for a short rehearsal before the actual show.His Worship Mayor G. Willard Kitchen and other city and provincial dignitaries are expected to be present, as well as a delegation from Saint John, which city was so enraptured with the program last week that a local program was put on the air over the Saint John station last evening, when 1,700 citizens of that city gathered in a public theatre to given vent with song to the feelings in their hearts.In speaking to The Daily Mail this morning, Mr. Young stated that he is "full of pep and vinegar" for tonight's show, which, he predicted, will be one of the best broadcasts ever presented in the series. "The citizens of Fredericton will raise the roof off the building with their singing," he prophesied.Thirteen song numbers will be presented tonight, in addition to the theme song "Heigh-Ho.""Tell your readers that if they are

The Cathedral Men's Club

An evening of song was the feature of the regular Tuesday evening meeting of the Cathedral Men's Club.
It is said that to be able to sing together is also to be able to work well together so it is one of the ambitions of the club to by practice sing well as a group. The song books obtained by the music committee were used for the first time and were appreciated. The committee had planned a special treat for the members in arranging for a visit of goodwill by nine members of the Fredericton Male Chorus, forming a double quartet. Several songs were rendered by the visitors in a manner which was highly appreciated by the members.
Those taking part were Messrs.
Pridham, Johnston, Beatty, Watson, MacKay, Wilson, Richards and Hay, with Mr. Everett as pianist. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the visitors. Mr. Davenport, Mr. Goodspeed and the members of the music committee led in another group of songs.In connection with the business section of the meeting fitting mention was made of the loss sustained by Mr. Gregg, a member of the club, in the death of his daughter and the sympathy of the members was extended to the bereaved parents.Mr. Morris read a letter from Sackville announcing the plans for the formation of a men's club in connection with the church there.
One of the active members in this movement was A. Hope who has twice visited and spoken to the Cathedral Men's Club. Mention was also made of a similar movement at Woodstock.Light refreshments, the reading of the scores made by individuals at the games were later features. Jack Fenety led in bridge and Geo. Howie in forty-fives. The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close another pleasant evening in the history of the club.

Enjoyable Evening

The weekly meeting of St. Dun-an entertainment, with C. Frederick Boyle, the president of the society, acting as master of ceremonies. This program was as follows: Pantomime, "A Lamp Went Out," by Misses Isabel Hughes, Catherine Cain, Beat-solo, "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," by Virginia," John Lynch; a lecture by Charles J. Mersereau to a class of rather unruly and disparaging pupils, and a recitation by Rev. A. C. Mc-Donald. Each of these numbers was rendered in a very creditable manner and several encores were given. The gathering then adjourned to the rooms downstairs, where dancing, games and sing-songs were indulged in, under the direction of Rev. Father McDonald. Thomas Thompson ren-

NOVEMBER

Chill winds, gray skies and leafless trees,
No garden flowers, no hum of bees; November!Pale sun, damp air and threat of rain, No fruit trees' wealth, no golden grain;
November!And yet there is a peace of mind About these days that we may find, November!We know we shall enjoy the spring,
So much the more, remembering,
November!
