SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. H. G. Chestnut and her daughter, Miss Maggie Jean Chestnut, left this morning by motor for New York where they will spend a few days. Mrs. Chestnut will be joined later by Mr. Chestnut and proceed to Florida where they will spend the winter. Miss Chestnut after a visit in New York will return to the Capital.

Cup and Saucer Shower

Miss Helen T. Smith entertained at a dinner party on Tuesday evening for Miss Flora Leslie, a bride of the near future. Covers were laid for eight. The color scheme of the dining-room was yellow and white. At the conclusion of dinner the guest of honor was presented with a basket beautifully decorated in yellow and white and containing cups and saucers. The other guests were Mrs. R. A. Smith, Mrs. E. McFarland, Mrs. J. Fox, Miss Vivian Pugh, Miss Constance Staples, and Miss Myrtle Burr.

Leaving for South

Hon. Dr. R. B. Hanson, P.C., K.C., and Mrs. Hanson are leaving on Friday, Nov. 20th, for St. Petersburg, Florida, where they will spend the winter. They will be accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennison guests of honor Mrs. R. L. Munro of Fredericton and Mrs. A. G. Stickle of North Devon, entertained at a bridge of seven tables at the home of Mrs. R. L. Munro in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Dennison of North Devon.

Prizes were won by Mrs. L. H. Machum and F. W. M. Clements. Refreshments were served by hostesses assisted by Mrs. G. V. Pond, Mrs. J. E. Akery, of Fredericton, Mrs. A. H. McLagan and Mrs. L. H. Machum of North Devon.

A. W. Coombes presented Mr. Dennison with a Gladstone bag. Mr. Dennison thanked those present.

Mr. Dennison has been in the employ of H. S. Campbell, Co., for sixteen years. He leaves next Monday for Halifax to accept a position with the Miner Rubber Co. Mrs. Dennison and children will remain here until spring. They will be greatly missed.

Hi-Y Club Meets

A meeting of the Hi-Y Club was held last evening at the "Y" hall at 380 Queen street last evening for a business meeting and social evening. The visit of the Hi-Y club to Saint John was described by the delegation who attended and Ben McCarthy chairman of the constitution committee made a report. The Hi-Y is a newly formed Community "Y" organization comprised of High School boys who have taken as their policy the supporting of high standards of action in all student activities and have adopted as their platform clean speech, clean living, clean sportsmanship and clean scholarship. Discussing the constitution Ben McCarthy said he was informed that these things were the essence of Hi-Y constitutions all over the world. After the business meeting there was a keenly contested ping pong tournament which was won by Douglas Rouse, Gordon Fisher and Bill Clark were runners up. The new executive of the club comprised of Eric McFee, president, John Swift, vice-president, David Dickson, secretary, and Ben McCarthy, treasurer, conducted the meeting for the first time. Eric McFee was in the chair. Others present at the meeting were Ed Keenan, Ernie Estabrooks, George Markey, Don Elgee, Sy Lawson, Bill Todd, Douglas Rouse and Gordon Fisher.

V. O. N. Meeting

The regular meeting of the Victorian Order Board was held on Tuesday with Ivan McKnight, vice president, in the chair. There was a good attendance of members. The report of the October work given by the nurses told of 86 cases nursed, involving 381 nursing visits. Ten maternity cases had been cared for—six of them totally free. In the school work eight rooms had been examined, and assistance also had been given to Dr. Cameron in the Devon schools. The Well Baby Conference both in Fredericton and Devon had been well attended. There had been 12 new admissions. The health conditions among the babies had been satisfactory for the most part. In the school work it had been found necessary to refer 15 to own physician, 8 to the Health Department, and to exclude 9 on account of skin disease, etc. The Board was grateful to the Pythian Sisters who served tea at the Well Baby Conference in Fredericton. Some details regarding the Seal Sale Campaign, under the supervision of E. C. Armstrong, were discussed, and the monthly accounts passed.

A group of friends and neighbors met last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. B. MacLellan and tendered a surprise party to Mrs. A. G. Boyd prior to her departure for Long's Creek, where she will in future reside. The guests played bridge at the conclusion of which a small gift was presented to the guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Bridges of Moncton were visitors to the city yesterday.

Mrs. H. V. B. Bridges entertained at Tea yesterday in honor of her daughter-in-law Mrs. Gregory Bridges.

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. VanWart are spending a few days in Toronto.

St. Dunstan's Y.P.S. Meeting

The weekly meeting of St. Dunstan's Young People's Society was held last evening in St. Dunstan's hall, with a very large attendance. The meeting opened with an amateur hour programme by the High School students, with Harold Lynch acting as Major Bowes. The following programme was presented: Joseph Quinn and Miss Bertha Goodine gave recitations, Miss Madeline George gave exhibitions of tap dancing and a quartette composed of Misses Edith Rowan, Constance Gallagher, Jean Swift and Marie Kileen performed in a rather novel but highly satisfactory manner. Solos were rendered by Miss Helen Veniot and Miss Marie Coombes, a comic dialogue was presented by Bertha and Gerald Goodine and Thomas Thompson and Laurie Dow rendered three surprise selections, which were very enthusiastically received. The usual congratulatory telegrams from famous people were read by the programme director, and then the gathering adjourned to the rooms downstairs, where games and dancing were indulged in. A very enjoyable evening was concluded by the singing of the National Anthem.

