N. S. THEOLOGISTS SPEAK IN LOCAL CHURCHES SUN.

Good Attendance Heard Noted Lecturers; Theology School Opens Tonight

Several of the local churches yesterday featured guest services conducted by the several clergymen now in this city in connection with the School of Theology, which will open tonight. Rev. Dr. J. W. Faulkner and Rev. W. G. Watson, D.D., of the Pine Hill College, Halifax, and Rev. Dr. Trevor Davis of Toronto were the guest speakers.

The school, which will be held in the Fraser Memorial Hall, will continue until Friday, Oct. 1. A large attendance of ministers from the surrounding districts is expected.

At the Gibson Memorial United Church of Canada, Rev. Dr. Watson spoke at the evening service. Rev. W. A. Burge, minister of the church, and chairman of the Theological School, conducted the service. Dr. Watson also conducted the morning service and a service at 3 p.m. at Nashwaakasis.

Rev. Dr. Watson and Rev. Dr. Davis were guest speakers in the Wilnot Church in the morning and evening respectively. Both services were well attended. Rev. J. W. Bartlett, D.D., was in charge of the service.

In St. Paul's church, Rev. George Telford conducted the services, while Rev. Dr. Davis spoke in the morning service and Rev. Dr. J. W. Faulkner spoke in the evening.

Services were conducted in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. by Rev. George E. Ross, D.D. A large congregation was present at both services.

The three regular services were conducted in Christchurch Cathedral yesterday, the 18th Sunday after Trinity, by Very Rev. Dean W. H. Moorhead, while in the Brunswick Street Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Faulkner was guest speaker in the morning service. Rev. Gerald W. Guion conducted the evening worship.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Pretty Home Wedding On Saturday Evening

Kitchen—Chapman

The spacious and beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Chapman on Woodstock Road was on Saturday evening the scene of an interesting event when their eldest daughter, Audrey Mary Louise, became the bride of George Herbert Kitchen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Albert Kitchen also of this city. The ceremony was performed at 6.30 o'clock with Rev. George Telford officiating assisted by Rev. Eugene Chapman, great uncle of the bride.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Geraldine Chapman and the bridesmaid was supported by Ralph Freeze student at law of Saint John.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was beautifully gowned in Maggy Rouff model of ivory bridal satin. The bodice was made with the new square V neckline and finished off with novelty corded twist.

The sleeves had the new boxed fullness at the shoulders and were fitted snugly from the elbow falling in points over the hands, the skirt ending in a long sweeping train. Her long filmy veil reaching far beyond the train was of halo pleated tulle and was fastened with a wreath of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of briar cliff roses centred with lily of the valley and tied with a soft bow of bridal chiffon and silver lace ribbon forming a shower of rosebuds and lilies.

The bridesmaid was in a dress of Barry rose taffeta, a Maggy Rouff model, made on lines similar to those of the brides dress with the exception that the sleeves were full, of elbow length and finished with corded twisted material of matching shade. The bodice had the new long waistline, a cording finishing where the full skirt was attached. She wore a halo of braided material to match the dress blue slippers and she carried an old fashioned colonial bouquet of tiny pink roses, lily of the valley tied with chamomile chiffon, the silver lace holder being pink to match her gown. The bride's mother wore a Persian blue coryse V necked princess line gown with a short train and waist line jacket, long sash of solid material and she carried pink roses. The bridegroom's mother was in an Alford model of fuchsia French chiffon with blue astors, waist line jacket and a long blue girdle finished the gown. She wore a fuchsia velvet hat.

