

Fredericton Caps Even Play-off Series by Blanking Moncton 2-0

MacLenahan Brothers Register Both Goals as Capitals Tie the Series

2,000 Fans See Teams Battle on Soft Ice -- Goalies Outstanding

Before another large crowd of enthused hockey fans at the Arctic rink, here last evening, the Fredericton Capitals blanked the Moncton Maroons 2-0, and worked their way back into the picture for Southern New Brunswick Hockey League honors. An estimated crowd of 2,000 fans saw the MacLenahan brothers, "Bus" and "Bun" play a bang-up game on the attack for the Gillmen, and banged two well timed goals behind "Buzz" Barton in the Moncton citadel; while the League's ace net-minder, Cliff Young registered his second shut out in as many nights before the home throng, in play-off competition.

The game was played on slushy heavy ice that made team work impossible, and both teams resorted to the "golf type" of hockey throughout the hard fought contest.

"Wick" James and "Buzz" McLeod both from Moncton, handled the game, and did a very commendable job, although they came in for a round of "boos" on numerous occasions, by a few "die-hard" fans.

First Period
Referee in chief James dropped the puck between 'Bun' MacLenahan and Appleby, and the sturdy Capital got the draw and passed to 'Bus' who took a long peg at Barton in the Maroon cage. Bell, Moncton's hard skating right winger, returned with the disc and tested Young with a blue-line shot. Play became 'ragged' as both teams resorted to long shots, as the puck rolled with tantalizing glee. Lifford coasted by Innis but was forced to the side, as his shot went awry.

Lines changed, with Carroll, Len LeBlanc, who made his first appearance on Fredericton ice this winter, and Laddie Crawhurst opposing Mills Keenan and Morehouse. Keenan tried to finesse through Bastarache and Dickie and was checked hard. Mills took several long drives at the Maroon net, with Moncton still playing a defensive type of hockey. Ken Carroll brought Young down with a terrific drive from the blue line. Innis got the nod for kneeling Mills and Fredericton put on the pressure. Lifford shot from the blue line and 'Bus' MacLenahan was near the goal crease and deflected the rubber past Barton to give the Capitals the lead at the 12.20 mark in the period.

After the faceoff, Chalmers, big Capital rear guard worked in close but Barton saved the day. Carroll and Len LeBlanc paired but Young blocked neatly. Thompson was banished for interference and Moncton ganged the Capital cage, but Young blocked and held out several shots as the Moncton red shirts milled around his stronghold.

Second Period
'Bun' MacLenahan brought the crowd to their feet when he broke up a rush at the Moncton blue line and worked in on Barton. Both teams 'teed off' on numerous occasions and followed up on their drives, but rink long shots relieved the situation. Mills and Morehouse were past the Moncton rear guard, but the rolling disc just wouldn't be tamed. Fredericton were bearing the brunt of attack, as Moncton still resorted to long shots. Keenan and Crawhurst were in close but the net minders were right on. Mills went to the timers for cross checking Dickie into the boards. Young saved on several occasions and heaved the disc up the ice. 'Bun' MacLenahan rang up Capitals second marker at the 8.35 mark, when he lifted Bastarache's stick at the Moncton blue line, and 'smaled' the puck to coast in on Barton and

FIGHT MANAGER UNDER ARREST

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15—Herb Brodie, manager of Jack Torrance, and Jack Willis, who says his real name is Arthur Huttick, were ordered arrested here today by Irwin Poche, chairman of the Louisiana boxing commission.

Poche, in telling International News Service of their arrest for allegedly conspiring to violate the state boxing laws, declared:

"We of the state of Louisiana will not tolerate the use of our state for a stamping ground for such tactics."

He said a hearing of the commission would be held Saturday on the "Willis" case. The meeting had originally been announced for Tuesday.

At Baton Rouge, Willis said he had walked out on a fight with Torrance, Wednesday night, because, he explained, he did not want to "take a dive" to "make Torrance look good."

Willis had told a representative of Boxing Commissioner Poche that he could not go through with the "fake fight" last Wednesday night.

The commission's representative absolved Torrance of any part in the alleged fixing and said that before the scheduled fight Willis had been assured that if any irregularity occurred the offender would be suspended.