Kenneth Christian, of the Bank of Montreal, Saint John, spent the holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Christian, Hartland.

Miss Nan Burden has returned to Fredericton after spending the past two weeks in Presque Isle, Maine.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Laskey gathered at their home on Queen street on Monday evening and gave Mr. Laskey a genuine surprise in honor of his birthday. Bridge was played at three tables, the prize winners being Miss Peggy Stewart, R. MacDonald and Miss Nan Burden. Mr. Laskey was presented with a large birthday cake and lunch was served about 1.30. The presentation of the Chesterfield was made by Arthur Linton.

Rural Deanery

Very Rev. Dean Moorhead went to Harvey today to attend a meeting of the rural deanery at that place.

Afternoon Tea at

Home of Mrs. Malcolm
An enjoyable afternoon tea was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Malcolm, 242 Regent street. The tea was sponsored by the fancy work committee of the Ladies Aid of St. Paul's church and was well patronized. The guests were received by the hostess and Mrs. George Telford. Ushering were Mrs. Harry A. Watson and Mrs. J. Walter MacKay.

For the first hour the tea and coffee cups were presided over by Mrs. W. M. Todd and Mrs. Brewer and for the second hour by Mrs. E. A. Logan and Mrs. F. H. Rowe. The contributions were taken by Mrs. L. J. M. Simpson and those who replenished were Mrs. Bedford Green, Mrs. R. W. MacMillan, Mrs. Ungar, Miss Kate Stewart, Mrs. Frank Rowan, Mrs. P. S. Watson and Mrs. F. E. MacDiarmid.

Serving were Mrs. Roy Eldridge, Mrs. E. A. Skene, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Harold Walker, Mrs. Schofield, Mrs. George Chapman, Mrs. B. R. Ross, Miss Bessie Whittaker, Mrs. E. G. Dryden, Mrs. Leslie Mavor, Miss Annie MacLaggan, Mrs. Solomon Greer, Mrs. A. Foster Baird, Mrs. Ferris, Mrs. Belmore, Mrs. R. L. Munro, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Olga Jackson, Mrs. J. M. Scott, Mrs. Barbara Gough, Mrs. Murray Morrison and Mrs. Beardsley.

The rooms throughout the house were bright with cut flowers, on the dining-room table being a silver bowl of yellow and mauve 'mums and lighted yellow tapers.

During the reception and tea, selections on the piano were rendered by Mrs. J. E. Sewell and Miss Jean Smith.

McMann—Macfarlane

The marriage of Miss Isabella Macfarlane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Macfarlane to Arthur Everett McMann of Newcastle Creek, son of the late E. B. McMann and of Mrs. McMann, took place on Wednesday evening at the Reformed Baptist church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. J. Trafton. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white transparent velvet with Queen Anne collar, white silk net veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of talliesman roses. She had as her attendant Miss Marguerite Trafton who was gowned in pink silk lace with silk jacket and carried an old-fashioned nosegay. The bridegroom was supported by his brother Howard McMann and Stewart Peterson. The bride entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March and during the signing of the register bridal music was played. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home where pink and white chrysanthemums were used for decoration in the living room. A buffet lunch was served, the bride's table being centred with a three-tier bride's cake, beautifully decorated. Those serving were Misses Christina Crawford, Reta MacGeorge, Alice and Eleanor Weddall and Dorothy Sleep. Later Mr. and Mrs. McMann left on a trip through New Brunswick and Nova Scotia and on their return will reside in Newcastle Creek where the bridegroom is in business. The bride has taught for the past few years in Devon school and was the recipient of many gifts from friends and relatives. The church was beautifully decorated for the wedding by the girl friends of the bride. A background of palms and ferns and a bridal arch of white bells with pink rosebuds formed a setting for the nuptial event.

Rev. Walter Donahoe pastor of St. Anthony's church is spending a few days with relatives in Boston.

Rutherford Cumming, of Toronto, is staying at the Queen Hotel today.

D. J. MacDougall, Shediac is a registered guest at the Queen today.

Restless Nights - Pepless Days Take the Joy Out of Life

The potent cause lies in the hurried life we lead, in the extreme nervous tension and fever heat with which we follow in the pursuit of wealth, position and pleasure.

Late hours, want of necessary rest, excessive mental or physical exertion all put a strain on the system it is unable to withstand. No wonder then you pass restless nights and get up in the morning with no ambition to go about your daily tasks.

Take Milburn's H. & N. Pills and see what they will do for you.
