

Louis Shows Better Timing

LAKEWOOD, N. J. June 12—Joe Louis, Detroit Brown Bomber, is showing better timing in his daily workouts here for his bout with Max Schmeling in the Yankee Stadium, June 18.

The Bomber is staggering his sparring mates with stiff left hooks to the head, and he is using his right to the body to good advantage. Louis did five miles on the road, hit the light and heavy bags, skipped rope, worked on the pulleys and boxed six rounds, before retiring to his cottage for a rubdown by Trainer Jack Blackburn.

SCHMELING IN READINESS FOR LOUIS BOUT

NAPANOOH, N. Y. June 12—Max Schmeling will engage in his last workout next Tuesday afternoon, or two days before he squares off against Joe Louis, in the ring of the Yankee Stadium, New York, June 18, making 19 days of training in the six weeks he has been in camp here.

This week he will spar four afternoons because of the anticipated bumper crowds, including many estimable gentlemen in the beak busting business and "experts" galore.

Of the seven sparring partners hired at $25 every working day with board and grub thrown in for good measure, only four remain.

They include Mickey McAvoy, Henry Cooper, Jerry Johnson and Heinz Kohlhass. The three others sent back home were Stanley Ketchell, Andy Wallace and Jerry Pavalec.

The Black Uhlan and his entourage will pack up early next Wednesday morning and motor to Broadway. They will put up in one of the big hostleries in the quiet East Side Fifties. The night before the battle Schmeling, Trainer Max Machon, Manager Joe Jacobs and Otta Petrie will see a show.

It will take them only a few minutes to reach Promoter Mike Jacobs' Hippodrome, where the weighing-in ceremonies will be conducted.

It pays to advertise in The Daily Mail.

Boxer Killed

NEW YORK, June 12—Willie Pal, 25-year-old negro boxer of Albany, whose real name was William Peartree, died in Harlem Hospital of concussion of the brain suffered when he was knocked out in the third round of a six-round bout Tuesday night.

A delicate operation was performed on his brain, but doctors were unable to save his life.

SPORT SHOTS

NEW YORK, June 12—A check of the Broadway spots indicates Joe Louis will go into the ring a 3 to 1 favorite to defeat Max Schmeling next Thursday night. . . . The Browns likely will dispose of Rollo Hemsley, before the selling and trading deadline rolls around. . . . So far the Indians are the highest bidders. . . . They'll part with $60,000 for Rollo, if our dope is on the up and up. . . . Right now it looks like you'll be safe in making world's series reservations in New York and St. Louis. . . . With Bill Jurgens out for the rest of the year, the Cubs may grab Blondy Ryan from Minneapolis any day now. . . . Scout Clarence Rowland has been looking at Blondy for more than a week.

Here's a hot tip straight from Dixie: Disgusted with the run around the Davis Cup stuffed shirts gave him, Bryan Grant will turn pro as soon as he returns from Wimbledon. Does anybody blame him? The nays have it. Bing Crosby, the crooner, is called the best putter among the Hollywood actor people.

ALL IN READINESS FOR OLYMPIC BOXING TRIALS

Dallas Laskey of This City, Lightweight Title Holder, One of Contestants

SAINT JOHN, June 13—When boxers from all parts of the Maritimes climb through the ropes at The Forum here on the nights of July 2 and 3 in the Maritime Olympic boxing trials and Maritime boxing championships there will be Maritime, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia champions, former champs and near champions among them.

The march on to what promises to be the outstanding classic in Maritime ring warfare will commence before the opening day of the meet as all boxers to compete must weigh-in before the battles for Maritime crowns and a crack at the Canadian trials to be held in Montreal on July 11, 12 and 13.

The leather-pushers in the "simon-pure" ranks will trek here from Cumberland County, N. S., Cape Breton, Halifax, Fredericton, Campbellton, Minto, and probably P. E. I. as well as other districts where the amateur game is being seriously considered.

Only boxers of outstanding ability will be picked for the Maritime team for the Olympic trials in Montreal, D. W. Fraser of Amherst, chairman of the Maritime boxing committee, stated last night. The selection will be made by those competent to judge what a scrapper can do and because a man wins his class in the Maritime meet it will not portend that he is Canadian Olympic material.

