CANADIANA SYMPOSIUM

Flicking a cigarette, and drinking beer,
Me muse a while upon this hemisphere, Note how the just have died, the rogue survives Like the striped alley-cat with many lives;

Jest over politics in mocking vein;
Follow the battle-cry to tortured Spain;
Pour a new beaker, hold it to the light, Take a new breath, and talk into the night.

Thus we regard each problem we have met,
Coolly dismiss it with a cigarette.
Fill the tall glass with frothiness a while,
Toast the long past, reveal the farther mile—
All of a summer evening we rehearse Enigmas that perplex our universe.

—Marguerite Janvrin Adams.

Given Colorful Greeting
CALGARY, July 9—The Governor-General and Lady Tweedsmuir came here today for their first visit to the famous Calgary Stampede and were greeted at the station by Mayor Andrew Davison and a following of gaily-dressed cowboys and eagle-plumed Indians. Their Excellencies had a busy day. They received the Mayor and Mrs. Davison informally with little more than an hour of their arrival and went almost immediately thereafter to the children's show of the stampede. During the afternoon His Excellency faced a blistering sun as he watched the plainsmen and the foothills Indians compete in the semi-finals of the bronco and wild-steer riding events, the calf-roping and steer-decorating

EEL FISHING

in obtaining enough small fry for bait.

In speaking of eel fishing on the St. John River years ago, Chief Engineer John J. Malloy of the Fredericton City pumping station states that there are more eels in the river now than there were taken. He described a sight which he last saw in the river ten years ago—one of the great migrations of small eels which ascend the river every few summers. Usually the migrations take place in July. The river is swarming with small eels, millions of them, swimming up river against the powerful current. They swim up river, but where they finally go no one knows.

MAMMOTH

long before it does happen. This country is young. We must build it up with British people, or those from Central Europe. The 3,000 Orange lodges from Atlantic to Pacific are struggling to hold this country British land to cherish the freedom which was gained for you, irrespective of your religion, at the Battle of the Boerne.

Dealing with criticisms often levelled at the order, Mr. Tait continued "It is often said that the order is opposed to the Roman Catholics, because it opposes separate schools. We oppose separate schools because it does not tend to unity. If we bring up part of our children separated from the others, what is going to happen? Are they not going to grow up to be suspicious of one another and work apart? Roman Catholic and Protestant should both work and play together. They should be friends and have things in common. They should work together for the upbuilding of Canada. Many of my best friends were made in public schools, and were Roman Catholics.
We are both Canadian, irrespective of our religion."

"Another criticism often heard is that we are opposed to the French.
We are not opposed to the French language in this country, but we are opposed to its being made the official language."

National Anthem
Mr. Tait then referred to the supplanting of the National Anthem by "Oh Canada." "God Save the King" is the national anthem of Canada, he declared. "When we sing it our vision is carried out across the ocean, and the wealth of tradition makes our blood tingle. But when we sing 'Oh Canada' our vision is narrowed, and we think of Canada alone. A national spirit is being developed in Canada, instead of an imperial one.
Remember that you are British. Remember that there are forces in Canada that would sing Canada away from British connections."

AUTO-RAILER CAR FOR ROAD AND RAIL USED BY C. N. R.

(Special to The Daily Mail) MONTREAL, July 13—An "auto-railer", an new type of automotive vehicle which directly links up railway and highway, being adapted for use on either road or rail, was operated for the first time in Canada yesterday, when a party including His Worship Adair Raynault, mayor of Montreal, and a number of other distinguished guests and newspaper men travelled over the highway to Lachine, a suburb fifteen miles from Montreal, and returned over the Canadian National railways line to Bonaventure Station. S. J. Hungerford, chairman, and president of the national system, and a number of other railway officials accompanied the party. The start was made from in front of the city hall, where Mayor Raynault inspected the new passenger car and congratulated Mr.
Hungerford on being the first to introduce this new development in railroading in Canada.

At Lachine, the transfer from road to rail operation was made in 40 seconds.

The "auto-railer" operated today is the first of three passenger units ordered by the Canadian National railways for the purpose of testing their suitability for use on light traffic branch lines of the system. Tests will be made in the three divisions of the railway. It is believed that these new vehicles will cut down operating costs and at the same time offer a better service to the public.

A road-rail unit will be tested out in branch line service in the western region.

Officers of the railway who accompanied Mr. Hungerford and the mayor on the trip this morning included, N. B. Walton, chief of transportation C. W. Johnston, general passenger traffic manager; A. A.
Gardiner, assistant general passenger traffic manager, and H. C. Rochester, superintendent of passenger train service.

