to promote in Atlantic City in February.

BABE PREFERS BOSS POST IN BIG LEAGUES

Done Too Much For the Majors to Accept Minor Post, He Says

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 2.—Babe Ruth formally was offered the managership of the International League Albany Senators yesterday, but failed to reach a decision after conferring for an hour with Joe Cambria, the Senators' owner, The Associated Press reports.

Although Ruth repeatedly has said he is not interested in a minor league post, and his wife is known to be opposed to anything except a major league berth for the Bambino, Ruth announced he would withhold final decision until he has had an opportunity to confer with Clark Griffith, president of the Washington Senators. Washington has a working agreement with Albany.

"Ruth deferred decision until he has a chance to talk with Clark Griffith next month," said Cambria. "Although we made him no financial offer, we are prepared to pay him one of the largest salaries in the International League's history."

"The Babe made it plain that he feels he's done too much for the major leagues to accept a position in the minor league. But we're hopeful."

CAPITALS AT MONCTON FOR OPENING TILT

Fredericton Capitals' Hockey Club left here tonight by car for Moncton, where they will stack the training they have gained in their one week of workouts against the mid-season form of "Dud" James' Maroons. It will be the opening game of the 1936-37 Southern New Brunswick Hockey League.

Although it is generally conceded that the Maroons by virtue of their pre-season experience, will set a fast pace for the Capitals, "Big" Larry McLean had his charges looking like "big time" material at the workout in the Arctic rink here. Clad in their new green and white uniforms, the Capitals went through a fast hour and a half workout led by the veteran Fredericton line of "Bus" McLenahan, Bill Lifford and Freddie Mills. Those three displayed the same speed and combination which stamped them as one of the best lines in New Brunswick last season.

Three rookies made the trip. They

CURLING AS MORALE CITED

OTTAWA, Dec. 2.—Nothing has done more to keep up the morale of the people of Western Canada during the recent year of drought than the game of curling. Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture told a local curling club at its season-opening luncheon Saturday. Mr. Gardiner said curling was now a national sport in the West and woman and young men were taking to it in increasing numbers as well as the older men. It served to brighten up otherwise dreary winter evenings.

are "Ron" Laskey, lanky defenceman, who will pair up with Bob Chalmers and the veteran "Bud" Steen as a guard for goalie "Cliff" Young, and "Bun" McLenahan and Johnny Kilburn, who will flank "Chod" Haining at right and left wings respectively on the second line. Jeff Richards, former Fredericton Cubs' netman made the trip as sub-goalie.

Coach McLean was unable to make the trip but his coaching duties on the trip will be taken over by Steen. The team will be in charge of Vernon Olive, president and manager.

SPORT BREVITIES

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Everybody has been wondering where Larry MacPhail will bob up next season... reports have had him going to Brooklyn, St. Louis and other spots... the real dope is that right now the former general manager of the Reds is trying to put an International League franchise in Jersey City to be used as a spearhead for a chain of minor league clubs with a closer than close working agreement with the Giants, who claim to control the Jersey City stadium... there may be a fight on this at Montreal this week... Newark (owned by the Yankees) is getting a protest ready, claiming it controls the territory since Jersey City is within the International League's 10-mile limit.

Most southern coaches agree Louisiana State is easily the best team in Dixie... but it still looks like Alabama for the Rose Bowl, because Washington will do the inviting, and Washington wants to get even for that lolling Alabama handed it some years back... one or two eastern writers are campaigning to have Penn nominated.

Seattle Times says Ed. Goddard, Washington State football star, will turn pro and try either pro football, baseball or both. You probably won't find him on many All-Americans, but George Mike, tackle on little West Virginia Wesleyan, which beat Duquesne which had just trimmed Pitt, could play his position on any college team in the country... he blocked two punts against Duquesne, one of which resulted in the safety which enabled his team to win, 2-0... Stub Allison California coach, may not know it, but he's going to be offered a new five year contract with a fat raise... Eastern schools are after Stub, who has been working for "depression wages," less than $10,000 per year.

JAPANESE CUSTOMS OF MARRYING

TOKYO, Dec. 2.—Hideko Mayehata, 23, Olympic champion of the women's 200-metre breast-stroke, is going to marry Masahito Hyoto, 28, a young surgeon—chosen as her husband by a university president.

