pig for the room where the bridge was being played. The next scene in the act showed about a dozen ladies standing on chairs and three or four others dodging about the room trying to chase the pig back. The commotion that took place in this room was similar somewhat to what had taken place in the apartment house. Finally the pig was captured and taken to a local butcher where it was disposed of—and a few days later roast pork was served on the table of the local business man.

NO FURTHER WORD
REGARDING REPORT
RE IRISH ESTATESuburban Families Are Possible Heirs To $15,000,000

No further information has been received regarding the report that the heads of six families in the suburban towns of Marysville and Devon were heirs of the 'Buchanan' estate in Ireland on which a value of $15,000,000 and accrued income of 50 years is placed. The persons concerned were advised of the matter yesterday from Dominion authorities at Ottawa. It is understood that a Canadian now in Ireland interested himself in the Buchanan estate through his own possible connection and his researches revealed the connection of the Staffords in New Brunswick, whose people came from the British Isles. The information procured in Ireland was cabled to Ottawa.

The persons indicated as possible favorites of fortune are Norman Stafford, Frank Stafford, Samuel Stafford, Bernard Stafford, Newton Stafford, all of Marysville, and Mrs. Geo. Savage, South Devon.

Three other families are designated also as possible heirs. They are those of two sons and one daughter of the late Norman Buchanan believed to be located in Gloucester county in the vicinity of Bathurst.

This list of nine families, all located in the province of New Brunswick, is believed to complete the number in these parts which could be classed as heirs of the Buchanan estate in Ireland.

The Marysville and South Devon persons concerned were notified yesterday that their alleged connection with the Buchanan estate had been found. Further action will be taken by them to obtain detailed information.

DEVON SCORES

Devon took the Legionnaires into camp in a scheduled junior baseball game at Queens Square last evening when they beat them by a score of 5-1. Manny McIntyre hurled a no hit game. The Legionnaires lone score was accounted for by a series of errors. Up until the fifth inning good brand of tight baseball was displayed. The Devon sluggers began to get at the Legionnaire hurler in the sixth when the scored two of their runs and they finished up the job by scoring three more in the seventh. While the Legionnaires were defeated, they showed definite improvement in their form, and if they make the playoffs can be counted on to make a real bid for the league title. The batteries were: Devon, McIntyre (p), Miles, (c) Legionnaires: Fox (p) and Grant (c).
