The districts have some other industries however, making soaps, and manufacturing potash. Several printing presses are in operation turning out papers and periodicals in the Hebrew tongue, as well as many books of fine workmanship.

He explained that the potash industry is one of their greatest, since one quarter of the water of the Dead Sea is salt, and through evaporation, the product is made from these waters.

The proposed partition of the country is not received by either the Jews or Arabs, he stated, although the European Zionist Congress accepted the division.

Rev. W. A. Burge, Chairman of the Presbytery, presided at the meeting, at which a large attendance was present.

Rev. George Telford, M.A., B.D., conducted the devotional period last evening which opened the school.

Following the devotional period this afternoon Dr. J. W. Falconer addressed the school on the subject "Recent Studies in Parables," and Dr. Trevor Davis spoke on "What, How, and When to Read."

AMERICAN LEGIONNAIRES WILL BE THE GUESTS OF THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT

Alouette Club of Montreal Will Play In Europe

QUEBEC, Sept. 25—Additional color was lent to the sailing of the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Britain from this port recently when a group of American Legionnaires, most of them fresh from the hectic New York convention, embarked for France. The contingent of A.E.F. veterans some of them with their wives and children, formed a body 80 strong as they boarded the C. P. flagship, many in their smart blue and gold uniforms.

In little groups they gathered and chatted about the lively time they had just left in the American metropolis, their big feat apparently having been the commandeering of Times Square and the complete stoppage of traffic in that region for hours at a stretch.

Overseas the Legionnaires will be guests of the French government for six days, receiving rail transportation hotel accommodation, meals, trips about Paris and visits to the Paris exposition free of charge.

The vets will also visit the battlefields of France where they fought in the great war.

Another group sailed aboard the Empress, a French Canadian theatrical company, in charge of Joseph Cardinal, Montreal impresario who is taking his troupe to Switzerland, Belgium and France with the original play "La Terre Canadienne." The author of the piece, Henri Duclun, is co-starred with Fred Barry in the cast which comprised a number of well known French Canadian actors and actresses. The Alouette Quartet under Oscar Obrien too is travelling with the group.

10 ARTISTS WILL APPEAR IN F'TON COMING SEASON

Four Concerts Sponsored by Local Community Concert

Four musical concerts will be presented this year by the Community Concert Association, it was stated this morning by Mrs. A. P. Crocket, President of the local Association.

Ten artists will appear and these events coupled with several musical programs which have been planned by local associations will make this one of the most brilliant musical seasons that the city has known for some time. All concerts are scheduled to be put on in the Provincial Normal School auditorium and will begin at 8.15 p. m.

The Ionian Singer, a male quartet of international reputation, will open the season on November 29th. This quartet is made up of four men whose voice is of exceptional range and beauty and who have achieved a fine perfection ensemble which ranks them as an organization very high in a group of this kind. This concert is contemplated to be of great interest.

Muriel Kerr, one of Canada's greatest pianists was born in Regina, Sask. She studied several years under Ernest Hutchison in the Juillard School of Music in New York City and is now a member of that famous institution. Miss Kerr has appeared widely both in Canada and in the United States. She has been a soloist with all outstanding symphony orchestras on the continent. She will make her appearance in the city on February 21st. The local executive consider themselves fortunate in arranging for the appearance here of Dorothy Crawford, Murologist and dramatic actress. Miss Crawford has been booked solidly for seventeen weeks by her concert manager and is opening her season in San Francisco on January 3rd. She will appear in Fredericton on April 4th and early in May, after completing her American and Canadian tours she will tour to London, Eng., for a series of engagements. While in Fredericton under the auspices of the Fredericton Community Concert Association she will be heard in a program of character sketches and will be assisted by a concert pianist.

The final concert of the season will be given by Charles Hackett, Metropolitan Opera Tenor and Agnes Davis, soprano in a joint-operative recital in costumes. Both singers enjoy inter-