Laskey and Others

Dallas Laskey, of Fredericton, the New Brunswick lightweight winner at the April bouts in Fredericton, will be here along with Alex. McLeod former claimant of the Maritime title and Joe Harris, Negro welterweight, who made things pretty hot for Pat Metallic before he bowed out.

Cameron Glenn, clever lightweight from Minto, will be among the aspirants for honors as well as a trip to the Canadian Olympics.

SHARKEY GETS TWO HEAVIES FOR HIS CAMP

BOSTON, June 12—Two husky heavyweights joined Jack Sharkey yesterday afternoon. Don Petrin came in from Newark, N. J., and Eddie Mader arrived from New York. They will spar with the former champion every afternoon that he elects to do so, and they will make things interesting for the Chestnut Hill heavyweight.

Right now Jack is doing his training at the Buckley Gym on Friend st., but there is a possibility that he will shift to some country resort for a week or so.

Some of his friends have suggested that he join Dan O'Mahoney at the latter's camp at Nahant and work with the mat champion.

Sharkey said he would consider it, but it is a question if mixed training would benefit either.

Many boxers have wrestled during their training days, but right now Sharkey is ambitious to speed things for himself, hence the engaging of Pettrin and Mader.

Quiet in West Front

Matchmaker Valenti did not hear anything about Tony Palazol's proposed injunction to prevent Phil Brubaker, who is scheduled to meet Sharkey here June 25, from leaving San Francisco.

As a result of the silence, he believes that Bill Hunnefeld has blocked to move of Tony, and that Brubaker and his manager will be eastward bound in a few days.

Valenti went to Wilmington yesterday afternoon to find a camp at Silver Lake for Brubaker. He looked at Thompson's grove, and he said it would be an ideal spot if he could make arrangements to obtain it.

REGULATIONS FOR TOURIST EXEMPTIONS

OTTAWA, June 13 — Regulations covering the exemption from duty of goods to the value of $100, purchased by Canadian residents travelling abroad were issued yesterday by Hon. J. L. Isley, Minister of National Revenue. Unless purchases are less than $5 the goods must be declared to the customs officers.

The exemption is limited to goods brought by the returning Canadian as baggage and will not be granted to persons under 14 years old.

A person allowed exemption of less than $100 can not, on a subsequent occasion, claim additional exemption on the previous difference.

The statement today amend a previous regulation and substitutes the following:

"Fifty cigars or less, 200 cigarettes or less and two pounds of manufactured tobacco or less, in open packages, or cartons, found in the baggage of a traveller not being a resident of Canada may be delivered free of duty."

Canadians may bring back "or personal use practically anything not prohibited entry into Canada. They can bring 200 cigarettes, 50 cigars, one quart of liquor or beer. They cannot, however, bring back such things as used cars, and airplanes, narcotics, obscene literature.

HELEN JACOBS MAINSTAY FOR WIGHTMAN CUP

LONDON, June 12—America will depend on four players to retain the Wightman Cup for the sixth straight time in competition Friday and Saturday against Britain's star women tennis players.

Helen Jacobs, of California, and Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabry, of Brookline, Mass., will carry the major share of the load. Each will play two singles and pair for a doubles match.

Miss Jacobs will encounter pretty Kay Stammers, left-handed star, in the opening match of the series, while Mrs. Fabry will meet Dorothy Round England's No. 1 player, in the second singles match on Friday. Mrs. Marjorie Van Ryn of Philadelphia, and Carolin Babcock, California, will pair in the opening doubles against Evelyn Dearman and Nancy Lyle.

On Saturday, Miss Jacobs plays Miss Round and Mrs. Fabry meets Miss Stammers in singles. Miss Babcock will play Mary Hardwick, a newcomer to the British squad, in the other singles Saturday while Mrs. Fabry and Miss Jacobs will meet Freda James and Miss Stammers in the other doubles.

The series is decided on a best four out of seven match basis.

New Control For Ontario Racing

TORONTO, June 12—Organization of the Ontario Racing Board, on which breeders and race track operators will be jointly represented, was seen today as the first step toward eventual establishment of a provincial commission to govern horse racing in Ontario.

The Board will compete directly with the Incorporated Canadian Racing Association, once in full control of Ontario racing, but now limited to only three tracks, Woodbine, Hamilton and Fort Erie. The Board, under its charter, has authority to conduct every phase of racing management.
