FEW OF HISTORICAL FIGURES HEALTHY, SAYS TWEEDSMUIR

OTTAWA, Nov. 5.—Lord Tweedsmuir told an audience of medical men recently he believed medicine had brought humanity a "clear gain" by conquering much of the pain and illness which in the past has accompanied "some of the chief work of the world, both in action and thought."

The Governor-General, recipient during the afternoon of honorary Fellowships in medicine and surgery, was guest of honor at the annual dinner of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.

He told the Fellows of the college at the dinner that, as a historian, it appeared to him "very few of the great figures of history were what might be called healthy and normal people."

"Most of them," he declared, "did their work under grave physical handicaps for which there was no medical relief. You had Julius Caesar, with his mysterious epilepsy. You had Robert Bruce, with a painful skin disease. You had Cromwell, with some kind of spleen trouble. You had Walter Scott, with gallstones. I think I could find a pathological side to almost every famous historical figure."

ACADIA WINS INTERCOLLEGIATE RUGBY TITLE

Overtime Game Between Acadia and Mount A.—First Win in 35 Years.

TRURO, N. S., Nov. 4.—Acadia University won the Maritime Intercollegiate rugby championship and the referee's trophy for the first time in 35 years today after one of the hardest fights ever waged in any Maritime intercollegiate final. The try that ended the game came after about 40 minutes of overtime play when Ted Ellsworth, one of the Acadia forwards, fell on a loose ball for the three points that gave the Axeman the championship.

The game was played on a rain-soaked field. The unfavorable weather favored the heavier Acadia scrum, which was able to outheel the Garret and Gold forwards.

The play on the whole was fairly even with the Mount Allison team having the advantage in territorial play.

Rus Johnson, Mount Allison full-back, played a great game for the losers continually kicking the ball into Acadia territory and when the Mounties were pressed several times he saved his team from being scored on.

While the Acadia scrum had a slight edge over the Mount Allison forwards, the Mounties' backfield was superior in tackling and running, continually throwing the Acadia backfield back for a loss when they attempted to pass the wet and heavy ball. Stan Gascoigne and Sig Neilson looked especially good on some fast broken-field runs. The most of the game was an exhibition of kicking with a great number of penalty kicks being called. The Mount A. scrum was continually caught off-sides, and this resulted in 22 penalty kicks being called against them. The Mounties were awarded eight penalty kicks.

APPLING SAYS HE WAS LUCKY TO WIN CROWN

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Luke Appling won the American League batting championship and then was asked to give an explanation for his success. "I don't know," reflected the White Sox shortstop, "except that I was just plain lucky." This answer was not surprising nor was it an attempt at modesty, because Arky Vaughan and Buddy Myer had said the same thing when they won the crown the year before. More likely, Appling was giving the best answer he could.

Luck plays a bigger part in winning batting championships than is generally suspected. Lots of things have to break in a batter's favor; most of all on those drives that are lined onto the outer gardens. When they begin to fall safely, he goes on a hitting spree. When they are hit directly at the outfielders, there is nothing the batter can do about it except to keep plugging and hope his luck changes.

Vaughan startled many of the experts near the end of last summer by declaring that he hadn't been in a slump all season, despite the fact that for almost two thirds of the campaign he was unable to climb very far over the .300 mark.

"The only difference in my hitting this year and last," said Arky, "is that the drives that went for hits last year are being caught this year. Sure, I was lucky in 1935. You have to be to win a championship."

Maroons Even the Series With Bruins

MONCTON, Nov. 4.—Montreal Maroons evened up their Maritime professional hockey series with the Boston Bruins at three games each here tonight when they walked off with a 3 to 1 win over the Rossman in the best of the six pre-season games played in the Maritimes this year.

As a result of the Maroon victory tonight the first National Hockey League class between the two clubs will determine which shall have possession for the year of the Admiral Beatty Hotel trophy, donated to the winner of the series.

Gus Marker, the left-handed portion of the Gracie, Cain and Marker line drove home two last period goals tonight to give the Gorman crew their margin of two goals.

KAMINSKY, NELS STEWART NOT FOR BRUINS

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Teddy Graham will not be with the Bruins. Neither will Nels Stewart, nor Max Kaminsky. No word has come from Halifax of the disposition of Graham, but he will be traded to some other National League team or sent out to Providence or some other minor league, or released.

It is whispered that Stewart has been returned to the Americans. New York's senior team, and that Kaminsky was advised weeks ago that he was headed for Providence or some other minor league provided no National League club desired his services.

The story is that waivers were obtained on Graham, Stewart and Kaminsky.

Acquisition of Hooley Smith put the skids on Kaminsky. It is reported that Manager Art Ross plans to use Smith at right wing with Bill Cowley at center and Bun Cook at left wing.

Alex Motter lost out because of his illness and Lorne Duguid, Bob Bauer and Porky Dumart because they were not considered major league calibre.

Peggy O'Neill and Charley Sands will be retained by the Bruins as spares. That will mean sixteen players on the roster.

Games between the Maple Leafs and Detroit at Toronto and the Blackhawks and Americans at Chicago will open the league season as these games are scheduled for Thursday.

The Americans also play on Saturday at Toronto.

Detroit has its opening next Sunday night, when the Rangers will play against the world champions.

The Maroons will play their first championship game at home next Tuesday, when the Rangers skip over from Detroit to Montreal.

CURB TO BE PUT ON MAXIE, ON ALOOFNESS

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—A plan has been evolved by Brig-Gen. John J. Phelan, D. Walker Wear and Bill Brown of the State Athletic Commission that is designed to prevent Max Schmeling from sequestering the heavyweight boxing championship in Germany should the conqueror of Joe Louis also triumph over the titleholder, James J. Braddock. Yet the New York fistie rulers, all rumors to the contrary, will see to it that the German contender gets the chance he won.

The only thing that can come between a Braddock-Schmeling bout for the crown is a lawsuit, which the managers of Louis have started against Schmeling because of an article which appeared under the Schmeling signature, charging that Louis had deliberately tried to foul Max under instructions from his corner. If Schmeling should win the title, the suit might involve him in so much legal trouble he might forego returning to these shores.

To prevent this possibility a considerable portion of his purse would be ordered withheld as a bond that the new champion's first match in defence of the title would be fought in this country.

This proposed action may be taken as just one more evidence of the able handling of one of the many difficult problems that confront the members of the Boxing Commission.

Trade Winds Howl at Chicago

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The trade winds howled about the office of the Chicago Cubs today.

"It is too silly to even talk about," was the way Vice-President John Sues dismissed the rumor that the Cubs and Cincinnati Reds had arranged a triple swap.

The rumor would bring Pitcher Paul Derringer, Outfielder Ival Gooden and Third Baseman Lew Riggs here in exchange for Pitcher Bill Lee, Infielder Stan Hack and either Tuck Stainback or Frank Demaree, both outfielders.

However, the Cubs' front office was strangely silent concerning the report Dizzy Dean will pitch for Manager Charley Grimm next year. The deal was definitely on a week ago, it was learned, and negotiations have been resumed.

The phrase "brain trust" was invented in the late summer of 1932.
