WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 10—An estimated 5 per cent. of Winnipeg's population was ill in bed last night with a mild form of "grippe", at present sweeping the city. More than 4,000 children were absent when schools reopened this week.

Though the outbreak is extremely mild and has not caused any loss of life, it is proving an inconvenience to the business and social life of the community.

Doctors said the present illness was in reality a heavy cold and in no way resembled the influenza epidemics that took heavy toll of life and necessitated closing schools here in 1917 and 1919.

Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with "Aspirin."

We say this because, before the discovery of "Aspirin," most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of "Aspirin" largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken "Aspirin" year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: "Aspirin" is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and soft for the average person to take regularly.

"Aspirin" Tablets are made in Canada. "Aspirin" is the registered trade-mark of the Bayer Company, Limited. Look for the name Bayer in the form of a cross on every tablet.

YEAR SCOUTING PROGRESS SAYS COMMISSIONER GOOD

Gilwell Course Starting Next Week — Good Enrollment

It is a pleasure to report that the past year's work has been one of real advancement though I must plead guilty to some slight neglect of immediate local scouting activities since I felt it was to the advantage of my work as commissioner to take every opportunity of co-operating with our provincial field worker and so get to know as much of the districts as possible. This neglect on my part has been ably supplied by the energy and organizing ability of Cubmasters Manchip, Doherty, Perkins and several members of the Rover Crew.

Our year started with the successful winter Gilwell Course which trained 53 Scoutmasters, 30 being student teachers who have been scattered throughout the whole province and some new troops have already been organized through their efforts. A second winter Gilwell is in preparation and the first session will take place next Wednesday evening.

The outstanding event of the scouting year, of course, was the Jamboree on the occasion of the 'Chiefs' visit to Saint John. A full report of this being in your hands repetition would serve only to waste time. Suffice it to note that Fredericton did its share, sending a Rover contingent to the whole Jamboree and running a special train to give some 200 Scouts, Cubs, Guides, Scouters, Guiders and friends a highly appreciated opportunity of attending the Rally on Saturday. More might have been attempted but, I fear, with doubtful chances of success.

The "Welcome B. P." Campaign was carried on under the chairmanship of J. D. Palmer and topped the objective in most satisfactory manner. Since I was actively concerned in the Gilwell Course being conducted at the same time, there is little I can report personally on this matter.

The King's Jubilee was not neglected, contingents coming from as far afield as Covered Bridge to share in the parade. A fine float representing the Association was prepared by the St. Dunstan's Troop on a truck loaned by the Universal Sales Corporation. The evening chain of beacons sparked our challenge to the stars with a large bonfire on the Devon shore, visible for about five miles. This was prepared and supervised by the Rover Scout crew.

On June 16th Rover Leader Barnes, with two other Rovers, accompanied me to Carroll's Crossing to invest the Rover Leader, Rover Mate and half a dozen Esquires of a new Rover Crew which added another complete Scout Group in the district, the Troop and Pack having been previously in existence in this live Scout centre.

A successful Cub camp was held at Green Hill Lake on closing of the schools, followed by a small Scout and Cub Instructors' Camp at the same site. The energy and organizing ability of Cubmaster Manchip, who was Camp Chief, was largely responsible for this successful achievement.

At this point may I join our moan of grief at his loss to that of the Parish church in having the third organizer in succession go on to the same Moncton church. Our loss is Moncton's gain and we must also congratulate the 'Hub' that he will make his presence and influence felt there just as he used to keep our wheels turning.

The usual checking and apple-selling booth was conducted in the Fredericton Exhibition, with the usual meagre financial return and heavy energy strain. It hardly seems right that such a fine opportunity for showing the public what scouting is and does should be shouldered aside for a money-making scheme, particularly when the scheme includes so little money-making.

Our Christmas Toy Shop has about repeated last year's record, with more attention to outlying parts of the province. Our active and genial supervisor, Cubmaster Doherty deserves the best thanks of this association for untiring work and devotion to this good turn of ours.

In commenting on the results of Apple Day, I think it noticeable that trade statistics and the unemployment rate show no reflection in the amount of loose change available, since returns from Fredericton, suburbs and the Nashwaak Valley amounted to only slightly more than half that of last year.

I must not pass over the fact that, on resignation from the position of District Cub Commissioner of our newly appointed Provincial Field Worker and Assistant Provincial Commissioner Robert Pugh, the local Cub Masters and Assistant Cub Masters organized an Akela Club to form a sort of 'clearing house' for cubbing and so simplified that side of our activities. I am anxious to see it revived.

