Maritime Boxing Tourney One Week Away

Committee to Select Team For Canadian Olympic Trials—Laskey Ready

SAINT JOHN, June 27—One week from today the class of Maritime amateur leather-pushers will have been advised of their selection to the Maritime boxing team to compete in the Dominion Olympic trials at Montreal on July 11, 12 and 13.

At that time battle-scarred heroes will have emerged from the greatest of ring wars ever to have been staged in the sea-board provinces.

Directly after the finals on Friday night, July 3, the committee to select those for the Dominion Olympic trials will have made the choice and it is believed that its selection will give the Maritimes its finest team from the cream of boxers who will compete here.

To enter the Dominion trials it is necessary that the boxers from the three provinces compete here and no boxer, who has the intention of entering the Canadian finals, will be allowed to compete unless he has won his spurs at the Maritime Olympic trials.

On Selection Committee

It is expected that D. W. Fraser, vice-president of the Maritime Provinces Branch of the A. A. U. of C. and Sheriff C. D. Shipley, secretary-treasurer of that body will be on the selection committee, with others yet to be named. Mr. Fraser is also the chairman of the M. P. B. boxing committee of which W. J. Farren, West Saint John, and George Lewis, New Waterford, are members.

Last night Dallas Laskey, lightweight champion of New Brunswick, arrived here from his home in Fredericton to taper off in training with Gerald and Fred Farren at the Martello A. C.

Laskey is one of the finest defensive boxers New Brunswick has produced in years. He is only a High School boy, but with his clever work he has reached the top rung of the ladder in his class in amateur ring events.

Along with Laskey there are several boxers from H.M.S. Dragon who are also working out at the Martello A. C., with the intention of getting in the meet.

J. J. Mooney, owner of Peninsular Farms, Freemount, O., and president of the Hambletonian Society, is in a Cincinnati hospital suffering from a fractured leg.

The sensational two-year-old trotter which Mrs. Roland Harriman recently drove to a record of 2:06 1-4, is eligible to the National Stake to be raced at Old Orchard's Grand Circuit meet the last week in July.

Boxers for Hambletonian Day, Aug. 19 at Goshen, N. Y., are already at a premium.

MAX BOOED

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 27—Maxie Baer decided his ring tactics, effective enough against Wilson Dunn, a San Antonio heavyweight, were not appreciated by Dunn's home town fans.

A police escort took Baer from the ring last night after his three-round knockout over Dunn. The fans booed loudly as Baer slapped Dunn through the ropes in the third. Dunn couldn't come back, so Baer yelled at the crowd.

Through a sea of boos and threatened violence, Baer was taken to the door.

U. S. WON TWO OF DAVIS CUP GAMES IN PLAY

WIMBLEDON, June 26—One Englishman, one German and two United States players rested tonight in the quarter-final round of the all-England tennis championships.

H. W. "Bunny" Austin, Baron Gottfried Von Cramm of Germany, and Don Budge and Wilmer Allison of the United States all won their matches today to reach the final eight.

The other four players for the group will be decided tomorrow with Britain's major hope, Fred Perry, and the two Australian aces, Jack Crawford and Adrian Quist, facing matches which should not trouble them greatly.

Austin's victim today was Martin Leageay of France and the scores were 6-4, 6-1, 6-2. He made a shaky start, losing the first four games at love, but recovered quickly to turn in an accomplished and convincing win.

Tara trained in 2:09 1-2 before leaving Fair Oaks Farm.

"PUSH 'EM UP" TONY IS STILL OUTWITTING UMPS, OPPONENT

Veteran's Cagey Play Helps Yankees to Keep at Top—A Real Comeback

NEW YORK, June 26—Tony Lazzeri makes trouble for the umpires, but not in the same way that some of the bad boys of the big leagues do. He doesn't abuse them and get tossed out of games. Indeed, one has a difficult time remembering any occasion when the Signor has been banished for a too combative display in an umpire's direction.

Tony throws them into confusion and makes trouble for them in a different way. He does it with a keen baseball mind which is quick to pounce upon the unusual and turn it to his team's advantage. He is constantly creating odd situations which take a little time for the arbiters to figure out and test all of their knowledge of the rules.

In the past couple of days at the Stadium, in Sunday's game with the Indians and again with the Browns yesterday, veteran and competent umpires were momentarily stymied by problems brought up by Lazzeri's cagey play. The interference on Sammy Hale in the fourth inning of Sunday's game—a tricky ruling decided in favor of the Yanks which was of vital importance in determining the result of that stirring sixteen-inning battle—was brought to Umpire Brick Owens' attention by Lazzeri. Owens said it was the first time he had seen the play in thirty-three years in baseball.

Winding up the victory over the Browns yesterday—a victory which was already assured because of the one-sided score, but which was being fitfully drawn out—Tony created another upsetting problem. There were runners on first and second with one out when Sammy West sent a lazy drooping liner in Lazzeri's direction.

Catches Umpire Napping
Tony could have caught it easily with his bare hand. Instead, noticing that the runner on second was holding his base, and that the man on first was midway to second and about to turn back to first, he let the ball drop safely, then picked it up and tossed it to rosetti for the completion of a double play. Frankie tagged Coleman, who was the runner standing on second, and then stepped on the bag to force out Bell, who was on first.

A Peek at Sports

NEW YORK, June 27—Madison Square Garden will go into the courts, if necessary, to prevent James J. Braddock fighting Max Schmeling for Mike Jacobs. . . . They may as well line up their lawyers, for the contracts are as good as signed (if they aren't already) . . . Your agent is being razed unmercifully by fans in all parts of the country for going out on the limb on Louis . . . Well, we had it coming. . . . The line forms at the right, boys.

