Will Attend Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pelletier, of St. Anne de la Pocatiere, Quebec, have arrived in the city to attend the Reynolds-Cremien wedding which takes place at nine o'clock tomorrow morning at St. Dunstan's Church. Mr. and Mrs. Pelletier are guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Charles Cremien.

Service at Jail

Yesterday afternoon members of the Fredericton Y.C.T.U. visited the jail and held a service. The service was conducted by Adjutant Hargrove. The singing was led by Mrs. Hargrove and was enjoyed by all.

Will Visit Relatives

Mrs. B. N. Ross is leaving today for Woodstock, N. B., where she will spend a few days with her father A. W. DeLong. While away Mrs. Ross will visit friends at Andover, N. B., and Port Fairfield, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dolphin of Marysville spent the week-end at their summer cottage at Grand Lake. They were accompanied home last evening by Hugh O'Neill Sr. and Miss Martha O'Neill who also spent the summer at the Lake. Friends will be pleased to hear that the condition of Mr. O'Neill is most encouraging.

For Brides-Elect

Mrs. A. F. Baird, leader of the "Ants," one of the original C.G.I.T. groups of St. Paul's Church, entertained the members at a Literary Luncheon Saturday in honor of two of the group, Miss A. Sypher and Miss Audrey Young, who are to be brides in the near future. The menu was unusual and interesting and the game of "Reminiscing" was played between the courses. The table was prettily decorated with cut flowers and school day favors were a unique feature. The brides-elect were each presented with a gift by the hostess and a sing-song brought a most delightful gathering to a close.

Week-End Here

Harry Garvie formerly of the staff of The Daily Mail in the city, and row of Saint John was a week-end visitor in the capital and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Garvie. He was accompanied by his sister Miss Dora Garvie of Bangor, Me., who has been his guest recently in Saint John and also Charles Milligan, newspaperman of Saint John.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McDonough, Fredericton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Kathleen, to Alfred John Feeley of Fredericton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Feeley, Harvey Station. The marriage will take place in October.

Quinn-Stewart

The marriage of Miss Charlotte Ann Stewart, daughter of D. A. Stewart, former Minister of Public Works and Mrs. Stewart of Campbellton to J. Harold Quinn, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Quinn, Westmount, Que., took place on Saturday at Loyola College Montreal, with Rev. Father McCarthy, rector of Loyola College officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. John Stewart of Montreal. The bridegroom was supported by his brother, Patrick Quinn. Prior to her marriage the bride was an honor guest at many social functions at her home in Campbellton. Mr. and Mrs. Quinn will reside in Montreal.

FORMER FREDERICTON YOUNG MAN RECENTLY MARRIED

The marriage of Miss Angela Mary Quinn, of Moncton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen O. Quinn, of Ottawa, Ont., to Edward Brunett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Goodspeed, of Fredericton, took place in Moncton on Monday, September 13th. The bride wore a brown flannel swaggar suit and brown velvet hat with accessories to match, and a shoulder bouquet of Talisman roses and lilies-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Violet Catharine Quinn, of Moncton, who wore a bottle green crepe dress and black accessories with a shoulder corsage of gladioli. H. E. Seeley, of Ottawa, was best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. S. Wilkin-son.

After the reception at Salon "B" of the Mount Royal Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Goodspeed left for a trip through the Eastern States and the Maritimes. They will take up residence at Ottawa. The bride and bridegroom are to spend a few days in this city with the bridegroom's parents, Sheriff and Mrs. C. S. Goodspeed. Mr. Goodspeed holds a responsible position with the Bell Telephone Company. He was graduated in electrical engineering from the U.N.B. in the class of 1929. During his college career he was very popular and took an active interest in college affairs.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. B. R. Ross was hostess at a delightful evening on Saturday in honor of Miss Audrey Chapman, a bride-elect. Quantities of early autumn flowers were used throughout the rooms. Mrs. George Chapman, mother of the bride-elect presided over the tea-cups and Miss Geraldine Chapman and Miss Polly Brown served. Miss Chapman received a shower of beautiful gifts of crystal and the lucky prize was won by Miss Esther Gorman.