Brodie scoffed at the "diving" charges and announced he would welcome the boxing commission's investigation, scheduled for Feb. 16.

jam home the final goal of the game. It was a surprise play. After the faceoff, the 'Bunny' visited Mills and the Caps were two men short. Moncton gave Young many anxious moments, with Appleby, Bell, Babe LeBlanc getting hard shots away and Crawhurst hitting the goal post. Bell was banned for charging Mills as the latter returned, and each team played four a side. Appleby, tricky Maroon centre broke through the defence but Young bailed the disc aside. 'Bus' MacLenahan and Dickie were chased for 'mixing' it and during their absence, both teams resorted to long shots.

Third Period
Ken Carroll, who played a standard game for Moncton and Crawhurst worked past Chalmers on the side, but Goodine poked the puck away. Appleby was penalized for dumping Keenan and Mills, Morehouse and Chalmers came close, after a follow-up. Bell broke loose but was skated off by Mills. The MacLenahan brothers crowded by Innis and Bastarache but Barton was not to be outdone.

The bottle a game man was on hand again, and play was suspended while the ice was cleared. Innis shot from close in and Babe LeBlanc, Maroon's smooth skating left winger, failed to bat in the rebound. Len LeBlanc started several dangerous rushes but Goodine and Chalmers were too bulky. Play speeded up with the Capitals endeavoring to lengthen their lead, as Thompson carried the disc in position on several occasions. Len LeBlanc and Innis were penalized shortly afterwards and Moncton were two men short. With their return several gang plays resulted but the defence 'shooed' the raiders to the corners. 'Red' McNeill, big Moncton defenceman and 'Bun' MacLenahan started a private bout, with no damage done. Bell was sent to the penalty bench for tripping Keenan. Goodine followed for knee-checking Appleby, and the lanky rear guard was cooling his heels when the final gong sounded.

BROUILLARD FOULS THIL LOSES BOUT IN SIXTH, DECISION PROTESTED

PARIS, Feb. 16—Battle-scarred Marcel Thil of France retained his equally battle-scarred claim to the world middleweight championship to-night by turning back the third challenge of Lou Brouillard, French-Canadian of Worcester, Mass., in a bout that almost duplicated their second meeting of a year ago.

Thil was awarded the verdict on a foul in the sixth round while a crowd of close to 12,000 howled and roared its disapproval. Their 1936 meeting ended in a similar disputed foul in the fourth. The first time they met Thil won a 12-round decision.

The blow which sent Thil down in the sixth, a smashing right, appeared to ringsiders to land flush on his jaw.

The Frenchman, however, clutched at his middle as he dropped on one knee and a puzzled referee first counted him out, then went into a consultation with the judges before arriving at the decision Thil had been fouled.

Thil, whose title claim is recognized by the International Boxing Union weighed 159 pounds while Brouillard scaled 157.

The Frenchman earned a slight edge on points during the first five rounds as Brouillard displayed over-eagerness. The pace was rapid at the start with Brouillard the aggressor. Thil, apparently trying for a quick knockout, twice rushed his rival to the ropes during the second frame. They both swung wildly during the next round and Brouillard was warned twice for holding. He lost several chances to land in the fourth due to his eagerness which caused him to miss punches.

The pace began to tell on Thil who had not fought since his battle with Brouillard last year. He was evidently trying to conserve his strength as the fifth round began and the round was much slower although Brouillard chased him about the ring in a spurt just before the bell. Thil's left eye had begun to swell and he was breathing hard as he came out for the sixth.

"I will never box in Paris again," Brouillard declared after he had lost to Thil on a foul for the second time. Brouillard, native of St. George, Que., but now a resident of Worcester, Mass., was disqualified for low punching in the sixth round at a time when he claimed Thil was beginning to feel the effects of his damaging body attack.

"I protest the referee's decision," Brouillard declared after the fight. "This is the second time I have knocked out Thil and the second time I have been disqualified. This disqualification came just when Thil was beginning to feel my blows. The punch that floored Thil was not now. He was knocked down by a punch in the stomach."

JORDAN CLUB'S FIRST HOLDOUT

BOSTON, Feb. 15—Elbie Fletcher, 20-year-old rookie first baseman and former Milton high school star, was cloaked in the character of the key-man to the 1937 Bees yesterday, when Baxter "Buck" Jordan became the National League club's first holdout of the year.

