STUDIO NOTES

"Now That April's Here Again"
The other day Kate Smith took group of orphans to the circus. The elated youngsters attracted so much attention that two spectators in adjoining boxes made inquiries, a have filed applications requesting the privilege of adopting two of the children.

Guy and Carmen Lombardo are busy these week-ends, planning "additions and corrections" to their yacht "Tempo" on which they hope to get time off, this summer, for cruising around Long Island Sound.

Guy is having a series of nautical wall-panels designed for the main cabin, each panel to represent one of brother Carmen's song-hits. The latest one, "Boo-Hoo," is symbolized by the weeping oysters, Walrus and Carpenter from "Alice-in-Wonderland."

Robert L. (Believe-It-Or-Not) Ripley, who was long hand-ball champ at the New York Athletic Club, where he now lives, has started construction of a new handball court at his Mamaroneck summer place.

Sunday night, April 11, when Gracie Allen and George Burns made a "visitation" to the Jack Benny air show, Gracie expressed irritation that the Bennys kept interrupting the train of what she calls her "thought."

When they got home George found a telegram for Gracie, congratulating her on having "spoken her mind, even though it was Allen fun."

The wire was signed "G. Allen." Gracie says it's the spring air.

Bless My Sole

At the Tuesday afternoon rehearsal, Martha Raye and Parkyakarkus were giving Al Jolson rave notices on his brand-new sport shoes, a streamlined tan-and-white pair of oxfords. "It looks," said Parky, "as though the Jolson feet were being glorified."

"Deluxe dogs, I call 'em," ribbed La Raye. "Maybe so," said Al, "but I knew those feet when! Once in New York when I was about 18, three other kids and I were sleeping in a truck, our feet hanging over the end. I woke up to see a big mugg removing the shoes of the boy sleeping next to me. I lay still, hoping to escape notice, when suddenly the sneak-thief grabbed one of my feet. He took one look at the sole, dropped the foot, and moved on with a disgusted grunt."

At smiled, "Still, those shoes were not so bad. At least they were air-conditioned."

Where There's a Wheel

Gracie Allen, having seen one in a night club, threatens to try to learn the mastery of the unicycle, a one-wheeled vehicle. George Burns, to head her off, is selling her the idea that she start out with the tricycle, on the theory that it has three wheels, and is, therefore, three times harder to ride!

Lanny Ross always used to remark, during his college days, that his friends were nice people "but too lackadaisical to write a letter." Now he has one of the largest fan clubs in existence, and has to over-see thousands of letters every week.

Kate Smith has always wanted to let others have their way, even if it meant letting them order her about, just to keep peace. But ever since her radio debut she has been one of the airwaves' most efficient rehearsal major-domos: she quietly and firmly

AID INDIANS FAR AS ABLE

OTTAWA, April 15—An entirely erroneous impression was created by the allegation of Rev. Dr. S. S. Osterhout before Toronto Kiwanis Club recently that the Department of Indian Affairs is not allowing people with tuberculosis to go into the hospital until they are ready to die, and that cases of midwifery are not allowed in hospital unless there are complications, it was stated by Dr. Harold W. McGill, Deputy Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs.

Dr. McGill said the department has deliberately adopted the policy of refusing admission to hospital of tubercular Indians who are about to die, for the protection of others. With regard to the charge that confinement cases are not allowed in hospital unless there are complications, Dr. McGill admitted the department's hospital accommodation was inadequate to care for all Indian maternity cases, but he also pointed out that there is a large percentage of midwifery cases among white Canadians which are not taken care of in hospitals.

The department admits that tuberculosis is rampant among the Indian population of Canada, but pleads that the difficulty is to devise means of isolating the affected persons at a cost within the million-dollar appropriation which is voted annually by Parliament for the hospitalization and medical care of the Indians. The department has endeavored to co-operate with the Government in the general effort to keep down expenses.

Sanatorium treatment of the Indians is costly, and home isolation not very effective, the department's statement declared. A high official doubted that conditions were anything like as bad as portrayed by Rev. Dr. Osterhout, but admitted that hospital accommodation of the department is quite inadequate.

Joe Penner's boyhood ambition was to wander everywhere from one strange corner of the world to another as a jungle explorer. Now he does his adventuring on a mythical radio cannibal island—and is known as one of Hollywood's most domestic, home-loving husbands.

Gertrude Niesen is known as one of the foremost radio and screen exponents of that present-day attribute, glamour—yet three years in a row she baked the prize biscuits in a community cooking club at a Brooklyn High School.