Following the ceremony a reception took place about seventy-five guests being present. The beautiful oval shaped diningroom in blue velvet and gold embossed tapestry was lighted with wall lights that were fastened by huge white mums tied with large bows of gold ribbon. The bride's table was surmounted with a bridal shower of white ribbons tied with sweetheart rosebuds that extended from the chandelier to the table. The wedding cake was surrounded with white tulle billowed over the table and dotted here and there with sweet heart roses and tiny silver bows of ribbon. The ivory tapers at each end of the table in silver candelabra were fastened with butterfly bows of tulle. Mrs. Walter MacKay, Mrs. B. J. Ross, Mrs. F. E. MacDiarmid, Miss Emma Poynter, Miss Ethyl Gorman, Miss Marguerite Hawkins, Miss Joyce Kelly, Miss Millicent Ramsay, Miss Marguerite Doran and Miss Mildred Brewer assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen later left on a wedding trip to Boston and New York, following which they will reside in Kingston, Ont. The bride travelled in a green suit of heavy Brier cloth made with a tuxedo collar of beaver and brown hat and accessories to match. Out of town guests included Mrs. W. S. Chapman, Mrs. Eugene Kitchen of Salisbury, N. B.; Mrs. D. C. Lockhart, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robbins, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilmore, Hampton; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Berry, Edmundston; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. J. D'Orsay, Moncton; Herbert Colwell, Miss Helen Colwell, Houlton, Maine; Miss Marjorie Chown, Saint John; and Mr. and Mrs. W. Fox of Gagetown and Mr. and Mrs. Herbin of Saint John.

The floral decorations were the work of Bebbington's Gardens.

Prospects Are Good For Our Potatoes In the U. S. Market

The sale of Canadian seed and table potato stock in the United States is directly dependent on the domestic production, and is independent of imports from elsewhere, or of exports, writes R. G. C. Smith, Assistant Canadian Trade Commissioner in New York City. Imports of certified seed potatoes from Canada in 1936 amounted to 729,218 bushels as against 111,061 bushels in 1935, and imports of table stock in the same period totalled 469,976 bushels as against 237,491 bushels in the preceding year.

Africa the bilingualism of the country was noticeable according to the journalists ways of thinking. There were the true British who still long for England and all that is English. The African element does not long for Holland nor England. They are loyal to the British crown but it rather emanates from a feeling of security due to protection from the British Government. There was no depression noted in any country visited. Johannesburg and Kimberley were booming and in fact all countries visited after having each one just past through a very severe depression were apparently thriving and economically and on the uptrend.

Miss McKaughan expects to be leaving in the near future for Montreal where she will spend some time prior to returning to Honolulu.

VISIONS

When in the blue dusk of a summer night
I watch God's largess on His silver stars,
Sometimes, it seems, the adamantine bars
Fall from the tall gates of the Infinite;
And Time stands waiting. Then I seem to hear,
As one who listens from a lonely height
To waters breaking on an unknown sea,
The strong pulse of the world-heart throbbing near;
The mists roll back, and for a space stand clear
The great white windows of eternity.

TRY FASTER WAY TO RELIEVE A COLD

1. Take 2 Aspirin tablets.

2. Drink full glass of water. Repeat treatment in 2 hours.

3. If throat is sore, crush and stir 3 Aspirin tablets in a third of a glass of water and gargle. This eases the soreness in your throat almost instantly.

Discovery Bringing

Almost Instant Relief to Millions

Follow Simple Directions:

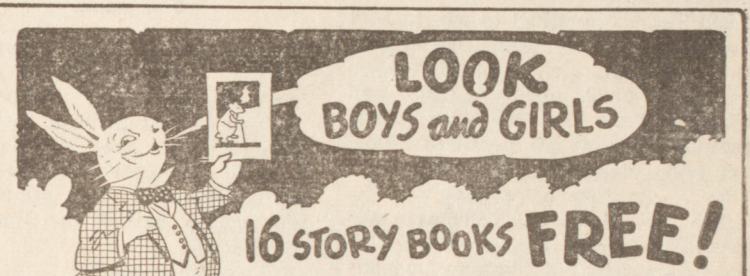

When you have a cold, remember the simple treatment pictured here . . . prescribed by doctors as the quick, safe way.

Results are amazing. Ache and distress go immediately. Because of Aspirin's quick-disintegrating property, Aspirin "takes hold"—almost instantly. Your cold is relieved "quick as you caught it!"

All you do is take Aspirin and drink plenty of water. Do this every 2 to 4 hours the first day—less often afterward . . . if throat is sore, the Aspirin gargle will ease it in as little as 2 minutes.

Ask your doctor about this. And be sure you get ASPIRIN when you buy. It is made in Canada and all druggists have it. Look for the name Bayer in the form of a cross on every Aspirin tablet. Aspirin is the trade mark of the Dayer Company, Limited.