From his home at Salisbury, N. C., the scene of his successful sit-down, holdout strike in 1935, Jordan returned his unsigned contract to the Bees' headquarters at N. L. Field, yesterday, accompanied by a demand for a 50 per cent. increase over his 1936 salary.

"That," exploded Quinn, "is ridiculous. But perhaps he's doing us a favor. Now we can rely entirely upon Fletcher. We had decided on that course, anyhow Bill (McKechnie) and I. But with Jordan definitely out of the way, all our attention can be given to him."

According to Quinn, Jordan's demands are not only entirely out of proportion, but downright "ungrateful."

"When I came here," explained the Bees' president, "Jordan was on the ragged edge. What I should have done was cut him. But I didn't. Not a penny. If I had, I could be signing him now for three or four thousand dollars less than what he received last season. Instead, though I never thought he earned what he received, I gave him what he asked. Now that he's had one good season, he's demanding an increase of 50 per cent.—but he's not going to get it."

Jordan led the Bees' attack last season with an average of .323. In fact, only one other, Tony Cuccinello, hit in the select .300 class.

Brown-Louis Bout Will Be Broadcast

The scheduled bout between Joe Louis and Natie Brown of Washington, D. C., at Kansas City will be described direct from the ringside by Clem McCarthy, veteran NBC sports announcer, on Wednesday, Feb. 17, beginning at 12:10 p.m., AST, over the NEC-Blue network.

Brown has the distinction of being the first of the only two men to stay 10 rounds with Louis after the "Brown Bomber" scaled the top flight of the heavyweight ranks. Bob Pastor recently achieved the same feat at the Madison Square Garden in New York.

McCarthy, who has broadcast descriptions of practically all of the big fights in the last two years for the National Broadcasting Company, will remain at the microphone until the finish of the bout.

Personal Glimpse

Willie Morris, singing star of the Musical Camera programme, learned to play sax in a Sunday School orchestra, then organized a "hot jazz" band when she was 12 years old, and booked local dances in her home town of Mexico, Missouri.

"AROUND THE SPORT CLOCK" —WITH— "Dinny" Dinsmore

The hockey goes turned out in grand style again for last evening's playoff fixture, and were treated to a good type of hockey under the circumstances. The heavy ice made team work impossible. Moncton was not as aggressive as in previous game here this winter, and Fredericton merited their victory.

Wick James' refereeing in last night's game was of the highest type. Both he and MacLeod handled the game well and kept it under control throughout. James came in for a lot of comment after the game at Moncton on Friday night.

A bottle was thrown on the ice again last night. This shows very poor sportsmanship, and the public in general are forced to suffer for the misdeed of some thoughtless fan. The same thing occurred when St. Stephen played here last week. Measures should be taken to detect the guilty parties and have them removed from the rink.

The MacLenahan brothers came to the fore again last night. Both played a steady game. The whole team was travelling at a fast clip on ice that was very heavy, and deserved their 2-0 victory.

Fredericton followers look for the Gillmen to take the Maroons in two more games, and be crowned New Brunswick champions, as we understand that the Southern N. B. League teams were the only ones properly registered.

The N. B. junior playdowns gets under way on Wednesday evening when the Saint John Pontiacs play the Junior St. Croix squad on border ice. The series will be determined by the total goals in the two-game series.

Natie Brown believes he can stay ten rounds with Detroit's "Brown Bomber," Joe Louis. We think that Louis will "do away" with Brown long before the tenth round.

Jackie Keating, former Saint John Beaver, is still a great play-maker as can be seen by his great record of 23 assists so far this season. Keating is one of the smallest players in the minor leagues. He is leading all Maritime scorers in his league.

BILL DICKEY ASKS SALARY OF 25 GRAND

BOSTON, Feb. 15—From way down in Arkansas comes the story that Bill Dickey, slugging Yankee catcher, has asked for a salary of $25,000 from Col. Ruppert this year. The story, emanating from a source close to the Dickey family in Little Rock, says that Bill has rejected the first contract offered and has sent along the demand for 25 grand, an increase of about $11,000 over what he is believed to have been paid last season.