Both the passenger and freight units will be on exhibition in Montreal until Wednesday, when they will start for Toronto. Stops will be made at Cornwall, Brockville, Kingston, Belleville and Oshawa. The auto-railers will be run through the principal streets of these places and will be on exhibition at the Canadian National station for an hour in each place. Later they will be exhibited at Toronto.

Author Acadian Ballads and Lyrics Passes Away

BOSTON, July 13—Dr. Arthur Wentworth Hamilton Eaton, Nova Scotia poet and historian, died at his Beacon Hill home on Sunday in his 88th year.

Born at Kentville, N. S., the distinguished literateur had made his home for the last 50 years in the eastern United States.

In 1880 he graduated from Harvard and was afterwards ordained priest in the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States.

For more than 20 years he was in New York preparing students in English for universities. During the last 25 years Dr. Eaton lived in Boston.

His first published work "Acadian Legends and Lyrics" was well received by the public. Probably his best known volume is "The History of Kings County," a work which brought him wide recognition.

In this book the author turns back the clock to connect Nova Scotia Loyalist and pre-Loyalist families with their New England forbears.

His "History of Colchester County" is a compilation of the documents on that subject in the N.S. archives.

"Acadian Ballads and Lyrics in Many Moods," from his pen has a wide circulation.

CONDITION IMPROVED

Word was received today that the condition of Robert Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Porter of this city, is greatly improved. Mr. Porter, a medical undergraduate at McGill University, underwent a serious sinus operation at Saint John a week ago yesterday, and for a time was very ill as a result. His condition is so improved, however, that he is expected to arrive in this city Friday.

TO LEAVE FOR OTTAWA

J. H. Conlon, director of provincial and municipal relations for the province of New Brunswick, will leave this city Friday for Ottawa to take part in a conference on the stand-ardization of municipal statistics which has been called to meet in that city.

THEY'RE ALL ALIKE TO ME

"I HOPE we don't have another summer like last year," said a Toronto man to me the other day.

"Why? What was the matter with it?" I asked him.

"What! Don't you remember how hot it was," he exclaimed and then he went on to tell how he suffered —nearly fainted a couple of times, uncomfortable day and night. That was the burden of his story.

Then I opened up on him—and this is the gist of what I said.

"There is no more necessity for a man to suffer from the heat than from the cold. I don't—I enjoy both equally because my blood is in such condition that it keeps my body on its toes in any kind of weather, summer or winter."

To be up and coming at all times is only a matter of a sufficient mineral reserve in the blood. But most people try to get along on mineral-deficient foods—deminerallized by foolish methods of preparing or processing. Thus they violate the great basic law of life, health and youthfulness: "A normal mineral reserve in the blood is nature's first defense against physical degeneration, old age, fatigue, disease and premature death."

On the other hand, I live almost exclusively upon mineral-rich foods—raw fruits and vegetables, milk and, most important, Roman Meal, Bekus-Puddy and Lishus, and drink at least six cups of Kofy-Sub daily. And, by the way, iced Kofy-Sub is the most delicious summer drink I've ever tasted—slightly bitter, slightly sweet—icy cold—amber colored—a hot day treat, and the richest thing in minerals, and especially iron, known to me. It is better sweetened with honey or brown sugar.

Roman Meal, Bekus-Puddy and Lishus can be served also cold.
Cook for two minutes, let cool.
Place in refrigerator over night.
Serve for breakfast with cream or milk and honey, or fruit jelly or preserve and cream. Nothing can be more delicious. These Dr. Jackson products win the day for me and will win the day for you. Why, I walked 14 miles daily throughout the hot days last summer. I walked my seven miles this morning and enjoyed it—will walk back again tonight. And I'm thrilled every moment with the very joy of living and accomplishment—thanks to Roman Meal, Bekus-Puddy, Lishus and Kofy-Sub, more than any and all other things that influence my life. Write for proof from a great university that the Dr. Jackson products are by far the most important foods known for rebuilding and maintaining a normal mineral reserve in the blood, your first defense against old age, disease, fatigue and premature death. Furnished free. Ad-

Here's Simple Way to Curb a Cold

Two "ASPIRIN" Tablets—A Full Glass of Water—That's All

The modern way to curb a cold is this: Two "Aspirin" tablets the moment you feel a cold coming on. Then repeat, if necessary, according to instructions in the box.

At the same time, if you have a sore throat, crush and dissolve three "Aspirin" tablets in one-third glass of water. And gargle with this mixture twice.

The "Aspirin" you take internally will act to combat fever, cold pains and the cold itself. The gargle will act as a medicinal gargle to provide almost instant relief from rawness and pain. It is really marvelous; for it acts like a local anesthetic on the irritated membrane of your throat.

Try this way. Your doctor,
