POINEER COUPLE CELEBRATE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Settled in Kincardine, N. B., in the Year 1873

On Thursday, April 30th, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Duncan celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Mr.
Duncan and his wife while very young came over from Scotland in the famous Scotch Colony which settled in Kincardine, N. B., in 1873. A whole book might be written of the hardships and also joys of these sturdy Scotch people.

As a young man, Mr. Duncan came to Washburn with several other Scotch lads from the colony where they found employment in the Johnson-Phair Mill. After three years service in the mill, Mr. Duncan was appointed manager of the business, which position he held for thirty-one years.

In 1886 Mr. Duncan married Catherine Chapman in the Presbyterian kirk in Kincardine built by colonist when first they landed. Mr. and Mrs.
Duncan established their home in Washburn where they have since resided. They have six children all of whom are living and helped them to celebrate this event. Namely: Mrs.
Guy Durepo of Presque Isle; Mrs.
Ernest Umphrey, Miss Bessie Duncan, Harry Duncan, Mrs. Malcolm Umphrey all of Washburn and David Otis Duncan of Presque Isle.

During their fifty years spent in Washburn Mr. and Mrs. Duncan have witnessed many changes in the life of the village. They have always been faithful supporters of the Methodist Church, singing in the choir and holding various offices in connection with the church. In fraternal organizations they have also been active, having been members of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge, Coldvale Chapter, O. E.
S. and the Grange.

Mr. Duncan is also a member of the Masonic Lodge and the only living Charter Member of Industry Lodge No. 112, I. O. O. F., and has been Secretary for the past 49 years, still holding that office. He has been the town's efficient postmaster for the past thirteen years until retired by change of administration. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan although getting along in years are both active and in good health.

This crowning event of their lives was celebrated in the I. O. O. F. hall which had been especially decorated by their children and relatives. The color scheme was yellow in keeping with the event and each light was covered with yellow shades. The front of the hall was decorated with ferns and baskets of cut flowers, the latter being gifts to the bride from friends in Presque Isle, which were later presented. The hall was crowded with friends and relatives from far and near. While the crowd was gathering selections by the High School Orchestra under the direction of Miss Eleanor Smith were enjoyed. A violin solo, "I Love You Truly," was played by Miss Margaret Umphrey, a granddaughter.

The wedding party marched into the hall to the strains of "Scots Wha Hae," played by Miss Bessie Duncan, a daughter. The party was preceded by Miss Virginia Umphrey, another granddaughter who was dressed in Scottish costume and carrying a beautiful basket of sweet peas, a gift from Mrs. Della Stevens of Presque Isle.
The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. W.
L. Duncan, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. R.
W. Chapman. Each lady wore a beautiful corsage bouquet that of the bride being in yellow and white; Mrs. Chapman's orchid and white; Mrs. W. L.
Duncan, rose and white.

When they were seated the following programme was carried out, which needless to say had a Scotch flavor in honor of the Scotch homeland from which they came so many years ago.
Mrs. Guy Durepo of Presque Isle, eldest daughter, had charge of the programme and in a most gracious manner introduced first the Rev. Gordon Pringle, beloved pastor of the Colony for over 40 years and who is still in active service as pastor of the church.
Mr. Pringle came to Washburn especially for this event. He delighted the audience with his quaint old World manner and souvenirs of Scotland which he brought with him.
Next came a song entitled "Strolling in the Colony" sung by the children for "Mother and Dad," especially written for the occasion by Rev. Herman A. Clark of Gardiner and set to the music of Harry Lauder's "Roaming in the Gloaming." Reading, Mrs.
Hannah Rideout; Piano Solo, Betty Russell; greeting from friends included a letter from Rev. E. R. Farrar of Ellsworth, given by David O. Duncan; Vocal Solo, Scotland Must Be Heaven, Harry E. Duncan; Tribute to Uncle Dave and Aunt Kate composed by Rev. H. A. Clark and read by Mrs.
Kenneth Duncan; remarks by Rev. K.
D. Paul of the Baptist Church and Rev. Charles Whynot of the Methodist church; Vocal Solo, Now Your Hair

Has Turned to Silver, Stuart Duncan; Highland Fling, Virginia Umphrey; Trio, When I Grow Too Old to Dream, Mrs. Guy Durepo. Miss Bessie Duncan, David O. Duncan; remarks, Milton J. Stairs; remarks and presentation of purse of money and flowers, Harry E. Umphrey; response, D. L.
Duncan; original poem written by Stuart Duncan of Port Fairfield, read by Mrs. Henry Russell; A Musical Pleasant in costume entitled The Old Maids' Tea Party, given by Mrs.
Ernest Umphrey, Mrs. Alex. Duncan, Mrs. Wm. Duncan Jr., Miss Bessie Duncan with Mrs. Malcolm Umphrey at the piano.
During the programme a bride's cake, a gift of Mrs. Bertha Austin of Presque Isle was presented by Miss Winona Duncan, a granddaughter.
Following the programme an informal reception was held and refreshments of fruit punch and wafers were served. Finally a jolly informal singing of old songs ending with the good old Scotch song, "Auld Lang Syne," and "God Be With You" as a final number.
Mr. and Mrs. Duncan received many lovely gifts of pewter, linen, glass, cut flowers, also a generous purse of money.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. E. J. Malone of Stanley was in the city today.

