The town. An improvement association had been in existence formerly, he said and it was understood that they still had some funds available. He suggested that if such a body were functioning the town could be made much more attractive to visitors.

J. Brody said the town had a great asset in Island Park but that this was not properly kept up and was not at present a very attractive place either for visitors or townspeople.

Major Everett explained the situation at the island and told of several improvements which could be made at a small cost to make it more pleasant both for tourist and citizens. The board's committee on the tourist bureau was authorized to investigate the possibilities of improving the island.

DIED ON SATURDAY

Mrs. Frances Gordon, wife of James Gordon, died on Saturday at her home on St. John street after a lingering illness. She had lived practically all her life in this city. Surviving is her husband, two brothers, George and Charles O'Rea; one sister, Mrs. Leonard Gordon of this city, and several nephews. The funeral took place today with service at the home and interment was made in the Forest Hill cemetery.

Charlotte Co. Fishermen Want Improved Conditions and Aid

In the general set-up for the province, it is understood that federal aid to the extent of $50,000 is to be granted on condition that the local Legislature obligates for a corresponding amount. Other sections of the province acutely interested are the counties of Gloucester and Saint John with possible extension to a wider area.

The Charlotte County members Messrs. Doone, Keay, Calder and Dyas were amongst those present.

Fredericton Men Sent Up for Trial at Woodstock

trial in the Carleton County court, which opens here next week before Judge M. L. Hayward. D. R. Bishop appeared for the Crown, G. W. Montgomery defended McLaughlin and Atherton was not represented.

Evidence in the Atherton hearing was completed Friday afternoon and the other case was begun Saturday morning the evidence being of a similar nature to that in the previous hearing. Evidence was given by R. B. Brooks, Ellsmore Robinson, Kenneth Gray and Waldron Forter of the staff of the store, and Chief of Police B. L. Schriver, Corporal Ryder, Constable Evans and Constable Wood of the R. C. M. P. and Sergeant Hughes of the Fredericton police force.

Dismissal of the charge was asked by Mr. Montgomery, who argued that there was no positive identification that the goods produced in court had been those stolen from the store. The court ruled that identification had been made beyond a reasonable doubt and that the Crown had shown the accused to have been in possession of a portion of the goods, without giving a reasonable explanation and that they must stand trial.

Motorists to Woodstock

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Bartlett motorized to Woodstock yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. Starr Young. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Bishop, wife of Rev. H. S. Bishop who preached yesterday at Wilnot Church. Both Rev. and Mrs. Bishop returned to Woodstock this morning.

Jas. G. Douglas of Stanley was in the city on Saturday.

Miss Balloch is entertaining this afternoon at the tea hour, in honor of Miss Hanford.

St. Paul's Y. P. S.

The St. Paul's Young People's Society met recently in the Fraser Memorial Hall a large number being present. Miss Ruby Greene was chairman of the devotional period assisted by Miss Evelyn Abbott. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Miss Rhoda Young. In the educational period a talk was given by Rev. Mr. George Telford. His title "The Romance of the English Language" proved to be very interesting. Games were then played under the direction of Michael Saunders and Audrey Young.

ARCHBISHOP SPOKE

His Grace Most Rev. J. A. Richardson, Archbishop of Fredericton, was at Saint John yesterday and conducted the services in St. Paul's Valley church. In his morning address the Archbishop referred to the recent appointment of Rev. W. H. Moorhead as dean of Christchurch Cathedral here. He said he regretted that he had disturbed the happy associations of rector and congregation in making the appointment, but he felt that the congregation would recognize the fact that it was in the interests of the diocese that the appointment was made. However he felt that the congregation there would not have withheld the opportunity for service which their rector would have in his new office as dean.

Mrs. Martha Dunbar Died at Marysville

The death occurred at her home in Marysville on Saturday night of Mrs. Martha Dunbar, widow of John Dunbar. She had been ill only a short time and her passing will be learned with widespread regret, for the deceased was well known and popular with all who knew her. She was born at Bocabec, Charlotte county, but had spent the greater part of her life at Marysville, where she was a member of the United church and also a life member of the Women's Missionary Society. Surviving are three sons, Howard of Marysville, Harry of this city, and Frank of Saint John; also four daughters, Carrie and Blanche at home; Helen of Boston; and Mrs. Harry W. Young of this city; one sister, Mrs. Rebecca Dunbar, resides at St. Stephen. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the United Church at Marysville. Rev. M. D. Oliver conducted the service, assisted by Rev. J. W. Bartlett. Interment was in the United church cemetery. The funeral was largely attended, deceased having been held in the highest esteem by her many friends. The pallbearers were F. S. Meurling, J. Pyne, E. W. McPherson, P. G. Long, J. Cawthra, and C. W. Pickard, while the chief mourners were as follows: Howard Dunbar, Harry Dunbar, Frank Dunbar, Harry W. Young, Harry Dunbar Jr., Murray Dunbar, Thomas McDowell, Ralph McDowell, Hazen Linton, Walter McWha, George Maxwell, Harold C. Manzer, John Daley, Alfred Armstrong, Roland Armstrong, John B. McGinnis, Rowley Manzer and Harry Osborne. Mrs. Oliver sang the hymn "Lead Kindly Light" at the funeral and there was appropriate organ music.

BETTER ROAD TO QUINTUPLETS

OTTAWA, Ont., May 4—Thousands of tourists expected to visit the little Dionne girls at Callander are going to have a better road to drive on this year, according to plans announced here by Hon. Peter Heenan, Ontario Minister of Lands and Forests.
In Ottawa as the advance guard of an Ontario delegation which will discuss relief problems this week Mr. Heenan said he had telephoned Toronto giving orders for widening the road. It is the intention to make it dustless. The Minister also has under consideration a plan to extend the road past Callander to join the trans-Canada highway.
Mr. Heenan said the Ontario delegation, headed by Premier Hepburn would come to Ottawa prepared to enter into a joint works programme with the Dominion Government. He would not give the estimated cost.
