SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Miss Alice Kitchen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kitchen, has arrived home from Acadia University, where she is a first-year student.

James R. Fowler will spend Christmas in Sackville with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Roy Fowler.

Christmas Party for Children

The Christmas tree party sponsored by Fredericton Council of the Knights of Columbus for the children of St. Dunstan's parish was held last evening in St. Dunstan's Hall, and was a huge success in every particular. Music appropriate to the occasion was rendered by a local orchestra, their own arrangement of "Silent Night" being one of the highlights of this part of the program. A movie, of which the children voiced hearty approval, was shown by Edward J. Carten. With Fred Boyle acting as master of ceremonies, the following program was put on: Song, "Jolly Old St. Nicholas," grades I and II of St. Dunstan's School; song, "Six Little Mice," by six boys of the same department; solo, "Silent Night," Miss Gilberte Dolron of Grade II. Miss Cecil Gallagher's class of grades II and III presented the following: song, "Santa Was Good to Me," recitation, Margaret Rowney; songs, "Up in Santa Land" and "The Christmas Bells" and tap dancing by four little Brownies, Pauline Carten, Sarah Ann Swift, Patricia O'Donnell and Helen George. The balance of the program consisted of a mouth organ solo by Denis McSorley, guitar selections by Mary D'Amour and Holland McSorley, tap dancing by Jeanette Allain, a recitation by eight boys of grade IV, recitation by Buddy Wolfe, and a short play by John A. Barry and Ronald McAlinden. Santa Claus then appeared and, with the assistance of his secretary, William Simcock, read the letters from the children and dis-

Miss Edith Creed, who has been teaching for the past year at Croom Road, has returned home to spend the holiday season with her mother, Mrs. C. S. Creed.

Clifford Vail, son of Mr. and Mrs. Water Vail, has returned home from Rotheray Collegiate School where he is a student, and will spend the holiday season with his parents.

Brownie Get Together at St. Dunstan's Hall

This afternoon at St. Dunstan's Hall the Brownies and their leader will hold a Christmas get together. The program will begin with the Brownie Circle and the first period will consist of the usual work which has been carried on during the term. Brownie games will be enjoyed by the children and from a brilliantly illuminated Christmas tree every Brownie will receive a chocolate. Santa, ice cream and cake will be served. Especially invited guests include the Rt. Hon. the Countess of Ashburnham, Miss Nan Kelly, Mrs. J. L. Neville, Mrs. Cedric Cooper, Mrs. C. H. Grey, Mrs. George E. Howie, Miss Molly Perry, Miss Cecil Gallagher, Miss Martha O'Neill, Mrs. Harry Crotty, Mrs. T. V. Monahan, Miss Mary Neville, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Jack Swift and others. The program is in charge of Brown Owl Mrs. M. Tweedie, Brown Owl Washington and Brown Owl Neill. The hall is decorated with the ordinary Christmas decorations.

tributed the gifts. The beautiful decorations on the tree and throughout the hall were the work of the members of the Knights of Columbus, under the direction of Joseph O'Hara and Joseph Dobbels, and a large number of the members were present to assist in various capacities.

Last Rites Of Late Mrs. Mary Horncastle Held This Afternoon

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Horncastle, which took place this afternoon, was largely attended. The many beautiful floral tributes evidenced the high esteem in which the deceased was held by her many friends.

Following prayers at the home, 47 Saunders Street, at 2:10 a.m., the service was conducted at Christ Church Parish Church at 2:30 by Ven. Archdeacon S. C. Gray. The church choir officiated in the musical portion of the ceremony. Following the service the lengthy cortege proceeded to St. Mary's cemetery, in New Maryland, where interment was made in the family plot.

Mourners were Rankine Horncastle, William Horncastle, Allen Horncastle, Hilton Horncastle, Percy Horncastle, Royden, Hazen, Randolph, Lawrence, Donald, Carl, Harold, Gayden and Reginald Horncastle, Edward Simmonds, Harry Charters, Robert Charters, William Charters, Daniel Charters, Joseph Charters, Martin Horncastle, Guy Horncastle, Frank Horncastle, Ernest Horncastle, Stanley Horncastle, Walter Horncastle, John McMurtrie, Henry McMurtrie, William McMurtrie, Earl McMurtrie, and Fred Bishop.

Pallbearers were Rankine Horncastle, William Horncastle, Allen Horncastle, Hilton Horncastle, Percy L. Horncastle and Fred Bishop.

CARS DAMAGED IN CRASH

Considerable damage was done both vehicles when the cars driven by Reid VanDine and Kenneth Moore of this city, came together at the intersection of Brunswick and Church streets shortly after 11 o'clock last evening. The Moore car was proceeding on Brunswick street, while the other was travelling on Church street when the accident occurred. Neither driver was injured. The VanDine car had to be left in an adjoining yard for the time, not being able to proceed under its own power, while the other was moved from the scene by a wrecking truck.

TWO STILL ALARMS

The Fire Dept. answered two still alarms early this morning, one being an overheated pipe and the other a chimney fire. The first call came in at 8 o'clock from Lannan's Restaurant where a chimney fire was in progress, while the other came in 10 minutes later from the Royal Stores on York street, where an overheated pipe caused considerable alarm. No damage was done in either case.

ELKS TO SUPPLY SKIS, SLEDS

The local Elks Club plans a novel Christmas program for unfortunate children in that about fifty needy boys and girls will be taken for a sleigh ride on the day after Christmas, and afterwards entertained at a Christmas party in the Elks Home. The program will feature a Christmas tree, and each of the children will be presented with either skis or a sled, each bearing their name.
