GRACIE ALLEN WILL NOT PLAY IN PICTURE CLASSIC

Callously disregarding the anguish of Selznick's film moguls, casting directors, and a waiting populace which will be caused by her announcement, Grace Allen stated today that she will definitely NOT play Scarlett O'Hara in "Gone With The Wind."

In deference to public demand, Gracie had considered accepting the movie role—when and if it were offered to her—but she finally turned it down. "Though Scarlett is a colorful role I don't think it would match my little blue hat," she said.

Another point in Gracie's refusal, it is rumored among the movie wiseacres, is the fact that Ray Noble, her current heart, could not conceivably play Rhett Butler because of his English accent. "And accents," says Gracie, "make the heart grow fonder." At first she had hoped that Noble might be considered for this role because of his talent for imitating an English butler but there is a geographical difference of 3,000 miles between that characterization and the "Gone With The Wind" butler, it was explained to her.

When Gracie heard that Scarlett O'Hara was a great horsewoman and a devotee of the bridle path, she balked at the role. She didn't mind riding a horse for the picture, she said, but she drew the line at the bridle path business. "I trod the bridle path with George already," she stated in tones that brooked no contradiction, "and, while I sort of like it, once is enough."

"So I'll groan with the wind on the airwaves. Let who will be gone with the wind on the screen," Gracie concluded.

TIN PAN ALLEY SWINGS LOW

The products of Tin Pan Alley and Swing Lane have little place in the song favorites of the nation, it was revealed when the results of a countrywide poll for the ten most beloved melodies was computed.

Conducted under direction of Charles Pritzker, production executive of CBS Sunday Night Community Sings, the ten weeks' poll elicited the votes of more than a million radio listeners who wrote giving their preferences.

Of the 16,350 songs and 3,450 composers that were mentioned, Stephen Foster and his immortal works are present three times on the list.

The most popular song is John Howard Payne's "Home Sweet Home." Next in popular appeal is "Silver Threads Among the Gold." Then Stephen C. Foster's "My Old Kentucky Home" was chosen.

Fourth was that epic of barber-shop harmony, "Sweet Adeline." "Swanee River" placed fifth. "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," Foster's "Old Black Joe," "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," and "Love's Old Sweet Song" were sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth.

Tin Pan Alley's only representative was its composer peer, Irving Berlin. His "Alexander's Ragtime Band," written early in his career, placed tenth and closed the list of America's ten most popular songs.

The listeners whose ten song-selections are most identical with this consensus will receive awards.

Local boys and girls who have been going places and NBC-ing things: MacDonald Carey (the Dr. Glenn Warner of the Young Hickory serial), Sioux City, Iowa. . . . Announcer Harlow Wilcox, Omaha, Neb. . . . Happy Jack Turner, Hannibal, Mo. . . . Conductor Roy Shield, Waseca, Minn. . . . Solist Charles Sears, Hoopstown, Ill. . . . Announcer Everett Mitchell, Austin, Ill.

Memos on a Radio City reporter's pad: Because he shouts so when he "argues," Tom Howard stands ten feet away from the microphone; his partner, George Shelton, less leather-lunged, establishes himself a foot away. . . . Jack Pearl has memorized most of the chapters of the Old Testament and frequently quotes long passages to prove his points in daily conversations.

STELLAR ARTISTS TAKE PART IN CBC FEATURE PROGRAM

The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation will present the second in the musical comedy series, "The Cosmopolitans," featuring stellar vocal artists and a presentation orchestra under the direction of Percy Faith, for national network listeners of the CBC on Tuesday, June 1, at 9 p.m., EST.

The world's best loved music from the outstanding operettas and musical comedy successes of the past 25 years will be represented with favourite selections specially arranged by Mr. Faith for voices and orchestra. Among the leading radio vocalists who will be heard will be Jean Haig, soprano; Frances James, soprano; Doris Scott, personality singer; Adolph Wantroff, baritone, and William Morton, tenor.

Musical highlights of the program will include: "Every Little Movement," from "Madame Serry," by Karl Hoschna, sung by Jean Haig; "Tea for Two" and "I Want to be Happy," from Vincent Youmans' delightful operetta, "No, No Nanette," sung in duet arrangement by Frances James and William Morton; "Hallelujah," from "Hit the Deck," another Youmans triumph, sung by Doris Scott, and "Song of Love," from "Blossom Time," featuring Frances James and William Morton.

A special feature will be the presentation of five hits from Jerome Kern's immortal "Show Boat," with Adolph Wantroff singing "Old Man River." The entire vocal cast will be heard in solo presentations of these well loved tunes.

San Francisco NBC studio pick-ups: Forty of the 55 pounds of baggage allowed Carlton E. Morse, author of One Man's Family, on his Clipper passage to the Orient, consisted of cameras and photographic accessories. Two pounds of books, and 13 pounds of clothing made up the rest. . . . Beryl Cameron, the songstress, seeks a dog born July 3. That's her birthday and she wants a pet born the same day so they can celebrate together.

BROADCASTING SUN'S ECLIPSE HAS ITS BRIGHT MOMENTS

George Hicks, NBC special events announcer now on Canton Island in the South Seas to broadcast the sun's eclipse, has a pleasant stop-over at Waikiki, as you can guess. He is shown at a grass shack holding a private audition for Hawaii's guitar king and hula queen.

CANTON ISLAND, May 27—The base for NBC's solar eclipse broadcasts on June 8 has been moved from Enderbury Island to the neighboring Canton Island, 1,800 miles southeast of Hawaii. The change was made because of the difficulty of anchoring the U. S. Navy Minesweeper Avocet, with NBC's big transmitter aboard, off Enderbury Island.

From Canton Island, therefore, will come the broadcast over the NBC networks on June 8, at 3 p.m., EDT, recording the longest total eclipse of the sun in 1,200 years.

NBC's staff—George Hicks, special events announcer, and Walter R. Brown, and Marvin S. Adams, field engineers—have already established an encampment on Canton Island, with other members of the NBC-National Geographic Society-U. S. Navy solar eclipse expedition.

News of their activities in preparation for the eclipse broadcast on June 8 is broadcast to America by short-wave. Several such broadcasts have already been heard.

The closing session of the National Conference of the League of Nations Society in Canada will be broadcast from Hamilton over the CBC and the NBC on Thursday, May 27, at 8 p.m., AST.

Dr. W. W. VanKirk, Director of the National Peace Conference in the United States will speak. The Hamilton Bach Choir will also be heard.
