REMAINS IN CITY

Hon. A. A. Dysart, premier of the province, remained in the city over the week-end after having opened the Fredericton Exhibition on Saturday night. He was engaged in routine business at his office this morning.

HERE ON HOLIDAYS

Harold Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Murray has arrived here to spend the next two weeks with his relatives. Mr. Murray is now in the main office of the Royal Bank of Canada staff in Ottawa. He is being warmly welcomed by his many friends in this city.

CONDUCTED SCALERS' EXAMS

G. L. Miller, chief forester of the province, returned to his home here Saturday after conducting the examinations for scalers' licenses at Campbellton. Thirty-one candidates stood the papers, five of them having tried before. Mr. Miller also made a survey of woods' conditions while in the north of the province.

NEAR FREEZING POINT

The official thermometer at the Dominion Experimental Station was near the freezing point this morning. At thirty-nine degrees the temperature was the coldest since September 5, when the mercury dropped to 36 degrees. Frost occurred in some sections of York and Sunbury counties. The weather, while clear today, remained quite cold.

QUEENSBURY MAN PASSES

Charles A. Gunter of Lower Queensbury died yesterday at his home after a lingering illness. Seventy-six years old, deceased was known and respected throughout the province. Left to mourn are three sons, Andrew, Saint John; Fred W., of this city and Cecil R., at home; and two daughters, Mrs. Lebaron Anderson, Andover and Mrs. Orlo Morehouse, Fort Fairfield, Maine.

SENTENCED THIS AFTERNOON

Joseph Trombley of Penniac, appeared before acting magistrate Arthur McK. Limerick in the police court this morning, charged with being in control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, and after the hearing of two witnesses he was remanded until this afternoon for sentence. Trombley was arrested last week following an accident on the Nashwaak road, when his car struck a motorcycle and knocked its driver, William McGloin of Marysville into the ditch, inflicting a broken leg. The former was arrested by R.C.M.P. Three witnesses were heard this morning, Bennie Whitlock of Penniac, and Constables Evans and Matchett of the R.C.M.P. Albert Murray was prosecuting attorney. A second charge, that of causing grievous bodily harm may be brought against the Penniac man.

CHRISTENED ON SUNDAY

At the morning service of St. Paul's United Church, Sunday, seven children were christened by the minister, Rev. George Telford. Four children of Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeSaulnier, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watling, a son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Neilsen, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Prime, all were baptised. Appropriate music was rendered by the choir during the christening. The usual services were held at the churches on Sunday, with no special ceremonies. Because of the arrival in the city of students for winter study at the Normal School, the congregations were enlarged on Sunday. Richard Coughlan, Eccl., and Arthur Coughlan, Eccl., nephews of Rev. Fr. Coughlan of Kingsclear were visitors at St. Dunstan's church on Sunday and the former took part in the evening service. Rev. Father Albert MacDonald, second curate, conducted the morning service.

N. B. HUNTING SEASON OPENS ON TUESDAY

An Influx of Outside Sportsmen is Anticipated

Game is Plentiful

New Brunswick Will Continue Special Non-Resident License

The New Brunswick hunting season opens tomorrow, and the usual influx of United States and Upper Canadian sportsmen bent on getting a moose, a deer, or some game birds, is anticipated. Tomorrow is the first day of the hunting season for deer, bear, ducks, geese, brant and coots.

The open season for moose, partridge and woodcock does not commence until October 20, and continues until November 20. Reports show that deer are quite plentiful this year. Ducks are plentiful but this year the season has been shortened, the season ending November 15 instead of December 31.

New Brunswick will continue the special non-resident ten dollar deer and bear license which entitles the holder to take two deer and two black bear between September 15th and November 30th. For an additional fee of $15.00 a license to shoot the legal limit of ducks and partridge is added. The season for geese, ducks, coots and rails in New Brunswick is from September 15th to November 15th, while that for birch or spruce partridge has been extended to cover the calendar month of October instead of the previous two weeks. Brant and Hungarian partridge are protected. The season for woodcock and Wilson or jack snipe is the same as in former years, October 1st to November 30th. Changes have been made in the hunting laws of New Brunswick providing, in effect, that non-resident sportsmen whether hunting game birds or game animals must be accompanied by a licensed guide, and further, that a licensed guide may accompany only one non-resident when hunting.

TO CONTINUE LAW STUDIES

Donald Duffie, B.A., who has been working in the attorney-general's department this summer, is leaving for Saint John tomorrow to resume his studies at the U. N. B. Law School there. He will graduate from the school next spring.

WRITE SUPPS TOMORROW

Supplementary examinations will commence tomorrow morning at the University of New Brunswick. The college will open for the new year on Monday of next week. The incoming freshmen class is expected to be considerably larger than last year.

R. J. Smith of Woodstock, is registered at the Queen.

SCHOOL CHILDREN PRIVILEGED AS FREDERICTON EXHIBITION OPENS WITH COOL AUTUMN WEATHER

Children's Day Auspiciously Opens Fair Week -- Largest Midway Local Exhibition Ever Had -- New Features.

Auspiciously with a background of fine weather, Fredericton's 1936 exhibition got under way this morning, with the prospects of a successful show being more evident that ever before.

The exhibition is inaugurated for its week's run today with the observance of Children's Day. Children of the public schools from one to eight inclusive were permitted into the grounds free of charge and without tickets. They were privileged to all games and amusements at reduced rates. Hundreds of children flocked to the fair grounds early this afternoon following a long morning session at their school desks.

Judging Begins

Judging began in the cooking and floral departments today, and a bumper crowd was expected for the first day of the exhibition. This morning the directors reported that the concessions have all been opened and "everything is ready to go." The midway this year is the largest ever to be seen in this city.

This evening a complete showing of the open air attractions will be held at the race track in front of the grandstand. Stetson's band, with the added attraction of a female soloist, will render a musical programme.

D. W. Griffiths, racing secretary, declared today that the race track is in splendid condition and all is in readiness for the opening of the race meet tomorrow afternoon. About seventy horses are quartered at the stables at the race track and today many of the horses are working out.

New Background

This year there has been installed a painted background at the rear of the platform on which the open air attractions will be performed. This will insure greater visibility for the spectators and add to the attractiveness of the various acts.

SPOKE ON SOCIAL CREDIT

John S. Mavor, K.C., of Calgary, Alta., is a visitor to the city this week. Today at noon Mr. Mavor was the guest speaker of the Fredericton Gyro club and he dealt very interestingly on the theme of Social Credit. His address was listened to with a great deal of interest. Mr. Mavor is a brother of Leslie and James T. Mavor of this city. Mr. Mavor is accompanied by his daughter, Miss Geraldine, who will study journalism at Columbia University this year.

LEAVING FOR BOSTON

Miss Elizabeth S. Jones, B.A., is leaving tomorrow for Boston where she will take a secretarial course at Simmons' Ladies' College.
