Another in the series of meetings was held last evening by the Oxford Group. This Group is becoming nore and more important in the act vities of Fredericton. It is not a new eligion, but a stronger belief which brings people into more closer and friendlier contact with the Church. No one person belongs to the Oxford Group, but it is meant for all of ny society, and it brings the people more religious and friendlier association with one another. Many people of Fredericton belong to this Group and many more are joining each day.