Dickey's name was not one of those mentioned by Col. Ruppert Wednesday when the owner of the Yankees revealed that Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Charley Ruffing and Jake Powell were "unreasonable" in their salary demands, a statement that yesterday brought forth a blast by Gehrig himself.

Last spring, Dickey was one of the latest to sign. In fine shape, he got away to a good start and was one of the big guns in the pennant-winning drive, in which he topped all the Yanks in batting with a mark of .362.

Gehrig Takes Stand
Considering that he is the highest paid catcher in the American League, excepting Mickey Cochrane, who gets $30,000 for catching and managing the Tigers, it isn't likely that Bill will get anywhere near the salary he is asking, his chances being no better than any of the other Yankees who have been branded as "unreasonable" by Col. Ruppert.

Gehrig, rushing to his own defense, yesterday stated that he was sure Col. Ruppert would admit that he is not unreasonable in his demands for a flat salary of $40,000 plus a $10,000 bonus if he plays in 100 games. He said:

"I have never been unreasonable. During the depression I yielded to the Colonel's wishes. Baseball is on the upturn now and the Yankees had a big season at the gate last year. In view of that, and my own work, I believe that I am only setting forth what I think is a reasonable figure of my value to the club."

"I admit that I am not the drawing card that Babe Ruth was. But I'm not asking the $30,000 that Babe received. For 12 years the Yanks didn't have to carry an extra first baseman and they have been able to sell their minor league first basemen at fancy prices because they recognized the fact that I was still able to carry on for several more years."

Junior Seagulls Lose to Pontiacs

SAINT JOHN, Feb. 16—The Pontiacs walked off with the crown of the City Junior Hockey League with a smart 6-3 win over the Junior Seagulls in the final contest of a two-game total goal series at The Form last night. The victory came from a second period spurge of the city league-leaders netting them 4 counters within 10 minutes, while the 'Gulls were holding their own in the initial and final cantos, with a tally in each.

At the conclusion of play Mayor D. L. McLaren presented Captain Osborne of the winning sextet with the Chown trophy, emblematic of leadership in the City Junior Hockey League.

The Taylor-coached six carried the play in the first to beat Giggey at the ten minute mark for the only tally of the frame, registered again after Marshall, Stanley and O'Toole broke the ice for the Pontiacs with a trio of fast ones, and tallied again on McCormick's solo effort about half way through the final canto. O'Toole netted the fourth Pontiac marker three minutes before the whistle ended the middle verse, and Marshall and Osborne finished the scoring for the Indians in the third.

Osborne with three assists and a goal was high scorer, and Marshall netted three points on two goals and an assist for second honors. Arthurs was outstanding in the nets for the losing pucksters, stopping shots from all angles and going out to rob Osborne and Marshall of several drives labelled for counters.

St. Croix Wins Two At Edmundston

EDMUNDSTON, Feb. 16—St. Croix Club of St. Stephen were victorious in both games here over the week-end with the Edmundston Eskimos. In the first game the St. Croix swarmed over the locals, who were minus one of their aces, Bill Gulliver, and handed the Edmundston team a 7-2 defeat.

The second was similar, with the exception that St. Croix added another goal for an 8-2 victory.

The St. Croix management stated that the class of hockey played by the Eskimos wasn't up to par with that played in the Southern New Brunswick League this season.

U.N. B. Pucksters Meet Mount Allison Team in Intercollegiate Contest

SCHOOLBOY STARS OPTIONED BY RED SOX BALL CLUB

BOSTON, Feb. 15—Arthur Mahan and Walter Ripley, former Greater Boston schoolboy stars, were optioned to the Hazleton club of the New York-Penn League by the Red Sox, yesterday, according to Eddie Collins, Fenway general manager, who announced also that Oscar Melillo's signed contract had been received at Fenway Park.

"I can't get south soon enough," wrote the clever little second sacker in a letter accompanying the contract.

Both Mahan, former Somerville High first baseman and a year ago captain of the Villanova nine, and Ripley, 20-year-old graduate of Mansfield High, will report to the Sox minor league training camp at Little Rock on March 15, when a concentration of all the Sox "farmhands" will be held under the direction of Billy Evans and Specs Torporcer.

"They showed enough last season to warrant the jump," explained Collins as he announced the promotion of Mahan and Ripley to the Sox newly established Class A farm at Hazleton after playing only a fraction of a season of Class B ball at Little Rock.