Mrs. J. V. Dodge and daughter Norma of Regina have arrived in the city to spend the summer with Mrs.
H. F. McLeod and other relatives.

Foster Calder, M.P.P. for Charlotte county, is in the city to attend a banquet of P.N.S. the class of 1892, of which he is a member.

Returning to Seminary Henry Dobbelsteyn, Ecclesiastic at Holy Heart Seminary, who was called home on account of the sudden death of his father, the late Matthieu Dobbelsteyn, is returning to Halifax on Monday.

Reception and Dance
The students of the Provincial Normal School entertained their friends at a reception and dance last evening. The stage was trimmed with red geranium and blue crepe paper with the P.N.S. crest in prominence. A feature of the evening was the reading of the Valedictory by Frank McCain of Florenceville.

Well Known Here
Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Jones, Hatfield's Point, Kings County, whose daughter, Miss Bertha V. Jones, was the winner of the Governor-General's bronze medal for highest professional standing, Class II, Provincial Normal School, yesterday, are well known in this city, where they have visited frequently. Miss Jones is receiving the congratulations of many friends made while a resident here.

The New Brunswick Museum
The people of Fredericton are interested in the descendants of the late Professor L. W. Bailey, formerly of the University of New Brunswick, some of whom reside in this city. Dr.
Alfred Bailey, a youthful grandson, has been appointed assistant to the Director (Dr. William MacIntosh) of the Provincial Museum in the management of the Dr. Webster Collection of pictures, etc., the Carnegie Foundation undertaking to pay his salary.
It is no secret that Dr. MacIntosh has been looking for some time to obtain a general assistant in his work but young men who are students in Natural History are not in evidence for such an onerous part, which involves research and experimental work.

N. B.—Dr. Bailey, who is also a poet of no small repute as well as a lecturer, is a son of Baron and Baroness d'Avray of Quebec and Tadou-sac.

Verandah Luncheon
Mrs. D. J. McLeod entertained charmingly yesterday afternoon at her home at a verandah luncheon at the Dominion Experimental Farm.
The pleasing function was in honor of Mrs. K. C. Clark of Halifax who has been the guest of the hostess for the past few days. Luncheon was served at five small tables, which were centred with mauve and white illacs, which with pink and red tulips were also used throughout the house. Following luncheon Bridge was played. The prizes were won by the guest of honor, Mrs. Grace Cooper Mrs. K. C. Bishop and Mrs. Kenneth McAdam. The guests were admitted by Shirley McLeod and Elizabeth Clark, small daughters of Mrs. Mc-Leod and of her guest.

sion.

press a word of thanks to all who assisted in making this occasion such a happy one with special mention to D. M. Barker and O. K. Story.
The day and evening was a crowning event in their fifty years of wedded life as was in evidence by their happy smiles. Heaps of cards, letters and telegrams of congratulations were received during the day.
Among the out of town guests who were present were: Alex. Matheson, and Rev. Gordon Pringle, Kincardine, N.B.; Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Inman and daughter Phyllis and Mrs. J. Mc-Phail, Perth, N.B.; Mr. and Mrs. Jas.

Members of the family of the late Matthieu Dobbelsteyn who were called to the city this week on account of his sudden passing include Miss Louise Dobbelsteyn of the staff of the Moncton City schools; Miss Henrietta Dobbelsteyn and Nicholas, both of Saint John, who are also returning on Monday. Brother Nicolas of Ottawa will spend a few days in the city with his family.

On Monday night at D Coy Inn the Gyros will hold their annual din-ned and function known as Ladies' Night.

Barristers' Banquet
The Fredericton Barristers' Society are holding a convention banquet this evening at D Coy Inn. The tables will be adorned with tulips and illacs. Covers will be laid for fifty guests.

Members of the family of the late
to the city this week on account of
Louise Dobbelsteyn of the staff of

Class of '92 Has Reunion

The closing exercises of the Provincial Normal School last night for the class of 1936 was marked by the gathering of members of the class of 1892 at a local restaurant when 16 members sat down and reminisced of the days spent at Normal School under the guidance of Dr. Mullin, Dr.
Creed, Dr. Britton and Miss Alice Clark, all of whom have passed to the great school from which graduates never return.

