

Local Youths Are Prominent at Boys' Parliament

The opening session of the 14th Maritime Tuxis and Older Boys' Parliament which opened at Wolfville, N. S., on Wednesday, featured many matters of interest. At the opening session Lawrence Hall, son of Walter Hall of this city, was elected deputy speaker, Arthur Sewell, also of this city, seconded the motion in Reply to the Speech from the Throne. Neil Ganter, Minister of Intellectual Affairs, moved the resolution urging that all the phases of the fourfold Tuxis programme be carried out by Tuxis groups, thus making for a well balanced boy life.

Rev. Dr. W. N. Hutchins, of the Acadia University faculty, president of the Maritime Religious Education Council, in the capacity of lieutenant-governor opened the 14th Maritime Tuxis and Older Boys' Parliament by reading the speech from the throne. Accompanying him as aide-de-camp were Troop Leader Robbins Elliott and Scout Howard Corning, of the Wolfville Boy Scout Troop.

The speech from the throne made mention of the increased activity in Tuxis work in the Maritimes and the appointment of Ralph C. Young as Maritime boys' work secretary, and forecast legislation to be presented to the parliament. The lieutenant-governor also congratulated Henry D. Hicks, former premier and speaker, on his appointment as Rhodes scholar.

"The Old and New"

Old Year! Thou art gone, thou hast passed away
Into oblivion; kind hast thou been
At times—refreshing spring, the summer day,
The glory of autumn tints—and yet
Midst all, the darker side—the clouds
The tears,
The disappointed hopes, and needless fears,
Therefore we let thee go without regret.

New Year! Thou art here, in radiant mien,
We wonder now, what thou dost hold in store!
The pages of thy book are yet unwritten
Ours be the task to keep them pure and clean;
New resolutions made, with higher aims

We turn to Him, and with His light to guide
We launch our bark—in perfect trust abide.
B. J. A.

VINES GIVEN CALL TO WIN

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Ellsworth Vines yesterday was rated a slight favorite over Fred Perry in their tennis match at Madison Square Garden on Jan. 6, by George M. Lott, Jr. former National doubles titleholder. Lott said he doubted Perry, who will be making his professional debut, would be able to offset the tremendous speed of Vines' service and his ground strokes. Lott will team in the doubles with Perry against Vines and William T. Tilden.

LIFE

Let me but live my life from day to day,
With forward face and unreluctant soul;
Not hurrying to, nor turning from, the goal;
Not mourning for the things that disappear

In the dim past, nor holding back in fear
From what the future veils; but with a whole
And happy heart, that pays its toll
To youth and age, and travels on with cheer.

So let the way wind up the hill or down,
Or rough or smooth, the journey will be joy;
Still seeking what I sought when but a boy—
New friendship, high adventure and a Crown;
My heart will keep the courage of the quest
And hope the road's last turn will be the best.

—Henry VanDyke.
