SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Dearest Mother

If I could weave for you, a song
It would live in my heart all day long,
But just a little word of praise,
That may smooth out life's crude ways.

When we are weary with cares of the day,
It is you sweet mother who brushes them away.

Dearest mother we know what you do,
We know you are weary when the day's work is through.

We need your loving smile, with all joys we meet,
We need you to greet the coming of our feet,
Because you are so good, kind and true,

To us in every little thing we do.

—ATTRUDE H. THOMPSON.

Nurses and Teachers Entertained
Last night Wilnot Young People's Society held their closing meeting. A special invitation was given to the nurses of Victoria Public Hospital and to school teachers of the city, which were accepted. During the evening an excellent programme was carried out including games and contests. At the close of the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Patricia Norrad of Boiestown left last evening by the C.P.R. excursion for Boston where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Wendell Leslie over the week-end.

Girl Guide Gossip

The meeting of the 2nd Fredericton (St. Dunstan's) Company of Girl Guides on Monday night took the form of a supper meeting. A very enjoyable supper was held, after which the girls entertained themselves at an Amateur Hour. The different numbers carried out consisted of songs, dances recitations, and piano and guitar solos. Each girl contributed something towards the programme. The Major Bowes of the evening was Katherine Donahue, and the prize for the evening went to Zita Killeen, with a unique guitar solo. The supper meeting was by way of a celebration after a strenuous period of mat hooking, the 2nd Fredericton Company having made a mat for the Lady Bessborough Shield competition.

On Thursday evening the 2nd Fredericton Ranger Company entertained the Squires of St. Dunstan's Rover Crew at a most enjoyable supper party. The table was decorated with gay spring flowers. The favors were most original. For the girls, old fashioned nosegays of Mayflowers, tied with blue ribbons, the color of the candles. The boys' favors were miniature rangers. After supper the party gathered round the piano and enjoyed a musical evening under Mr. Pugh's direction.

Fredericton Author Honored
in New York

MISS MURIEL MILLER, M.A.

Friends in New Brunswick and in other parts of Canada will be pleased to hear that Miss Muriel Miller, M.A., has recently received further honor in connection with her literary work. Miss Miller who is the author of "Bliss Carman, a Portrait," has received word that two of her poems have been accepted for inclusion in the New York American Year book of contemporary poets. The poems were accepted on account of their fine literary quality and beauty of expression. There were four thousand poems submitted for entry in the publications, four hundred being accepted, two of which were written by Miss Miller. It is interesting to note that one of Miss Miller's poems was entitled "Gaspe, a Twilight Vignette," the inspiration of which came to the author during a trip taken two years ago to Gaspe in company with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Miller.

Little Miss Allie Lou MacYey, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. MacKey is able to be out again after her recent illness with scarlet fever.

St. Paul's Y. P. S.

St. Paul's Young People's Society met last evening with a very good attendance. The students had full change of the programme. Miss Ruby Grieve conducted the devotional period. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Rhoda Young. It was decided to have the closing social next Friday evening. A quartet from the Normal School consisting of Harold Peterson, Archie Flemming, Eldon Betts and Walter O'Donnell and accompanied by Miss Peggy Vallis sang two very beautiful selections. Miss L. Bailey played a very nice violin solo. A one-act play was then put on by a number of the students and was very much enjoyed. Neil Downie sang several songs. Games were then played under the direction of Michael Saunders. The National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.
