

Dietrich Hurls No - Hit, No - Run Game Against St. Louis Browns

Moundsman Climbs To The Pinnacle of Fame

Humbles Browns 8 - 0
Giants Defeat the Dodgers 5-2

NEW YORK, June 1—Bespoke Bill Dietrich, whose major league career appeared at an end less than a year ago, reached the pinnacle of pitching fame today at Chicago with a sparkling no-hit, no-run masterpiece against St. Louis Browns.

While Dietrich was making useless the bats of the Browns, his attacking force batted southpaw Elton Hoggsett and Rus Van Atta for 10 hits and the run for an 8-0 triumph.

Dietrich, considered a highly promising youngster when Connie Mack brought him up to the Athletics in 1930, was obtained from Washington July 20 last year for the waiver price.

In becoming the first American League hurler to achieve pitching's most coveted prize since his teammate, Vernon Kennedy did it to Cleveland, Aug. 31, 1935, Dietrich permitted only three men to reach first base. After keeping the paths clean for five innings, he tottered momentarily, walking Rolfe Hemsley and Van Atta, with a doubleplay in between.

In the seventh, Beau Bell survived when third baseman Tony Piet, fumbled his grounder.

Cleveland made it three straight over Detroit today by rallying in the eighth inning to snatch a 4-3 victory at home from the luckless Tigers. The victory lifted the second-place Indians to within three games of New York Yankees.

Limited to one run, Lyn Lary's first four-bagger of the season, in seven innings, the Indians nicked Auker for four hits in the eighth and made three runs.

One Game Behind Now

NEW YORK, June 1—Hal Schumacher boosted the Giants within one game of the league-leading Pirates today by turning back Brooklyn Dodgers 5-2 here today.

The right-hander clamped down on the Dodgers with two exceptions. In the first inning Joe Stripp hit a line drive against the left-field scoreboard for a home run and in the ninth two singles and an infield out produced the last Brooklyn score. Schumacher retired the side on strikeouts in the sixth and seventh.

Roy Henshaw, pint-sized southpaw charged with the defeat, did well enough until the fifth. Up to that point he had allowed only one run, Burgess Whitehead's fourth homer of the year.

Johnny McCarthy scored the winners' final run in the eighth on his own single to right and hits by Whitehead and Bartell.

BASEBALL'S BIG SIX

While Gerald Walker of the Tigers went hitless against the Indians yesterday, Manager Joe Cronin, whose Boston Red Sox were idle, moved into first place in the American League batting race with a percentage of .381. Walker dropped 10 points to .379. With only the Giants and Dodgers active in the National League, there was no change among the three leaders.

The top three hitters in each league:
G A B R H P C
Medwick, Cardinals .36 134 32 55 410
Cronin, Red Sox .29 113 23 43 381
Vaughan, Pirates .35 140 23 53 379
Walker, Tigers .38 161 33 61 379
P. Waner, Pirates .35 138 30 52 377
Lary, Indians .33 146 31 55 377

HARNESS RACING TO BE REVIVED

Maine - N. B. Circuit to Open July 5

Horse racing fans in Maine and New Brunswick will hear with a great deal of pleasure that the old Maine and New Brunswick circuit of a few years ago has been reborn and that starting on July 5 at Houlton, Me., the circuit will give five weeks of horse racing.

People are taking more interest each year in the harness racing game, and with the present racing material now in training, a banner year of racing is being looked forward to by those interested in sponsoring the meets.

The present plans call for the circuit to open with a one-day meet at Houlton, Me., on Monday, July 5. Houlton will put on five classes, Woodstock follows with a two-day meet on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 13 and 14, with seven classes booked for the two days. Presque Isle will race the next week, putting on two days entertainment. The exact dates will be announced later.

The fourth week finds Fredericton having their first mid-summer race for some time. The dates are Wednesday and Thursday, July 28 and 29. This meet, no doubt, will be a corker, as the reputation of the Fredericton track for high-class horse racing is well known. The fifth and final week will see the return of the stables to Woodstock, on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 3 and 4.

Such stables as: Sullivan and Mahinney, Machias, Me.; S. A. Wathan & Son, Fort Fairfield; George W. Reed, Fort Fairfield; John Willard, Presque Isle; Earl Avery, Woodstock; Hedley T. Fulton, Upper Steviack, N. S.; George Dumont, Presque Isle; Cecil Alexander, Saint John; Johnny Conroy, Fredericton; and many of the smaller stables; will be seen on the Maine and New Brunswick circuit this year.

