

No Happiness In the Home When the Mother Is Sick

The tired, worn out mother cannot make a happy home if she is sick and worried by the never ending household duties. She gets run down and becomes nervous and irritable, downhearted and discouraged, can't rest at night, and gets up in the morning as tired as when she went to bed.

Women suffering in this way will find in Milburn's H. & N. Pills a remedy with which to recuperate their health, build up the run down system, and bring back their bodily vigor.

NEW SUPERVISOR FOR OUR CITY SCHOOLS IS DISCUSSED

The Office Requires a Man of Experience in Teaching of Academic Qualifications and of Tact

(The Daily Mail, while it finds "Observer" articles interesting and popular, does not always agree with what is said, and is not responsible for the writer's opinions).

The Fredericton School Board has an important and responsible task before it in the selection of a successor to the late R. D. Hanson. The post which was filled so acceptably for many years by Mr. Hanson is one that requires a lot of careful consideration. It is not the kind of position that may be bestowed upon just any one at all.

This position is one in which the Fredericton public takes, or should take, a great interest. The work of a city supervisor of schools is bound to be of a more intimate nature in its relation to both teacher and pupil than the work of an inspector can ever be. The great extent of territory that the average school inspector has to cover is too large for any but a cursory supervision. The work of a town or city supervisor, on the other hand, lends itself to a much more detailed method of working.

This article is not an attempt to dictate to the School Board in the matter of this appointment; but it is a reminder that the public follows school activities with a large amount of interest, and that is only as it should be. There are several important factors that should be borne in mind in the choice of a city supervisor.

First, is the matter of experience. Such an official should be possessed of a comprehensive experience in teaching. He should be familiar with the work of both the lower and the high school grades. He should, at some time in his career, have had experience in teaching both the lower grade and high school work. He should also be abreast of modern educational methods.

Second is the matter of academic qualifications. This in a sense will depend upon his experience. But it would be a grave error to appoint a person of low academic qualifications, since part of his work will consist in supervising the work of many who have higher qualifications than his own. With the competition that now exists in the obtaining of any position the Board should have no difficulty in securing the services of someone who possesses a combination of the necessary qualifications of experience, ability and education.

Third, is the question of character. One of the greatest tributes paid to the late Mr. Hanson was in reference to his great sympathy for the teacher in his or her difficulties. Sympathy is an attribute which such an official cannot afford to be without. There is always a great need for tact of a high order. A supervisor has to deal with pupils, parents, teachers and boards of trustees, and he has to endeavour to satisfy everybody. That calls for tact and ability of no mean order. He should however, be confident enough in his own judgment to see to it that his recommendations are carried into effect. And those who employ him should likewise have enough confidence in him to pay heed to his advice.

Last, but not least, it will probably be found necessary to pay a suitable supervisor a salary commensurate with his position. In this world no one can afford to give their service for little or nothing. If one wants good service one has to pay for it. That is a truth that is being deliberately ignored in some quarters. Cheap salaries will secure cheap service, and it does not pay in the long run.

The public of Fredericton will await with great interest the appointment of a city supervisor of schools.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Miss Harriet VanWart has returned from a visit with friends in Montreal.

Presentation and Social Evening

About fifty members of the Reformed Baptist church and congregation met last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Goodspeed, George street, in honor of Miss Isa Macfarlane, whose marriage to Arthur Macfarlane of Newcastle Creek takes place on November 10th. Miss Macfarlane was presented with an easy chair and end table, the presentation being made by the pastor, Rev. P. J. Traflet, who expressed sincere appreciation of Miss Macfarlane's faithful and efficient work in the different departments of the church, and wished her a life of happiness and continued usefulness. Miss Macfarlane in reply thanked her friends for their gifts and spoke of the pleasure she had enjoyed in her relationships with the church. A well-arranged program of music and readings was carried out, and a very enjoyable evening was spent, at the close of which refreshments were served by Mrs. Goodspeed, assisted by the ladies of the church.

St. Dunstan's Y.P.S. Meeting

The weekly meeting of St. Dunstan's Young People's Society was held last evening in St. Dunstan's hall, with a fair attendance of members. Ralph Albrant, of the local branch of the Y.M.C.A., was present and had charge of the meeting. Under his direction many enjoyable games and dances were played. Mr. Albrant was heartily congratulated on his very original and successful methods of handling the activities. The singing of the National Anthem concluded the meeting.

Miss Dorothy Morrison of Burnt Church is visiting Miss Alma Benson.

The Cathedral Men's Club

The regular weekly meeting of the Cathedral Men's Club was held last evening in the Memorial Hall, Church street. Very Rev. Dean W. H. Moorhead, as usual, led the opening prayer in unison. It being the first meeting of the month, the regular business session was held and there was no speaker for the evening. A resolution of regret for his accident and a message of sympathy was extended to Fraser Hazlett, whose leg was broken recently. Arrangements were made for the annual meeting of the club so as not to interfere with the arrangements of other church bodies. A number of items of interest pertaining to the activities of the club were thoroughly discussed and plans made for future meetings. Play was then resumed in the cumulative card tournaments. The evening's scores, when tallied, showed Ernest Morris as high scorer among the forty-five players, and Selwyn Box leading the contractors by a considerable margin. The usual light refreshments followed by the National Anthem ended still another interesting and enjoyable evening for the Cathedral Men's Club.

John Stevens, B.Sc., will lecture before the Scientific Club at the University this afternoon in the Geology Building.

ARRIVED FROM WEDDING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Henri Bourque and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Guimond who were recently married in the city have arrived from their wedding trip and have taken up residence at Lincoln.

