strong wind began to blow from the south and increased in violence in a very short space of time. The wind died down as evening approached.

For years afterwards surveyors going through the forest were able to find hundreds of trees which had been uprooted with their tops turned towards the north. Oftentimes these trees gave mute evidence of direction to travellers who were without a compass.

A wedding of interest to many friends in the province, especially in Fredericton and Woodstock, took place on Saturday at the Fairville Baptist church, when Rev. R. S. Meadows united in marriage Miss Lillian Spicer Schofield to Ronald Percy Wilson of Woodstock. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and during the signing of the register Mrs. Fred Brookings sang "Because." Given in marriage by her uncle, Stephen Schofield, the bride looked winsome in a dress of white chiffon velvet with slight train. Miss Enid Schofield was her sister's attendant and the groom was attended by his brother, H. Manford Wilson.

Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. Cut flowers in the pastel shades adorned the rooms. The bride's table was covered with a cloth of hand-made lace and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake surmounted with a miniature bride and groom. Additional adornment included a silver basket of roses and snapdragon and pale pink and green candles in silver candlesticks. Mrs. F. H. Finley, aunt of the bride and Miss Elizabeth Cowan poured. Wilmot Brotherhood Opening

With the retiring president Ald. W. Raymond Crewdson in the chair, the Wilmot Brotherhood opened its fall session yesterday afternoon in Castle Hall. This opening meeting was taken up with election of officers for the coming year and a discussion of the programme to be followed. W. J. West, who has been secured as study leader for the year, conducted the latter part. The programme will chiefly consist, Mr. West said, of a study of the life and teachings of Christ with the object of learning how He would have us conduct ourselves in provincial, national and international affairs. A serious study of the life of Christ with this end in view cannot but effect good in the world, Mr. West said. Nomination of officers resulted in the following slate being brought forward and duly elected: Honorary President, Rev. J. S. Gregg; president, F. W. Barker; vice-president, Louis C. Young; secretary-treasurer, Harry W. Young; assistant secretary, Holden Lingley; study leader, W. J. West; press correspondent, Vernon Box. A general committee consists of the above officers, the past presidents and Rev. Dr. F. A. Wightman and Rev. D. R. Chowen. It was suggested that the social side of the Brotherhood's activities had been somewhat neglected in the past, and W. A. Caldwell was elected as chairman of a committee to promote a more abundant social life in the Brotherhood. In vacating the chair, Mr. Crewdson thanked the men for their co-operation and expressed the belief that the Brotherhood had gained a good president. Mr. Barker expressed his thanks for the honor conferred upon him and hoped that a realization of the true meaning of brotherhood might come to his listeners in the coming session. Votes of thanks to the retiring officers were moved and unanimously carried, the meeting being concluded by the singing of a hymn.

Carten; 1st Vice-President, Miss Dorothy Hughes; 2nd Vice-President, Dr. P. G. Thompson; 3rd Vice-President, Miss Helen Harquail; Secretary, C. F. Boyle; Treasurer, Clair Kennedy; members of executive committee, Miss Juanita Mulhern, Walter Myshraill, Miss Anna Hughes, King McShane, Miss Jeanette Gagnon, John McKendy, Miss Edith Rowan and Harold Lynch. It was decided to hold meetings once a week, on Tuesday evenings, and the members of the executive committee were asked to arrange an entertainment programme for the next meeting. Membership cards were distributed to those present.

I THANK THEE, LORD

I thank Thee, Lord that I have found Thee,
Found Thee, how, I ne'er shall know,
But Thou wast that day so near me,
I dared not to Thee say no.

I thank Thee, Lord, that I went with Thee,
Thou hast been to me so kind,
For I, without Thee, was so lonely,
And my way I could not find.

I thank Thee, Lord, that Thou hast given me,
Pure release from all my sin
And instead of fear and worry
Thou has given me peace within.

I thank Thee, Lord, that Thou hast given me,
Power and courage to do Thy will
For Thou hast said, "where'er I guide thee
I will be with thee still."

I thank Thee, Lord, that I can see,
Though all my life has been defeat,
Thou hast a plan for even me
If I Thy guidance seek.

I thank Thee, Lord, for the great vision
Of what this world with Thee could be,
If all Thy children, with contrition,
Would rise up and follow Thee.
—Gertrude M. Parsons.