The men behind the meets will leave no stone unturned to give the racing fans the very best in horse racing. Some of the better known horses that will be seen are as follows:

Free-for-all: Laurel Hanover, 1.59 1/4; Zombro Hanover, 2.00 1/4; Calumet Calling, 2.04 3/4; Bud Wenger, 2.05 1/4, holder of the track records at Woodstock and Charlotte-town.

Junior Free-for-all: Lochinvar, 2.04 1/4; Mildred May, 2.05 1/4; Tracey Hanover, 2.03 1/4; Harkaway, 2.05 1/4; Betty S., 2.07; and Direct Meir, 2.06 1/4.

2.17 trot: High Toby, 2.00 3/4; Calumet Coburn, 2.09 1/4; Sequence, 2.10; John Dean, 2.10; Bobelwyn, 2.10; and Renown, 2.10 1/4.

All of the other classes have as many outstanding names too numerous to mention here.

It is to be hoped that all horse racing fans will patronize these meets this summer, and by so doing, racing can be put back on the high standing it once enjoyed before the depression.

The juniors are going to get their bleachers on Queen Square. With Alderman Crewdson boosting it, the motion went through the Council last night—complimentary tickets to Alderman Crewdson, please.

Bunny Austin has a big assignment for this year. He, never the steady player that Perry was, now has to step into the boots of the departed Perry. We hope that the boots are not too big.

Baron Von Cramm is the next stumbling block in the netted path of Don Budge. If, as we hope, the finals are played between England and United States, Bunny and Hare should be a fleet team for the Amerks to stop.

Mickey Cochrane, the "Iron Mike" of baseball is showing the stuff of which he is made. Danger is past, barring complications, and the Yanks will have their stellar backstop in the game again before the end of the season.

A new record set, Hubbell finally went through the ice. All good things must end, and we imagine that Hub gave a sigh of relief when the break finally came.

After the ridiculous licking at the hands of the Yanks, the Athletics look more natural.

T. O. M. Sopwith, the English challenger for the Old Mug, seems to be getting the bottom breaks. His craft will be repaired immediately, and we hope leaves the field in its spray.

Maxie Schmeling has apparently given up his Ghost Fight idea. He has signed a contract to appear on a radio programme at 8 p.m., next Thursday night.

P. S. This is just the hour at which he was supposed to appear at the Garden.

The Garden has a full set of prelims lined up, just in case Jimmy Braddock shows up for the fight.

Goes to Sackville

MONTREAL, June 1—Doug MacQuisten, veteran left wing star of the Montreal Royals though still a youngster and a member of Montreal Senior Group hockey coaches' all-star team last season, has been transferred by his firm to Sackville, N. B.

ANNUAL ENGLISH DERBY AT EPSOM

EPSOM, June 2—The vanguard of the hundreds of thousands who will watch today's 158th running of the Derby, greatest of England's racing classics, camped on the rolling Surrey Downs and crowded countryside hostilities tonight as 21 of the world's finest three-year-olds awaited the call to the starting post.

And across the broad acres the strident voice of the "wonder lady of the North," aided by a loudspeaker, could be heard blaring that for a shilling she would give the winner of the big race. A spirited woman of uncertain age, she declared she had picked the last three Derby winners, and her lungs, assisted by her magic horn, afforded her such volume that nobody tried to dispute her word.

An investment of a shilling disclosed that she, like the public at large, thought Lord Astor's Cash Book was the best bet. Odds on the colt shortened throughout the day, during the opening program of the Epsom meet, after word spread that he had looked like a word-beater in his final work-out this morning.

In the final call over of odds at London tonight Cash Book was at 7 to 1.

Saint John Will Have Pro. Baseball Club

Hanson Leaves For Boston For Recruits

SAINT JOHN, June 2—Armed with credentials from leading citizens of this city, Ray Hansen, St. Peter's star hurler of the days when that club was going places as an independent team, leaves tonight for Boston in an attempt to bring the Boston Red Sox or Boston Bees here on an open date.

Either Red Sox or Bees or both will play the Saint John professional baseball team, provided Mr. Hansen can do business with the front offices of both major league clubs.

