

MANITOBA GUARDS THE INVESTING PUBLIC

Amendments Made to Securities Act Before Prorogation

WINNIPEG, April 21—Protection for the investing public is provided in amendments to the Manitoba Securities Act given third reading Saturday before the first session of the 20th Legislature was prorogued by Lieut.-Governor W. J. Tupper.

The amendments provide that auditors of brokerage houses in the Province be required to report to the Winnipeg Stock Exchange auditor on all their findings. The Exchange auditor will submit his information to the Exchange's governing body which is empowered to require any brokerage person or company to change book-keeping methods in the public interest.

The amendments also empowered the Public Utility Board to make audits of brokerage books without notice, and the board may order suspension of trading in any one security or class of securities.

Bracken's Control Slim
Support of the Social Credit group of five in the house of 55 members enabled the Liberal-Progressive Government of Premier John Bracken, functioning without a clear majority, to carry on through the session, opened February 18.

The Government held only 23 seats, but was supported generally by two Independents, H. H. Wright, Emerson, and Oddun Olafson, Rupert's Land. Fifteen Conservatives, seven Co-Operative Commonwealth Federation members, a Communist and two other Independents, L. St. G. Stubbs, Winnipeg, and H. T. Lewis, Rockwood, completed the House.

Mr. Lewis originally sat as a Conservative but moved to the Independent benches after disagreeing April 1 with a motion of Conservative leader Erick Willis to slash 1937-38 expenditures by $800,000. The motion was defeated on 37 to 8 division.

Major test of strength came on Mr. Stubbs' motion to abolish the two per cent. wage tax established in 1933. The Social Credit members and Mr. Wright and Mr. Olafson voted with the Government to defeat the motion 29 to 25. The tax provides $1,700,000 revenue annually.

Increased wage tax exemptions estimated to affect 30,000 persons and decrease the revenue by $400,000 are provided in the budget of Provincial Treasurer Garson. Married persons' exemptions remain at $1,200, but an extra exemption of $200 is allowed for each child or other dependent. Exemption for single persons is increased from $480 to $600.

Mr. Garson budgeted for a $472,775 deficit for the fiscal year ending April 30, 1938, but the special Dominion Government grant of $750,000 more than offset this amount.

The Government was instructed on motion of S. J. Farmer, C.C.F. Leader, to study possibilities of Mr. Farmer's suggestions for revenue to replace the wage tax. The Winnipeg member proposed graduated increases in general income tax rates, a special tax on interest and a direct tax on retail turnover.

Attorney-General Major said the proposed taxes on interest and on turnover would probably be unconstitutional.

Tax Change Impending
A new act provides for collection of the provincial income tax by the Dominion on behalf of the province to start next year. Mr. Carson announced that negotiations are continuing toward having the Dominion take over wage tax collections.

Establishment of an economic survey board to study all phases of economic and social life in Manitoba was authorized.

Reorganization of the Department of Education is provided in a measure sponsored by Education Minister Schultz. The bill removes arbitrary powers of the Department's advisory board and gives the Minister control of all educational policy subject to conditions.

A committee was set up to investigate charges of Major-Gen. H. D. B. Ketchen (Cons., Winnipeg) that Manitoba educators have profited by serving on committees authorizing text books they have written or edited themselves.

A measure sponsored by Agriculture Minister Campbell provides for co-operative associations called credit unions for use of those to whom money-lending services of commercial banks are not available.

Labor legislation provides for conciliation in labor disputes and gives employees the right to organize and to bargain collectively with their employers.

Motion of Mr. Stubbs charging "discrimination" by the Government in imposing a tax of five cents a bottle on imported beer was rejected. The House adopted on 44-4 division an amendment criticizing the practice of provinces imposing obstacles to inter-provincial trade and urging continuation of efforts to abolish such barriers.

Insurance Act amendments prohibit automobile insurance companies from issuing group policies except to firms with fleets of cars.