New Troops
New troops have been organized in Upper Blackville, Nashwaak Village,

Durham and Stanley. The 1st Douglas Troop has been reorganized under Scout Master Carlyle and the ground is well prepared to start a troop at Mouth of Keswick in the spring.

I presume everyone is aware of the Junior Fire Warden plan by which the Provincial Forestry Service is honouring us by having this association train all candidates for the Junior Fire Warden badge and appointment.

On reviewing this report much stands out that should have been done and was not, but the general situation is encouraging and we—I not least—must go on strengthened by the fact that we recognize what we have done, left undone or done less well than should have been.

LEGACY RESULT OF HOSPITALITY

Showing the real Prince Edward Island hospitality to a stranger in the United States has brought an Island woman into the odd story of the life and death of eccentric Miss Grace Fletcher Kelly, Boston recluse, who died recently, and has enriched the same woman, Mrs. Reuben Cate, Concord, by a personal legacy of $1,000 from Miss Kelly's will. Mrs. Cate is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Murray, Linkletter Road. Although she left Prince Edward Island about twenty years ago, she has always kept in touch with the Island, and was home on a short visit last summer.

The chain of events leading to the legacy started in 1900, when Miss Kelly left her home in Boston—a very rare occasion for her—and went to East Concord, New Hampshire, to attend the funeral of a sister. The burial took place in a cemetery right next Mrs. Cate's home, and when Mrs. Cate saw Miss Kelly seeming very dispirited standing by the grave after the funeral, she asked her to come in the house and rest. Miss Kelly accepted the invitation, and was offered a cup of tea, which she accepted with the words, "I'll never forget you for this."

Nor did she forget. The eccentric woman who lived for 65 years of her 80 years in complete seclusion, leaving her Boston home only when forced to by necessity, bequeathed Mrs. Cate $1,000 to show her remembrance of the island woman's hospitality.

When asked what she would do with the money, Mrs. Cate said, "I intend to try to make others happy with it."

McMURRAY, Alberta, Jan. 10 — Somewhere along the 200-mile length of telegraph line between here and Athabasca, A. McDonald, Assistant General Superintendent of the Dominion Telegraph Service, Ottawa, trudged with his dogs last night. He left here last week to obtain first-hand knowledge of line conditions.

ASK YOUR DOCTOR FIRST, MOTHER

Before You Give Your Child
an Unknown Remedy to Take

Every day, unthinkingly, mothers take the advice of unqualified persons—instead of their doctors—on remedies for their children.

If they knew what the scientists know, they would never take this chance.

Doctors Say PHILLIPS' For Your Child

When it comes to the frequently-used "milk of magnesia," doctors, for over 50 years, have said "PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia—the safe remedy for your child."

Remember this—And Always Say "Phillips'" When You Buy. Your child deserves it; for your own peace of mind, see that you get it—Genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

Also in Tablet Form:

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets are now on sale at all drug stores everywhere. Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of Genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

Savages at Home

Canon T. G. Wallace, of St. James Church, in London, Ont., told his congregation on Sunday that missionaries were required as much in Canada as in primitive communities, and he cited, as an example of savagery in our country, the fact that 15,000 'cheap curiosity-mongers' tried to attend the funeral of Ruth Taylor, the victim of the ravine murder in Toronto.

There is undoubted truth in this claim, but it is probably worth noting that the sort of savagery displayed by those who attended the Ruth Taylor funeral and by thousands of similar sensation-seekers throughout the Dominion, is quite different to the savagery of primitive peoples. It is much worse.

The aborigine does not gloat over death and violence. He is too busy to concern himself with morbid speculations concerning the sufferings of others. The apparently aimless morbid curiosity which is aroused in alleged civilized persons by anything that savours of violence is a product of civilization. It is prevalent especially in urban communities. Having lost the primitive strength of the aborigine, the city dweller often lets his or her mind dwell unduly upon such tragedies as this ravine murder.

The savages would go on their way and let others alone. In this regard they are so much more gentlemanly than we are.

Frozen to Ladder

BROWNFIELD, Alberta, Jan. 11—Children sent to invite the aged man to a party found the body of William Stearns, 72, frozen to a ladder here. Stearns had been repairing the house chimney when stricken with a heart attack.