Bathurst News

BATHURST, Feb. 12—The weather up till last week has been very mild, with little snow, so that people were running cars the same as in summer, but two snowstorms last week filled the roads so that several put their cars away.

Mrs. L. A. Nix entertained recently at a dinner bridge at her home in West Bathurst.

Mrs. Eldon Eddy also entertained on two recent evenings, one evening at six tables of bridge and the other evening at four tables of bridge.

Mrs. Edward Doyle recently entertained at three tables of bridge and several tea guests.

Friends of Miss Kathryn Densmore are glad to hear she is better after a severe attack of 'flu.

Hon. C. T. Richard arrived home by plane on a recent afternoon. As Bathurst people seldom see an aeroplane land on the ice, the event created excitement.

Mrs. Leonard Veniot, who has been very ill in the James H. Dunn hospital, is showing signs of improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Eddy, who with their son Glendon were in Montreal attending a lumbermen's convention, have returned home.

Garnet and Gold Squad Strong for Tonight's Game -- Teams Undefeated.

The U. N. B. hockey squad will wheel into action here tonight when they cross sticks with Mt. A's garnet and gold sextet from the Tantramar marshes.

The invading college team is reputedly strong in all departments and will be out to extend their lead over the other teams in the Tri-College League. Both U. N. B. and Mt. A. have not tasted defeat, as yet, in intercollegiate play and a stiff contest is looked for. "Bob" Chalmers, U. N. B. strategist is confident that his boys will come through and take the lead in the League.

He will trot out "Hep" Wilson in the goal with Captain Jack Palmer. Brown and Bartlett will throw up the barrier in front of the agile "Hep." McInnis, Burgess and McKinnon will form one raiding crew, while Sleep, McGibbon and Brown will see alternate duty. Coveney will be out of the lineup due to severe head and facial injuries received in the last practice session on Sunday afternoon.

The invading collegians will have Dickie guarding the twines, with Wally MacCallum, Roy MacKay and Ray Cunningham, tossing up the defence. Bob Copp will be in the center slot on the starting line, with Ras Johnston and "Shorty" Young patrolling the ice lanes. Bruce Crowe will center the second string and will be flanked by Verdell Johnston and Bill Cumming. Baker will be carried as a spare goalie.

"Red Jake" Blanchard will also accompany the team, and be pressed into service should his mates falter on defence.

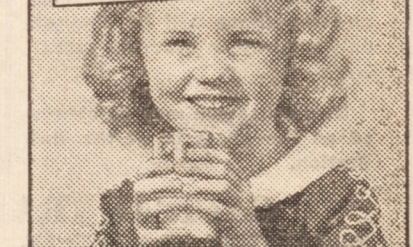

May Be Challenger For America's Cup

LONDON, Feb. 16 — Endeavor I, which challenged unsuccessfully for the America's Cup in 1934, may be the challenger again in this year's series.

Endeavor II, has been nominated by the Royal Yacht Squadron as the challenger. But the rules provide that another yacht may be substituted up to within 30 days of the first race. In any event T. O. M. Sopwith, who sailed Endeavor I, will still be the skipper.

Both yachts are going across the Atlantic and tests will be conducted off Newport, R.I. A defeated challenger has never before made a second try.

'How Many Pennies Your Child's Life?'

Don't Try to "Save" on Home Remedies—Ask Your Doctor

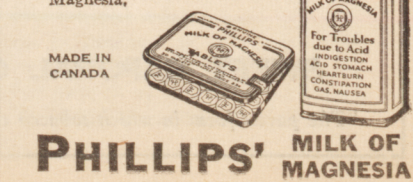

There is one point, on which practically all doctors agree. That is: Don't give your child unknown remedies without asking your doctor first.

All mothers know this. But sometimes the instinct to save a few pennies by buying "something just as good" overcomes caution.

When it comes to the widely used children's remedy—"milk of magnesia"—many doctors for over half a century have said "PHILLIPS." For Phillips' Milk of Magnesia is the standard of the world. Safe for children.

Keep this in mind, and say "PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA" when you buy. Comes now, also in tablet form. Get the form you prefer. But see that what you get is labeled "Genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia." 25¢ for a big box of the tablets at drug stores.