Miss Mayehata had many suitors—among them millionaires and peers. Unable to make up her mind which one to accept, she finally appealed to Masaji Sugiyama, president of the university from which she was graduated.

It is a Japanese tradition to have a "go-between" in marriage arrangements. Sugiyama finally selected young Hyoto. The latter has seen Miss Mayehata only twice.

LEAFS SHOVE MAROONS BACK INTO LAST PLACE

Broda Played Sensationally Through Crucial Tests

MONTREAL, Dec. 1.—Toronto's Maple Leafs battered Montreal Maroons into bottom place in the Canadian Section of the National Hockey League here tonight in a game that gained its greatest speed in the last period as the Montreal team staged a futile fight to overcome the 2-1 lead.

The Leafs, through Harvey Jackson in the first and second periods gained the advantage which they held until the closing period when Herbie Cain in a combined rush with Bob Gracie and Jimmy Ward saved the lowly Montrealers from a white-washing.

Broda played sensationally at all times and especially during more than a minute of the second period when Maroons had a two-man advantage through penalties to Shill and Day. Then he kicked out shots from every Maroon player on the ice, handling himself perfectly on the close in drives.

Jackson scored the first goal only a minute and 37 seconds after the game started. Gord Drillon went

Schmeling May Get the "Works"

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Belief grew along Broadway today that somebody is getting ready to give Herr Max Schmeling what the boys call "the works."

As the obviously worried German prepared to dash here to find out what it's all about, tongues wagged busily in pubs along W. 49th Street.

Schmeling is to go before the New York State Athletic Commission Dec. 11 and approve a date for a summer title fight with James J. Braddock. Braddock is supposed to be there to sign up.

through the defence carrying the puck, slipped it to Jackson as they neared Alex Connell and Harvey had an easy time beating the Maroon goalie.

Jackson Gets Goal

MONTREAL, Dec. 1.—Gordon Drillon, one-time Moncton junior, who is filling in for Charlie Conacher on Toronto Maple Leafs' lineup, received credit for 15 minutes tonight as the scorer of Leafs' first goal against Montreal Maroons.

Action was so fast around the Maroon net when the opening goal came that the officials put down Drillon as the scorer and gave Harvey Jackson the assist. The pair had barged through the defence together and were so close to each other when the shoe was made that the marksman couldn't be distinguished.

Banff Prepares for Ski Championships

The spectacular skiing depicted in the above drawing of Mount Norquay near Banff in the Canadian Rockies will become an accomplished fact at the Dominion Championships of the Canadian Amateur Ski Association to be held there from March 5 to 8. Only four miles by good motor road from Banff, which is situated 4,500 feet above sea level on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Mount Norquay is but one of the many fine skiing districts which is earning a worldwide reputation for the Canadian Rockies.

Competitors and visitors to Banff for the men's Dominion championships and the women's Western Canadian championships have some pleasant surprises in store for them. The best Canadian and American skiers will compete on trails and jumps difficult enough to try the nerve of the best of them. Pleasure skiing is particularly attractive throughout the beautiful mountain district. All the local and many imported amusements will fill in the spare hours.

With the assistance of the Dominion Government, the slopes of 8,275 Mount Norquay have had jumps, downhill runs, and slalom courses built on them equalling the best in the world. The downhill run, starting 7,500 feet up the mountain, drops 3,000 feet in a mile and a half. Jumps of 250 feet or more are expected from the new jump built on the style of the ones at Garmisch, Germany, and Lake Placid. The slalom course is at an angle of 30 to 40 degrees. Entertainment for visitors, after the day's skiing programme has been completed, will include skating, hockey matches, curling, moonlight sleighing and tobogganing, snowshoeing, dancing, and — of all things for a winter resort — outdoor swimming in a naturally warm sulphur pool.

Plans are also being made to detain some of the competitors as guests of Banff to show them other less accessible but possibly better skiing grounds, notably Skoki, which is 14 miles from Lake Louise by ski trail; Sunshine, which is eight miles by motor and eight miles by ski from Banff; and Assiniboine, which is 25 miles by ski trail from Banff.