The gathering last night decided to make the reunion an annual function and permanent officers were appointed to keep in touch with members of the class present last night and to seek correspondence with members who were not present. The proposition to make the reunion an annual event and that permanent officers be elected was suggested by Dr. Miner, of Calais, Maine, and the officers were elected as follows: Mrs. C. C.
Jones, president; Mrs. F. B. Yerxa, Fredericton, vice-president; and Foster Calder, M.P.P., of Deer Island, secretary. Mrs. W. G. Clark and Mrs.
A. C. Porter, of this city, were most active in the get-together last night, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered.

Short addresses were given by Mr.
Calder, Dr. Miner, Harper Allen of Moncton, Dr. C. C. Jones and Mrs.
W. G. Clark, each paying tribute to the teachers of their class whose example had left imprint upon the young people of that day and which they carried down through the days which have gone. Reference was made to the teachers of that time, Dr.
Mullin, Dr. Creed, Dr. Britton and Miss Alice Clark, and the influence for good they left upon the class of 1892 which turned out some of the best and ablest men and women ever graduated by the school. One member said: "God might have made a better class than that of 1892 but He never did."

Covers were laid for 18 but an unexpected pleasure was in store for the 18 when Lee Alward, a member of the class and now an influential citizen of Chicago, and Miss Frances McNally, Dean of the Domestic Science department at Acadia College, Wolfville, who happened to be in the city.
The others present were Dr. C. C.
Jones, chancellor of the University of New Brunswick; Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. W. G. Clark, Fredericton; Mrs.
F. J. Boyer, Victoria, N. B.; Dr. Miner, Calais, Me.; Harper Allen, Moncton; Foster Calder, M.P.P., Deer Island; Mrs. Franklin Dunphy, Kingsclear; Mrs. A. C. Porter, Mrs. Henry Wishart, Mrs. J. H. Richards, Mrs.
D. E. Crowe, Mrs. E. B. Yerxa, Mrs.
Hedley Upton, Mrs. J. S. Scott, Mrs.
A. E. Mathewson, Fredericton. Mrs.
Miner and Mrs. Allen were guests at the banquet.

W. M. S. MEETING

The W. M. S. of Wilmot Church held its regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Randolph Crocker, the president was in the chair and after the opening hymn the Scriptures were read by Mrs. John McMurtre and prayer offered by Mrs.
D. R. Chowen. A report from the supply secretary showed that considerable progress has been made. A collection was taken to provide money for the buying of supplies to be made up into clothing and quilts and the amount realized was very gratifying.
Mrs. George Green, our treasurer, showed in her report that much progress has been made toward raising our allocation.

The President then spoke of Mrs.
Bartlett, our delegate to the Maritime Branch having been elected Recording Secretary for the Branch. She then called upon Mrs. Bartlett to read her report.

The Maritime Branch met in Halifax recently. Two hundred and thirty-three were in attendance. Of these 125 were accommodated in Pine Hill, the others staying with friends in the city. The morning and afternoon sessions were held in Pine Hill and the evening meetings were in St. Matthew's Church. Three missionaries were present: Miss Rose from Korea, Miss Jean Sommerville Honan, and Miss Komyo, Japanese student at Mount Allison. Mrs. Ernest Forbes, Dominion Board president, a former Maritimer, was present at the meetings. The delegates elected to attend the Board meeting at Toronto this week, were Mrs. J. T. Burchill, Branch President; Miss Bertha Robertson, C. G. I. T. secretary; and Mrs. A. J. Frith, Bermuda.

An impressive memorial service was held for the late Dr. A. F. Robb, missionary of Korea, and the late Miss Minnie Bell who for years, was Supply Secretary of the Branch and was very enthusiastic and faithful in her work.

The sum of $78,000 was collected for missionary work during this past year being $3,000 more than the amount raised the preceeding year. Mrs. Forbes, Dominion Board president congratulated the Maritime Branch and assured its members that at the Dominion Board meeting plans will be made to provide for extra work to be done.

The question of omitting the Branch next year came up and was voted upon. The majority of the delegates voted in the affirmative, in order to curtail expenses, and to guard against further retrenchments in the mission field. A hearty vote of thanks was presented to Mrs. Bartlett for her splendid report. The president paid a high tribute to the memory of Mrs.
C. H. Thomas who passed to her heavenly home a few days ago. She was the treasurer of our Auxiliary for forty years. The president called upon Mrs. Hallett to close the meeting with prayer.

It pays to advertise in The Daily Mail.

The public demanded shirts for one dollar. Being public ser-

Realizing the truth of the words of Chesterfield, "A man of