The main purpose of his leaving tonight, Mr. Hansen stated last night is to line up the Saint John pro team of which he will be manager, in and near Boston, which will be composed of all young players. He will seek the assistance of former players or officials of the Quincy, Auburn and South Boston clubs of the Boston Twilight League of 1922 in an endeavor to get players on his roster.

The three clubs mentioned were among the several from the Boston Twilight League, whom St. Peter's played back in 1922 and 1923. Some of the players of those teams later went to the big leagues for tryouts and a few of them made the grade. Others hit the minors. Hansen himself went to Toronto Leafs. His battery-mate, Joe Dever, turned down a chance to go to the Leafs.

Personal Calls to Players
Yesterday Mr. Hansen made personal long-distance telephone calls to players residing near Boston and they are awaiting his arrival in the Hub to sign.

If he is successful in bringing the Red Sox or Bees to Saint John the effort will be a community one behind this endeavor. He will carry with him tonight letters from Mayor MacLaren and other leading citizens who have every confidence in Ray as an honest and trustworthy representative of goodwill from Saint John.

The Shamrock Park officials, Michael Howard and Frank McShane who are promoting the effort to put pro ball back again in this city, are having the diamond at Shamrock rescreened and redressed and the holes in the outfield filled, so that a first class park will be at the disposal of the local club on its arrival here. The Saint John club will open against an outside team here on the next holiday, June 9, in a double-header.

It was learned that there is a possibility of having another entrance to Shamrock from Metcalfe Street to relieve the congestion at the Lansdowne Avenue entrance.

When the team is fielded here Mr. Hansen proposed to have the team get away sharp on time on playing dates. He stated that each team will have ten minutes to warm up before the game, if in the afternoon, starting at 2:40, and that the game will get under way at 3 o'clock sharp. If at night the teams will start practice at 6:40 with the game to start on the dot of 7.

It is expected that a parade of the local players in cars or bus accompanied by a band, will be held on the night of June 8, and that the players will also parade to the park on the afternoon of June 9 for the first game of the doubleheader.

Out of Game

NEW YORK, June 1—John (Buddy) Hassett, clouting first baseman of Brooklyn Dodgers, will be out of the game for several weeks as a result of a wrist injury suffered in the first game of yesterday's doubleheader with New York Giants. Hassett was struck on the left wrist by one of Carl Hubbell's pitches.

Comeback

NEW YORK, June 1—"Kid" Chocolate, former world's featherweight champion, who has been making a successful comeback in the smaller New York fight clubs, gets another fling on the main circuit tomorrow night when he goes against Al Reid, promising West Side battler, in a 16-rounder in the New York Hippodrome.

DIARRHOEA SOUL STOMACH GAS CRAMPS

There can be no question as to the supremacy of Nerviline for these disorders; it acts promptly, even twenty drops of Nerviline in sweetened water gives immediate relief.

Too Ill to Leave Home
Restored Quickly by Nerviline

Mr. A. E. Archer of Chelsea, writes: "As a boy I was accustomed to take Nerviline for pains in my stomach but never realized its true value until this summer. I had an attack of diarrhoea and was so bad I couldn't leave the house. I sent for a bottle of Nerviline and took a dose every hour during the morning. It restored me quickly. I use Nerviline now as a preventive of summer complaint and it works satisfactorily. My wife also has derived very special results in stomach trouble from Nerviline which I recommended highly."

NERVILINE
SURE RELIEF

"It makes a man think," SAID MR. PICOBAC

"Well," remarked Les, proprietor of the leading two-chair barber shop of Essex Centre as Mr. Picobac walked in, "did you hear the Coronation Broadcast?"
"I certainly did," replied Mr. Picobac, exhaling a fragrant cloud of smoke as he took a luxurious seat in one of the two chairs. "And I wouldn't have missed it for worlds. I tell you it makes a man think."
"And what does it make you think?" asked Les, removing Mr. Picobac's pipe and laying it on the shelf under the mirror.
"Well, it makes me think how proud I am to be British . . . to be born a subject of the British Crown. And what's more, we are the most democratic people in the whole wide world and we've got the most democratic king. God Save The King!"
"Hear, hear," said Les, tucking in the towel.
Mr. Picobac chuckled. Then realizing that shaving operations had interrupted a mild . . . cool . . . sweet Picobac smoke, he stiffened to attention.
"Give me a quick one, Les," commanded he. "I've got important business down street this morning."
