GIVEN REMAND

An Indian of St. Mary's Reserve appeared before Magistrate Whitman Haines in the Devon police court yesterday, charged with having liquor on an Indian reserve. He was given a remand until today. The Indian's arrest was made by R.C.M.P. constables last week.

SPOKE AT SUSSEX

W. K. Tibert, director of vocational education in the province, spoke yesterday at Sussex at the closing of the 13th annual short course in home economics. Mr. Tibert in his address stressed the value of the short course and pointed out the necessity for such training in the regular high school programme. He also thought that King's county which is a great agricultural county, should have organized classes in its educational programme in order to better prepare the young people of that county for agricultural work.

RETIREES FROM ACADIA

The news was received here today of the retirement of Rev. J. H. MacDonald, B.A., D.D., C.B.E., F.R.G.S., from the faculty of theology of the university. Dr. MacDonald was outstanding as pastor, preacher and editor and also had a distinguished career overseas as assistant director of Canadian chaplains before entering upon his duties at Acadia thirteen years ago. Between the years 1901 and 1913 Dr. MacDonald was pastor of the Brunswick Street Baptist Church here, and was popular with a great number of people. Dr. MacDonald will be succeeded at Acadia by Rev. G. C. Warren, B.D., D.D., the present editor of the Maritime Baptist and who was pastor of the Brunswick Street Baptist church here between the years 1917 and 1930. Dr. MacDonald will continue to reside at Wolfville.

LATE THOMAS HAYES

The funeral of the late Thomas J. Hayes, who died at his home in North Devon on Tuesday, took place this morning from the home with a large number in attendance. There were many floral tributes and Mass cards. The pallbearers were Arthur Goan, Osborne Brown, George Capen and Albert Hartney, while the chief mourners were as follows: Thomas E. Hayes, Wilfrid Gourley, Thomas Gourley, Wm. McCann, Jas. McCann, William Hayes, Leo Hayes, Vincent Nealis, Wm. Nealis, Jas. W. Goan, Basil Capen, Frank Capen, Sanford Brown, Jos. McManus, Walter McGinn, Louis McGinn, Frank McGinn, Dr. Percy Thompson, Harold Thompson, Albert Harrison, Harry Brannen, Jos. Legassie, Geo. Legassie, Harry Cook, Gerald Ashfield, John Morrison, Wm. Hughes, Geo. Thompson and Dominic Stephen.

Mrs. Harold Post's Death Learned Here With Deep Regret

Many friends were grieved to read in The Daily Mail last evening of the death of Mrs. Harold B. Post, formerly Miss Irma Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Scott of this city. As was stated yesterday Mrs. Post died in the hospital at Waterbury, Connecticut, following an illness of a few days. The body will arrive here at noon on Saturday. The service will be conducted at 3:30 P. M. at the home of the parents on Smythe Street by Rev. George Telford and interment will be made at the Rural Cemetery.

Mrs. Post who leaves a baby ten days old contracted pneumonia on Friday last. With her when she passed away were her mother, Mrs. Scott, and her sister, Mrs. B. H. Hagerman of this city. Mrs. Post was 33 years of age and is survived by her husband and an infant son, Peter Benjamin; her parents; four sisters, Mrs. Frank S. Warner, of Seattle, Washington; Mrs. Hagerman of this city; Miss Margaret Scott of this city; and Mrs. Walter R. Clarke of Edmundston. Three brothers also survive. They are J. Stanley Scott and Kenneth A. Scott of this city and John C. Scott of Halifax. Mrs. Post graduated from the Fredericton High School in 1920 and is a graduate in arts from the University of New Brunswick from which institution she was graduated in 1925. She later took a business course, following which she went to Waterbury where she occupied an important position until her marriage to Mr. Post in August, 1934.

Mrs. Post was of a bright and sunny disposition and made and retained a large number of friends. Many of her childhood chums shed tears yesterday when they learned of her death. Mr. Post who is associated with his father in the commercial college at Waterbury will accompany the remains to this city.

PADDING OF PAYROLLS AGAIN IN SPOTLIGHT

Public Accts. Committee Hear Talk Alleged Discrepancies

Other Committees Met

E. M. Taylor and A. G. Turney Speak on Agriculture

Charges of payroll padding on road work were made this morning in the Public Accounts Committee meeting at the House. E. W. Melville, M.P.P. for Carleton had heard reports of "padding" among road supervisors in Carleton County in the months of July, August and September, prior to the federal election. F. W. Colpitts, M.P. for Albert believed there was payroll padding all over the Province before the provincial election. Pay sheets for the months immediately preceding the election were not available to Mr. Melville because it was said that the accounts had not been paid before October 31st last, the close of the fiscal year. Consideration of the policies of the department of agriculture were also taken up.

Agricultural Committee

The Agricultural Committee met this morning in the Department of Agriculture Building with H. O. Downey, M.P.P., Albert County, in the chair. The committee heard A. G. Turney, Provincial Agriculturist, discuss the fruit-growing industry in New Brunswick. He stressed the importance of the apple-growing industry in the St. John River Valley. He stated there are 1100 acres of apple orchards in commercial production in New Brunswick.

Apple Maggot

Mr. Turney said the apple maggot has been prevalent in Eastern Canada for several years, and that apples to be exported to England must be freed from the pest.

