A WORLD TIME CLOCK

The dream of all world wide listeners, for a popular priced and satisfactory World Time Clock, has at last become a reality. H. L. Van Wyck, a well known short wave enthusiast of Pearl River, New York, designed such a clock for his own use and this was so helpful and successful in its service that he has had it made in quantities. It is known as "The Sky Pilot," which, besides being a regular time-piece with a.m. and p.m. indications, can be set at any U. S. or Foreign time zone, automatically and instantly showing the corresponding time throughout the world.

"KNOCK-KNOCK" GAME DRAWS GARBO LAUGHS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 14—Greta Garbo, quite unintentionally has been initiated into the newest nonsensical fad, "Knock-Knock, Who's There?" At least, it has wrung a few hearty laughs from her.

Outside her dressing-room door on the 'Camille' stage, where she was rehearsing her lines with Robt. Taylor and Director George Cukor, a group of featured players were playing the "Knock-Knock" game, to wit: "Knock-Knock . . . Who's there? . . . Minnie . . . Minnie who? . . . Minnie Brave Hearts Lie Asleep in the Deep.

"Knock-Knock . . . Who's there? . . . Eddie . . . Eddie who? . . . Eddie Little Movement Has a Meaning All Its Own.
"Knock-Knock . . . Who's there? . . . Greta . . . Greta who? . . . Greta-long, Little Dogie, Greta-long."

STATUE OF LIBERTY SCENE OF MAGIC KEY BROADCAST

NEW YORK, Aug. 15—A special broadcast from the Statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island in New York Harbor in connection with the celebration of the statue's fiftieth anniversary will be the highlight of the Magic Key of RCA broadcast, Sunday, August 16, over the NBC-Blue network at 2.00 p.m., AST. The famous gift from the Republic of France will be rededicated on October 28.

John B. Kennedy, NBC commentator, will go on the air from Bedloe's Island with an account of the history of the statue. Then will be introduced for the first time a new song, "Miss Liberty," written by Ken Darby, young American composer, with a French version by Leo Durand, Poet Laureate of Paris. The song is dedicated to Andre de La Boulaye, French ambassador to the United States, whose grandfather conceived the idea of the statue.

Other features of the Magic Key broadcast will include Corinna Mura, young Spanish soprano; Walter O'Keefe, comedian; Frank Black and the NBC Symphony orchestra and Phil Spitalny and his famous all-girl orchestra with Maxine, vocalist; Evelyn, violinist; Three Little Words, harmony trio, and Rachel and Lola, piano duo.

Corinna Mura, a distinguished guitarist as well as soprano, last February entertained President Roosevelt at a Washington reception given in his honor by Vice President Garner. Born in San Antonio, Texas, of Spanish parents, Senorita Mura became interested in radio two years ago and had an audition with NBC. As a result of her success on subsequent NBC programmes, Miss Mura was signed for appearances at Radio City Music Hall and Manhattans Savoy Plaza in New York.

Madrid Short Wave Broadcasts Revolt

American short-wave listeners are tuning in often these days to EAQ, Madrid, in search of late reports on the Spanish revolt. They are getting little information, however, it appears, and the station is operating much as if nothing unusual had happened. George Lilley, short-wave radio commentator, remarked on the calm that prevailed thus:

"When in the week you turned to 9.86 megacycles, likely as not you heard there placid dances and pleasant rumbas, on waves fiery speeches were expected to scorch. This was the National's way of conveying that all was well, that the gentlemen in rebellion were no trouble. When verbiages of oratorical splendor did burst, the Latin restraint was remarkable. Only a few times did the boys sound as if they might die (or even collapse) from their microphone ardor . . . so nicely did they follow the Leftist's mode of unperturbed other serenity."

WORE HEPBURN'S DRESS

NEW YORK, Aug. 15—Margaret MacLaren, young NBC soprano, enjoyed a double distinction at a recent "Gathering of the Clans" at Jones Beach, N. Y. Besides introducing a new song, "Mary of Scotland," in honor of the Stuart clan, Margaret wore the original gown used by Katherine Hepburn in her motion picture "Mary of Scotland."

Says Swing Stems From Cuban Tunes

NEW YORK, Aug. 15—These hot Latin rhythms that Antobal's Cubans play over the NBC-Red network each Sunday at 9.00 a.m., AST, are the real McCoy. The boys are not only specialists in the famous Cuban rumba; they are capable of presenting 15 other distinct types of Cuban rhythm.

"Most of these rhythm types had their origin in the groups of African slaves that were imported into the New World," Mario Antobal says. "Even your swing music can be traced partly to Cuban rhythm."

FAITH UNTARNISHED

Triumphs at amateur contests while leading a college band in his youth encouraged Peter Van Steeden, musical director of the Town Hall Tonight programme on NBC, to embrace music as a profession. And this despite the fact that a "silver" loving cup won as first prize at a theater amateur night promptly turned green, being genuine pewter. "The incident impaired my faith in mankind," recalls Van Steeden, "but fortunately faith in myself emerged untarnished."

A contrasting picture of the pre-revolution Russian village and the village of the Soviet Republic will be portrayed over RNE, Moscow, at 5 p.m., AST, on Sunday, Aug. 16.

Barn Dance Cast at Illinois Fair

CHICAGO, Aug. 15—For the second time since it came to the National Broadcasting Company network, the Alka-Seltzer National Barn Dance will be aired tonight at 9.30 p.m., AST, from a source other than the old hayloft at the Eighth Street theatre, Chicago.

Because of the sensational success it enjoyed last year at the Illinois State Fair, the Barn Dance will repeat its performance at Springfield on its broadcast tonight.

With Uncle Ezra and the complete ensemble participating, the program will emanate from a specially erected platform in front of the grand stand at the race track.

The programme was first presented over WLS, Chicago, on April 12, 1924. For more than five years it has been presented in the Eighth Street theatre, Chicago, before capacity audiences of some 1,200 persons.

"BEEP, BEEP!"

Andre Kostelanetz, flying to Hollywood, carried eighteen pounds of extra luggage with him in the plane. Carefully wrapped in packages were ten French taxi-cab horns. The explanation is that the horns were assembled by the CBS orchestra leader to be used as background sound effects for George Gershwin's "An American in Paris," which the Los Angeles symphony orchestra will play, with Kostelanetz as conductor, in the Hollywood Bowl on Aug. 7. He procured some from tiny, side-street antique shops and others from the composer's own private collection.

Kostelanetz paid the transportation charges for his precious burden without emitting a single "Beep, Beep!"