Looks like old Jack Johnson had the right dope on the Brown Bomber, doesn't it . . . Trouble was nobody believed him but Mac Schmeling . . . Joe Di Maggio disobeyed orders in one of the Detroit games by hitting the ball when he had the bunt sign. . . .

Tip: Don't sell Bill Bonthron snort when the battle starts for places on the Olympic team. . . . Along Broadway they're calling Braddock and Schmeling the "comeback boys" . . . Prof. Casey Stengel and his Dodgers are taking bows for stopping the Cubs.

If Van Mungo hadn't let his temper get the best of him, he'd be pitching for the Giants today . . . The day before he bolted, Bill Terry called and offered Brooklyn Clydeell Castleman, Hank Leiber and $25,000 for Mungo. . . . Terry was prepared to raise the cash ante to $60,000—which Stengel would have accepted. . . . the next day Mungo made the worst move of his life and jumped.

Does anybody know the story behind the collapse of Schoolboy Rowe? . . . The wailing walls and aspirin factories were crowded with boxing experts over the week-end. . . . Jack Del-beg pardon, Doyle—is back among us—but not to fight—thank goodness.

The loss of Hank Greenberg crippled the Tigers offensively, but not in the field. . . . Jack Burns is coming up with balls Hank never would have reached.

The Arden Homestead Stables racing string is still at Goshen as E. Roland Harriman would not allow it to be shipped to Lexington, Ky., because of the serious illness of trainer Will Dickerson's son.

GUS INJURED

HOLYOKE, Mass., June 27—Gus Sonnenberg, of Boston, former heavyweight wrestling champion, fractured his left hip at the Valley Arena here and was removed to hospital.

He was in the ring with Count Zarynoff, of North Grafton, and after 90 minutes and 21 seconds Zarynoff put on an airplane whirl and tossed Sonnenberg but of the ring. As he went, Gus grabbed at the rope, stopping his fall and causing him to strike the edge of the ring sharply.

Tommy Rae, of South Hadley, substituted for Sonnenberg and wrestled to a draw with Zarynoff.

MANITOBA GIRL SET NEW 100-METRES RECORD

WINNIPEG, June 27—The Manitoba branch of the women's amateur athletic federation of Canada today faced the problem of raising funds necessary to send a track and field team to the Olympic trials. Selection of the team will not be made until the funds are forthcoming.

Two Canadian records were broken and another equalled last night as the Manitoba championships were conducted here in conjunction with the provincial Olympic tests.

Mary Pitt, sprint star of the Canadian girls in training, dashed 100 meters in 12 2-5 seconds to take one-tenth second off the intermediate mark established in 1930 by Lillian Palmer of Vancouver, member of the last Canadian Olympic team.

Robina Higgins, Winnipeg north-end athletic club, tossed the javelin 123 feet 2 1-2 inches to add one foot, 10 1-2 inches to her previous record. Her club-mate, Mona Johnson, equalled the Canadian junior 60-metres in 7 4-5 seconds.

The junior sprint mark is held jointly by Margaret Fitzpatrick of Crossfield, Alta. Gwen Pherill and Grace Martin, both of Montreal, and Adelaide Adams, Toronto.

Nine other provincial marks were bettered during the meet.

Harness Notes From the Border

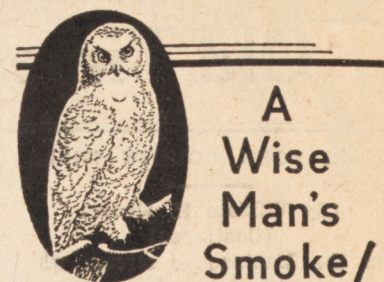

ST. STEPHEN, June 27—Suffolk Downs opened last week.

Rosalind, present time favorite for the Hambletonian, is given her training by her owner Gibson White. Her fastest mile reported this spring is 2:09.

Paul Bowser's Fair Oaks Farm is now horseless for the first time in years. Last Friday the racing queen Tara, 2:00, Hartford, 2:03 1-4, Uplift, 2:04, Earl West, 2:06 1-2, and the two-year-old Patchworthy shipped to North Randall.

The first four foals of Minnetonka, 2:12 1-4, the half-sister to Tilly Brooke, 1:59, owned by Charles W. Phellis, of New York, have trotted into the 2:05 list and her fifth Balbo is on his way, having taken a record this spring of 2:10 3-4.

The passing of Hugh Love removes one of the pioneer horsemen of this vicinity a real "dyed in the wool" lover of harness racing. He not only was a promoter but a breeder raiser, developer, trainer and race diver. When it came to balancing and getting them going he had no superior. He did his own shoeing. His first race success was Rose L., one of the best colt trotters in her day and his last was the ever popular favorite.

SPORT TOPICS

With Van Lingle Mungo, ace pitcher on the mound, the Brooklyn Dodgers defeated the dashing Chicago Cubs by 6 to 4 in the second game of yesterday's doubleheader and thus stopped the Bruins' winning streak at fifteen. They also prevented the National League champions from going into first place.

Chicago's sensational climb has overshadowed the performances of the other contenders, but it will be noted that the Buccaneers from the Smokey City have been winning consistently, are now within hailing distance of the Cardinals, and may upset all pre-season calculations. Manager "Pie" Traynor is getting results and his team will bear watching.

Lady Fondly which thousands paid at the gate to see race. Hugh and the fast pacing mare were always a great drawing card, she could step down to the quarter in 30 seconds anytime she was asked, he won many races with her, sometimes turning her over to Archie Johnson so that he himself could see her race.

He was always much interested in the St. Stephen Exhibition and was always on the racing committee and was track superintendent many years and took great pleasure and interest in keeping the surface ready to race on. He never made an enemy, no one ever heard anyone speak ill of Hugh Love. His funeral was largely attended and he will be much missed.