He said an amendment is being asked in the House to the Injurious Insects and Pests Act to bring the Act up to date.

Mr. Turney said that two years ago district representatives made a survey of strawberry marketing and it was found that our market is carefully catered to. Cold pack methods for strawberry jam purposes are being investigated. Blueberry production and marketing are also being investigated.

Field Crops

E. M. Taylor, field husbandman, soils and crops division, Department of Agriculture, in speaking of field crops stated the department was dealing with the field crops from four points of view:

1. Field crops production; 2. Cash crops production; 3. Conversion of Field Crops and Utilization of Surplus; 4. Soil fertilizer and productivity as influenced by the use of lime and fertilizer.

Corporations Committee

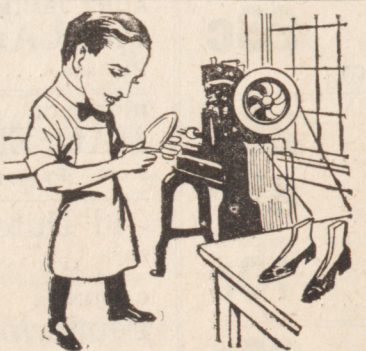

The Corporations Committee met with E. J. Henneberry in the chair and considered the Bill entitled, "An Act in further amendment of the Optometry Act, 1921. W. Anglin, Saint John, sponsored the bill.

FIRES LAST NIGHT

Overheated pipes were the cause of fires at the residences of Col. H. H. Ritchie, George Street, and James McGinnis, Charlotte Street, last evening. No damage resulted in either case.

TENDERS CLOSE TOMORROW

Clair Mott, Saint John architect, will be in the city tomorrow to investigate tenders for the new Edgcombe building to be erected on York Street at the corner of King Street. Tenders for the building close tomorrow night.

NATIONAL PARK DELEGATION IS BEFORE GOVT

A. D. Ganong, ex-M.P., Arthur McKenzie, ex-M.P.P. Appeared Before Board of Trade This Morning — Want Lepreau Site in Charlotte County.

A large delegation from Charlotte County is in the capital today and this afternoon at two o'clock appeared before the provincial government, advocating the Lepreau site in Charlotte County for New Brunswick's proposed National Park.

This morning A. D. Ganong, ex-M. P. and Arthur McKenzie, ex-M. P. P. appeared before the Fredericton Board of Trade and discussed the National Park matter. Following the formal discussion S. S. Miller, president of the Board of Trade, said that the local board of Trade took no stand in the matter this morning. Nevertheless the Fredericton board is eager for the National Park in this province. The delegation from Charlotte County endeavoured to impress on the local board of Trade the suitability of Charlotte county as the site for the proposed park site.

EARLY SPRING FISHING

The early spring salmon fishing season in New Brunswick began yesterday with conditions as favorable as possible in view of the recent freshets, which are even yet not abated. The fishing is expected to improve from now on. Visiting sportsmen from the United States have booked guides for fishing and bear hunting, and already some of these have arrived and are on the streams.

FOOTWALK FOR C. N. R. BRIDGE IS ADVOCATED

Delegation From Devon Will Wait Upon Both Governments

A Great Convenience

Mayor McEvoy Thinks Such a Path is Needed for Pedestrians

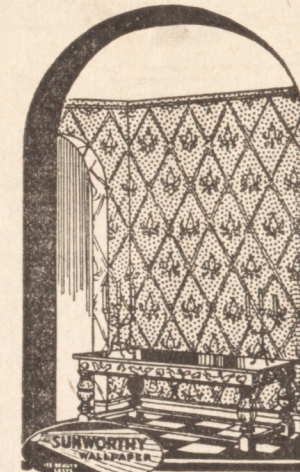

Speaking to The Daily Mail today His Worship Mayor A. J. McEvoy of Devon stated that representation would be made to both the provincial and federal governments to have a foot-walk constructed in connection with the new C.N.R. bridge. Mayor McEvoy said that a delegation from South Devon would wait upon both governments for the purpose of having this additional feature on the bridge. Mayor McEvoy pointed out that the town of Devon is gradually building south and also that a large number of new residences have been built in recent years at Barker's Point. The erection of such a footwalk would be a great convenience to people who otherwise would have to travel a mile or more before reaching the highway bridge coming to town.

During past years although it was against the law many of the residents of South Devon and Barker's Point used the old C.N.R. bridge. This was especially of convenience to those people attending the different educational institutions in Fredericton and to any person who came to Fredericton to do their shopping. It is pointed out that in many places located similarly as Fredericton and Devon that foot-walks are constructed in connection with railway bridges. This can be no inconvenience to the railway authorities at Devon as the walk can be built in such a way as to clear the railway yards at Devon. At the railway

(A word is enough to a wise man)

A writer in the London Times says that a tea-shop waitress in London uses 7,000 to 8,000 words in her speech, while a skilful lawyer uses 50,000 and Winston Churchill is given credit for using 60,000. Highly educated natural scientists are about 80,000.

Our business is selling hats. The average customer is not favorably impressed by a loquacious salesman. The buyer is vitally interested in the style and quality of the hat; words coming from behind the counter are superfluous to him. He asks if it is a BROCK hat, and when the clerk says, "Yes, Sir"—as far as he is concerned the educated scientist can have what is left of the 80,000 words. "That's all and that's that."
