SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Leaving Tomorrow for Winnipeg Mrs. A. T. McMurray, provincial president of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, is leaving tomorrow for Winnipeg where she will attend the annual meeting of the Order.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Graham with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Chapman are leaving tomorrow by car for Kentville, Nova Scotia, where they will spend the week-end.

Banquet Meeting

Celestial Chapter No. 3, Order of the Eastern Star entertained last night at the stated monthly meeting. The Worthy Matron, Mrs. H. S. Wright presided. Guests including the members of Fidelity Chapter No. 32 of Houlton, Maine, and of York Chapter No. 13 of McAdam Jct. Visitors from Electa Chapter, Andover, and other Chapters, were also present. About eighty people sat down to a salmon banquet at 6.30 p.m., and the meeting which followed was one of the happiest held by the Chapter for some time. A hearty welcome was given to the visitors, and to Mrs. H. W. Woods, O.B.E., one of the Chapter members who is also Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter of New Brunswick. Plans were made for attending Grand Chapter which is to be held in St. Stephen in June this year. Other Grand Officers present at the meeting were Past Grand Patron Dr. H. S. Wright; Grand Trustee Mrs. E. R. Logan; Grand Chaplain Mrs. A. Murray; Grand Electa Mrs. Hoyt, and Grand Instructor Mrs. Winchester. After the business of the meeting was completed the Chapter was closed in due form, and a short programme of music was carried out. The artists taking part were Miss Kathleen Horwood, violinist; Miss Gertrude Munro, pianist; Douglas Terry, Baritone; and Prof. Harrison Wade, pianist. Each selection was beautifully rendered, and received much appreciation and applause. A social hour followed, with light refreshments served at the close.

N. B. Scrap Book Praised
At a meeting of the National Press and Publicity committee of the I.O. D.E. recently held in Toronto, the scrap book of the Provincial Chapter of New Brunswick was shown to the committee, and it was thought it was a very good suggestion for all provinces. The five scrap books from the provinces of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, British Columbia, Ontario and Saskatchewan, were very carefully judged by the committee. The following was the basis for the judging: for originality, 20 per cent, clearness 15 per cent, arrangement 15 per cent, conciseness 15 per cent, value of information 35 per cent, making the total 100 per cent. Moved and duly seconded that the prize for the best scrap book be awarded to the Duke of Rothesay Chapter, Rothesay, N. B. Mrs. W. G. Lumbers, the National President, is very kindly donating this prize.