CHURCH SERVICES YESTERDAY WERE WELL ATTENDED

Rev. Frank Baird, Former Moderator, Was At St. Andrew's Church

The different church services yesterday were well attended. Included in the congregations were a number of strangers including University students and visitors to the Exhibition. An increased attendance was noticed following the summer vacation period.

A feature of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church last evening was that the sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Frank Baird.

Rev. Frank Baird, M.A., D.D., officiated at the evening service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church yesterday. The morning service was conducted by Rev. George E. Ross, D.D. Dr. Baird who is a graduate of the class of 1895 of the University of New Brunswick was for some years Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly. He is the author of "Roger Davis, Loyalist," "Robert McNab" and several other publications. Rev. Dr. Baird is the guest of his sister Mrs. C. C. Jones and Dr. Jones at their residence at U.N.B.

At Christchurch Cathedral yesterday Rev. Dr. J. W. Holmes, former Dean of the Cathedral conducted both services in the absence of Rev. Dean W. H. Moorhead who is confined to his home with a heavy cold.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Bartlett conducted the regular services in Wilmot church yesterday, at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. In the morning he took as his theme, "The Lure of the Unfinished," while in the evening he spoke on "The Destructive Influences of Life."

Regular services were conducted at the Brunswick Street Baptist Church yesterday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Rev. Gerald W. Guion officiating. In the morning he delivered the third of a series of sermon entitled "Bridging the Gap" dealing with the church and the world. In the evening his theme was "Who Then is Willing?" Services at George Street Baptist church were well attended yesterday. Rev. John Linton officiated at 11 a.m. and again at 7 p.m. In the morning he took as his text "Behold I Make Old Things New," and in the evening he spoke on Christian Experience.

Sunday School of the Air Rev. Dr. Bartlett presided at the service, while Rev. John Linton spoke to the children. Rev. P. J. Trafton led prayer, and the Golden Rule Text was discussed by Rev. P. J. Trafton. Rev. Gerald W. Guion discussed the lesson. Music was in charge of Miss Gertrude Davis.

Rev. George Telford, pastor of St. Paul's United Church, announced yesterday that a school of theology will be held here in Fraser Memorial Hall, beginning a week from today, and continuing until the following Friday, and that the lecturers will be members of the faculty of Pine Hill Divinity College at Halifax. A week from yesterday the four faculty members will preach from Fredericton pulpits and in others of the nearby districts. An announcement will be made later in the week designating the churches in which they will preach in this part of the province. Mr. Telford said. Lectures will be given in the mornings and afternoons during the week, and again in the evenings on popular subjects.

The public will be invited to attend all sessions. Ministers will attend from the Fredericton, Woodstock, St. John and St. Stephen presbyteries. The exact number will not be known until the first of next week.

Current development of theology will feature the lectures in the morn-

For an Early Morning Headache—DO THIS

IN 2 SECONDS BY STOP WATCH

An "ASPIRIN" Tablet Starts

to Disintegrate

and Go to Work

Drop an "Aspirin" tablet into a glass of water.

By the time it hits the bottom of the glass it is disintegrating.

"Aspirin" tablets start "taking hold" of pain a few minutes after taking.

What happens in this glass happens in your stomach

Enjoy Relief Before You've Finished Dressing

If you wake up with a headache, just do this: Try two quick-acting, quick-dissolving "ASPIRIN" tablets with a little water. Take them the moment you get up — before you start dressing.

By the time you've finished dressing, nine chances in ten, you'll feel relief coming. You'll meet the day with a clear head instead of suffering for hours.

"Aspirin" provides this quick relief because it is rated among the quickest methods for relief science has yet discovered. And — because "ASPIRIN" tablets are ready to start working almost the instant you take them. (Note illustration.) So, next early morning headache you have, try this way.

• "Aspirin" tablets are made in Canada. "Aspirin" is the registered trade-mark of the Bayer Company, Limited, of Windsor, Ontario. Look for the name Bayer in the form of a cross on every tablet.

Initiation begins

The initiation of the freshmen, an annual feature of the opening of the University, began this morning, and will continue for two weeks. The initiation of the ladies is under the direction of Miss Mary Neville, president of the sophomore ladies, while Pat Holden, president of the sophomore men, will yield the biggest baton against the "green as grass" freshmen.