Phil Spitalny, maestro of the largest all-giri radio orchestra, once waved a baton in Cleveland for the largest of male musical aggregations, numbering 220.

Gillette Shaves Time

The Gillette Original Community Sing, now established as the Sunday night "thing to do" in Hollywood, becomes a half-hour programme beginning April 25.

This schedule has been arranged for the summer so that the sponsor may obtain an earlier time for the Eastern airing, and re-broadcast at a later hour for the West Coast. As soon as the new time is cleared, the programme will be shifted.

The Community Sing, originally set for 13 weeks, attained popularity so rapidly that it is now heading for the 40 week mark and still augmenting its legions of sing-joiners.

The new time set-up will retain all the performers who have helped the Community Sing to its present popularity: Milton Berle, Jolly Gillette, Wendell Hall, Jones and Hare, and maestro Andy Samella.

Sheila Barrett on Kate Smith Show
Kate Smith had added Sheila Barrett in some of her newest satiric sketches to the highlights of this week's Bandwagon broadcast. Outstanding, also, will be Helen Menken's portrayal of dramatic moments in the life of "Empress Josephine" on the programme, Thursday, April 15, at 8 p.m., EST, over the WABC-CBS network.

Kate's solos will be augmented by selections with The Three Ambassadors, and also with the new choral group of 15.

Comedian Henry Youngman's clowning and Jack Miller's musical interludes round out the variety programme.

TELLS ALL

Prexy Jack Oakie's first college experience came when he donned the robes of Oakie College, the gay radio university whose students learn about Laughology and Melody every Tuesday at 9:30 p.m., EST, over the WABC-CBS network.

A letter recently came to Prexy Oakie from David P. Ferris, Yale undergraduate, who wants Oakie ideas for the enlightenment of old Eli. Ferris wrote, "Now that you've been fully acquainted with Yale through the Wifepoofs who sang on your programme recently, Yale would like to get acquainted with you through the Yale Daily News."

Here are the questions he asked—AND the answers!

Q. What do you believe should be the most important course at a fine university like Yale?

A. How to handle women.
Q. Is there any truth that you are going to start a college of your own, with Cantor, Wynn, Benny, etc., as professors?

A. What do you think we have here? A health club?
Q. How would you like to get your major "Y" at Yale?

A. Send it out, care of Oakie College. And I'll send you an "O."
Q. What's the main trouble with Universities these days?

A. They don't turn out enough good straight men.

Q. To what do you attribute the amazing success you have had with your present college?

A. Youth, vitality and a couple of good writers.

Q. Why is it that you have never

MICROPHONICS

Bing Crosby, of many distinctions and activities, is constantly beset by ambitions to conquer in new fields. For instance, the singing star yearns to be a tap-dancer and fairly idolizes Fred Astaire, Bill Robinson and other nimble-footed gentry. And the presiding genius of the Kraft Music Hall on NBC, not content with being Hollywood's ace golfer, has turned to tennis. He won't be happy until he becomes a champion on the courts.

Jack Pearl, NBC's Baron Munchausen, spends several minutes each day making faces at himself in the mirror. The practice is a heritage from his days as a comedian in burlesque where "mugging" is a prime requisite.

Side glimpses at Stuart Allen, tenor soloist with Richard Himber's Studebaker Champions on NBC: Began singing career as a church choir boy. . . . Attended New York Public School 83, the alma mater of Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie and Jackie Heller. . . . First radio appearance was as a guitarist when he teamed up with a violinist and the act flopped. . . . Once appeared in vaudeville with the Four Mortons and has a six-year-old son named Morton in their honor.

had football as one of your activities in the Oakie College?

A. If Oakie College isn't in the hands of the receivers by then, we'll give you plenty of football next fall.

Q. Do wine, women and song rule too much this modern day and age?

A. My motto is eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow there may be a law against it.

Remedies—Ask Your Doctor

There is one point, on which practically all doctors agree. That is: Don't give your child unknown remedies without asking your doctor first.

All mothers know this. But sometimes the instinct to save a few pennies by buying "something just as good" overcomes caution.

When it comes to the widely used children's remedy—"milk of magnesia"—many doctors for over half a century have said "PHILLIPS." For Phillips' Milk of Magnesia is the standard of the world. Safe for children.

Keep this in mind, and say "PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA" when you buy. Comes now, also in tablet form. Get the form you prefer. But see that what you get is labeled "Genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia." 25¢ for a big box of the tablets at drug stores.

ALSO IN TABLET FORM:
Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.
