Economy Note Sounded

Ald. McCaughey believed the citizens would find "that five feet worth a million dollars to them," in which Ald. Mundle concurred, saying that "there is no other way out of it than to take that five feet." Ald. Crewdson said that many of the business firms would have difficulty in conveying their goods to the stores if the cars were parked in the middle of the street, but Ald. Doohan insisted that all the stores on that block could be reached by the back premises.

Ald. Forbes said that the only ultimate solution will be to take the five feet. "This should have been done years ago," he said.

Deputy Mayor Maxwell noted that there might be more obstruction if the street is widened than before in view of the trees being there. He understood that the trees weren't to be cut down. He said that proper parking would look after congestion, the parking problem and the danger area. He said that Mayor Kitchen was known to be opposed to the move to widen Queen street.

Ald. McCaughey—"I don't agree with Ald. Maxwell, I think we have a bad traffic problem."

Ald. McKnight—"There is a lot of unnecessary parking on Queen street anyway."

Ald. Mundle—"I think Ald. Maxwell, and Ald. McKnight are watching the little things and letting the big things get by them."

The motion was put on the previous night to have the street recommended to be widened was put and carried.

Discussion on Sidewalks

After some discussion the city council left the matter of the programme of sidewalk paving, curb and gutter work to the June meeting. It was Ald. McCaughey's suggestion that the city take up the work of sidewalk paving piecemeal and do as many sidewalks as are deemed necessary with an eye to economy.

Ald. McKnight protested against too much work being done in this connection saying "we should move slowly in the matter of adding to a deficit like we have in deferred charges department. He specially urged caution in the matter of curbs and sidewalks which are not sufficiently urgent at the present time. "We should be as economical as possible and see where the money is coming from, before going ahead," he said.

The opinion of Ald. McCaughey and Ald. Murray Hagerman was that the curb could be left for a time. In the matter of sidewalks, Ald. Hagerman said in cases where the citizen wants a sidewalk and is willing to pay the usual fifty percent of the cost, the city should pay its share and do the work. An amount of $13,000 of an unexpended bond issue of 1935 was suggested as a way out, but it was pointed out that this money cannot be used for such work, being for permanent paving. Ald. Hagerman wondered if Phoenix Square could not be paved if this $13,000 is available. It is greatly needed he declared.

Respecting the city's permanent paving programme for the summer Ald. McCaughey suggested that the city decide to take up this work section by section and that the choice of what work to be done be left to the discretion of the Roads and Streets committee, who will make regular reports to the council. The council agreed on this procedure.

Normal School fence and inside the Liquor Control Board fence and that this work be done this spring, under the supervision of the provincial engineers and the city engineer. This step would be taken in view of the fact that several trees would have to be cut down on Queen street. Ald. Forbes seconded the motion.

Ald. McKnight presented the report of the fire chief which showed losses during the past month to have been less than $200. The report was received and placed on file.

Pensions Matter

The deputy mayor read a letter from the Woodstock chief of police respecting pensions for police officers. He urged that the city council cooperate in this matter. Ald. Ross asked if this matter was not in the hands of the Police Commission, but Ald. Maxwell assured him that the city sets the salaries of the police officers. The letter was referred to the Administration of Justice committee.

Re Transient Labor

The matter of non-resident or "transient labor" in conjunction with the work on the salvaging of the C. N.R. bridge was referred to the Legislative committee, who will be asked to report to the next meeting of the council. The council wishes to know how much tax is placed on skilled or non-skilled transient labor, which might come here seeking jobs on the work of salvaging the bridge.

The auditor's report showed total expenditures for the month to be $29,510.50.

FARM PLAN EXTENSION IS FORECAST

OTTAWA, Ont., May 5—An investigation of the land settlement scheme, where city relief families are placed on farms will be conducted before the next session of Parliament, Labor Minister Rogers announced recently.

He intends to visit settlements for first-hand knowledge and to assist him in concluding whether the scheme should be retained, expanded or abandoned.

The House passed a vote of $500,000 to assist the work.

Mr. Rogers in the House of Commons foreshadowed extension of the farm placement scheme to all Provinces. It has applied for three years to Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta and involves single unemployed men placed on farms for the winter months.

The House passed a vote of $1,000,000 for the scheme when the Minister said he hoped to meet the Provinces within the next few weeks and propose extension of the scheme. At the present time the Dominion pays $5 a month to the man and the Provinces pay $5 to the farmer.

Care in selecting the men was practiced Mr. Rogers said, to eliminate fraud under the scheme such as farmers' sons who did not need relief. In his judgment it was "a fruitful method of providing relief for single, homeless men", and was proving successful.