TO ENTERTAIN BALL PLAYERS

The city council at its November meeting last night passed a motion to entertain the several major league ball players who are at present hunting big game in the Wirral section, and who include "Bumps" Hadley, and "Twinkletons" Selkirk, both members of the New York Yankees, world champions. The intention is to have a banquet for the major leaguers. The entertainment will likely be held during the coming week-end or when the baseball heroes have completed their hunting trip.

Knocks Husband, Photographer Down

TORONTO, Nov. 4—Mrs. Lily Kenny, claiming the baby-bearing championship of Toronto under the Millar stork derby will, clipped her husband and a United States newspaper photographer on their respective jaws in the photographer's hotel room late today. She scored clean knockdowns in each case and finally was put out of the hotel.

Mrs. Kenny, a short, heavy-set woman who expects a child before the end of the year, became incensed when she thought her husband and the photographer, Tom Watson, of the New York Daily News, were conspiring to take her picture.

Without any Marquis of Queensbury preliminaries, she swung from the heel and her husband, Martin Kenny went down. Watson advanced to remonstrate and got the same dose of feminine knuckles. Watson said Mrs. Kenny accused him of being the "man who tried to steal my picture." He denied he stole the picture.

Three Criminal Cases to Be Heard

BATHURST, Nov. 4—The November term of Gloucester County court, Judge J. L. Ryan presiding, opened here this afternoon.

The criminal docket was made up of three cases—the King vs. Ambrose Guitart, Green Point, charged with assault occasioning actual bodily harm to Emile Legacy on Aug. 6 last; the King vs. Valmond Noel, Little Lamèque, and the King vs. Jean Noel, both charged with having committed a statutory offence on Aug. 8 last.

The grand jury, consisting of Frank Foley, foreman; Daniel Riordon, Paul Legacy, Gus Lordon, Hilaire Delagarde, Leo J. Melanson, Chipman McEwen, Andre V. Landry, Anatole Cormier, William Garrett, Valere Landry and Amos Comeau, returned three true bills.

There were no civil cases filed. Court adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The dodo has been extinct since 1681.

RECENT PRETTY WEDDING AT KINGSCLEAR

McCaughey—McCann

A wedding of interest to friends and relatives in Fredericton and vicinity was solemnized at St. Ann's church, Kingsclear, on Wednesday morning, October 28th (at 10 o'clock when Rev. H. L. Coughlan with Nuptial Mass united in marriage Miss Cecilia Anne McCann of Fredericton, formerly of Cork, and David Joseph McCaughy, of Fredericton.

The couple entered the church to the strains of the wedding march and during the Mass appropriate hymns were sung by the choir.

The bride was becomingly dressed in brown wool back crepe with transparent velvet trimmings, dark green coat with lynx collar, brown velvet hat, shoes and other accessories to match, and was attended by Miss Margaret McCaughy, sister of the groom. She wore a dress of dark wine crepe, navy blue coat and hat to match. The groom was supported by Gregory Rowan of Fredericton.

After the ceremony the bridal party motored to Fredericton where a wedding breakfast was served at the Imperial Restaurant. Later Mr. and Mrs. McCaughy repaired to the home of the bride's brother Duell McCann of Harvey, where a reception and dance was held. Many appropriate gifts were received including furniture, linen, cut glass and silver. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a silver bracelet and to the best man a set of ebony brushes. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. McCaughy will reside in Fredericton where the groom is employed.

MIDWEEK MARKET

The midweek market at Phoenix Square today was fairly large. The prevailing prices were as follows: Potatoes, per barrel, $2; butter, per pound 28 to 30 cents; apples, per peck 25 to 35 cents; chicken, per pound, 23 to 25 cents; veal, per pound, 7 to 10 cents; lamb, per pound, 15 to 18 cents; beef, per pound, 6 to 8 cents; carrots, per barrel, $1.50; wood, per cord, $5 to $7; celery, per head, 10 cents; eggs, per dozen, 35 to 40 cents.

DENIES REPORT

It is reported about the city that the matron of the Lady Beaverbrook Residence at the University of New Brunswick has tendered her resignation, owing to differences with some of the students regarding the menu at the institution. In speaking to The Daily Mail today Dr. Jones, president of the University, emphatically denied the report that she had resigned, so the probabilities are that the differences have been smoothed out.

HOUSECLEANING

Husband

Demoth the closets, if you must, And give my clothes and shoes away. Clean chifftreau drawers and brush the dust. From my tuxedo, but, I say, Touch not my flies, my fishing rods, My bathrobe or my mackinaw. Oh dearest wife, or, by the gods, You'll hear me laying down the law!

Daughter

Throw out the old blue dimity, My organdies and gingham checks; I can't with equanimity Consider putting on such wrecks. Dispose of my last winter's coat, My sweaters, skirts, and all my shoes; Slacks, bathing suits and shorts, I note Are out of style. Do as you choose, Oh mother dear, but do not dare When you clean house, for heaven knows That I have nothing fit to wear And crave to shop—for all new clothes!

Son

Don't move the crystal set at all, Nor touch the wires which had to go Beneath the rug and round the wall, Because I have it fixed just so; And, mother, please don't toss away My coupons, tinfoil, aeroplanes, Assorted carton tops. I play Sometimes with my electric trains. And save my coins, the badges that I sent to get. My cap-guns are Not broken, and my cowboy hat Is not too small. That fake cigar, Chalk, marbles, whistles and the like Are all in drawers. I have myself Put other toys (except my bike) Under the bed, or on a shelf. —Jane Sayre.