During the past winter farm placements in Manitoba were 5,200; Saskatchewan, 6,700 and Alberta 2,269.

(Says It Failed)
Joseph Bradette (Liberal Cochrane) hoped the land settlement scheme would not be enlarged, because he believed it had failed. It was impossible, he argued for city mechanics to be model into successful farmers in the swift change. He hoped, however, the people on the land would be maintained, but no more added.

The Dominion did not place men on the land, the Minister said, but the Provinces did. Selection of men and land was made by the Provinces and municipalities, with the Dominion paying its share of the cost. The Minister said he would investigate the whole scheme before the next session. "Before there is any expansion of the scheme we will see our way very clearly", he added.

Angus MacInnis (C. C. F. Vancouver East) asked what was the use of putting unskilled people on outlying farms when skilled men on good farms couldn't make a decent living. Hon. Hugh Stewart (Conservative Leeds) praised the scheme, and hoped it would be enlarged.

Mr. Bradette said better results could be achieved helping farmers' sons to be placed on farms, experienced men who knew farming and chose it as an occupation voluntarily. Rene Pelletier (S. C. Peace River) was not enthusiastic about land settlement. He said the people placed on the land would only add to the excess of agricultural products.

"Does my friend think it is better to consume without producing, or produce and consume at the same time?" asked Mr. Rogers.

World Decentralized
It was time the Government gave some attention to the decentralization of industrial production rather than increasing agricultural production, said Mr. Pelletier.

Miss Agnes MacPhail (U. F. O. Labor, Grey-Bruce), said if the Minister was so concerned about production he might turn his attention to motor

No Happiness In the Home When the Mother Is Sick

The tired, worn out mother cannot make a happy home if she is sick and worried by the never ending household duties. She gets run down and becomes nervous and irritable, downhearted and discouraged, can't rest at night, and gets up in the morning as tired as when she went to bed.

Women suffering in this way will find in Milburn's H. & N. Pills a remedy with which to recuperate their health, build up the run down system, and bring back their bodily vigor.

REAL FARMERS WITHOUT HELP, HOUSE IS TOLD

OTTAWA, May 5—Land settlement as a means of unemployment relief was both praised and condemned in the House of Commons, today as Labor Minister Rogers sought approval of a vote of $500,000 to expand land settlement schemes.

Miss Agness Macphail (UFO-Lab., Grey-Bruce) said it was ridiculous to place unemployed on the land when many good farmers were being driven from the land. J. F. Pouliot (Lib., Temiscouata) criticized colonization schemes in the Province of Quebec, and J. R. MacNichol (Cons., Toronto Davenport) told of a personal survey he had made of relief settlements in Northern Ontario.

The scheme was not a new one, said Mr. Rogers. It had been carried on for a number of years in co-operation with the Provinces, who selected the settlers and the land and arranged all details. Of the settlers so far placed 80 per cent. had remained on the land and he regarded this percentage as encouragingly high.

Mr. Pouliot asserted settlers in Quebec had been placed in rocky soil or far away in the bush where they were sure to fail. He suggested abandoned farms in settled sections be repopulated first, because the choice of and made the whole scheme fail to succeed.

Jesse Clark of Springfield is a visitor in the city today. Mr. Clark who is in his eightieth year, was until recent years a frequent visitor to this city. He is receiving a hearty hand shake today from many old friends.

cars or silk stockings of which there were not enough, rather than to farm products.

THE ASTOUNDING "SAGE" CASE

Curiouser and curiouser becomes the case of "Mr. Sage." J. J. Gibbons, head of the advertising agency which produced the scintillating scenarios that put the country in stitches during an otherwise gloomy campaign, now takes his turn to assume responsibility for the broadcasts. In this he succeeds Hon. Earl Lawson, who assumed responsibility as long ago as February 1st last.

But an even more instructive contribution to this astounding case is Mr. Gibbons' statement that:

"No one except the staff of the J. J. Gibbons Agency knew the context of the broadcasts until they heard them on the air. . . The Conservative organizer had an outline of the first broadcast before it went on the air. Apart from that one instance, no one knew what was going on the air except our staff."

Well, if that is true, it is simply fantastic. Imagine a great party organizer buying radio playlets designed to discuss political issues of the day and to be heard nightly by thousands and thousands of listeners of all trends of opinion, and not taking the trouble to find out their context!

Equally fantastic was the Conservative organization's acquiescence in their continuation after the first one or two had been "aired." The chairman of the Radio Commission has said that the "Sage" sagas were "tripe." So they were. Worse, they were, to many persons, offensive. The incredible thing is that the party officials who, bought that tripe did not even suspect how silly they were.

It pays to advertise in The Daily Mail.
