REPORT OF BOY SCOUT ACTIVITIES RECEIVED BY PROFESSOR PUGH

Mr. Stiles was some years ago a member of the staff of the University of New Brunswick here.

Mr. Stiles' letter and the attached report of Major Arthur C. Pinard is as follows:

Dear Prof. Pugh:

So many interesting things have happened in Canadian Scouting during the last few months that I have decided to write the members of the Canadian General Council and our subscribers, mentioning a few of the outstanding events.

When we learned that the Dominion Government had decided to allow the municipalities to arrange for the Coronation celebrations, we suggested to our President, Sir Edward Beatty, that the Scouts might well mark May 12th, 1937, by organizing a chain of beacon fires across Canada. Through the press and over the radio Sir Edward made his appeal and the Troops responded by building more than 200 fires, each of which was lit with appropriate ceremony in the presence of large crowds of people.

Then at the end of June about 150 clean-cut Canadian Scouts and Scouters joined with some 25,000 brother Scouts in the American Jamboree held in Washington, D. C. On that occasion, our boys with their neat uniforms, their discipline and their camping ability, won frequent commendation from the many thousands of visitors to the grounds. The Canadian High Commissioner at Washington, Sir Herbert Marler, and Lady Marler, visited our campsite several times and afterwards entertained our Scouters at the Canadian Legation.

The boys were hardly back from Washington before a small group, headed by our Vice President, Mr. J. F. M. Stewart, left to attend the International Jamboree in Holland. There 28,000 Scouts from 33 nations camped, visited and played happily together for two weeks.

During the International Jamboree, a Scout Commissioners' Empire Conference was held and Canada was honoured by having our Vice President, Mr. Stewart, unanimously elected its chairman. Following the Jamboree, Mr. Stewart returned to London where he visited our Imperial Headquarters, met a number of the officials, including our old friend, Sir Alfred Pickford, formerly Commissioner for Overseas, and later, for several days, was the guest of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell in their beautiful home at Pax Hill, Bentley.

One of the outstanding features of July and August was our training camps for Scout and Cub Leaders. There were three of these in the Maritimes, one in Quebec, three in Ontario, two in Manitoba, two in Alberta and three in British Columbia. I should say that this is our senior training effort and is in addition to the District Preliminary Training Courses for Leaders, which run regularly throughout the year.

From the boys' point of view, the most important event of the year is the Scout camp and this last summer we had under canvas between fifteen and twenty thousand Scouts and Cubs.

Doubtless you will have noticed by the papers that the Chief Scout of the World, Lord Baden-Powell was honoured by King George VI with the Order of Merit. A few weeks afterwards he was awarded the Wateler Peace Prize for 1937 "for valuable services to international goodwill by means of the Boy Scouts Organization."

Chief Executive Commissioner,

Ottawa, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Stiles:

I beg to report that Father Hebert, Mr. Cheri Laplante and I, all of Ottawa, members of the Canadian General Council, attended, as the Council's official delegates, the Jamboree of La Federation des Scouts Catholiques de la Province de Quebec, which took place on August 28th, 29th and 30th of this year on the historic island of St. Helens, Montreal.

As you have probably read in the papers, this Jamboree was a complete success, being attended by some fifteen hundred Scouts and thirty thousand of the general public.

I may say that Father Hebert took a great interest in the Jamboree, remaining on the grounds during the whole three-day period. Mr. Laplante went to the Jamboree on the 28th and remained during the 29th.

During the colourful ceremony which took place on the afternoon of August 29th I had the honour of speaking to the assembled gathering, at which time I delivered your message of goodwill. It will please you, I am sure, to learn that several times during the reading of your address in French I was interrupted by applause. This I interpreted to mean that the Scouts and Scouters, and the general public, were highly pleased with the relationship existing between La Federation and the Canadian General Council.

Sunday evening in the presence of a great throng, Father Hebert took a prominent part in the programme, during which he spoke on behalf of the Canadian General Council.

In my opinion, this Jamboree was the most impressive yet made by La Federation to indicate to the general public the purposes of Scouting. The fact that more than thirty thousand people came over on two or three occasions to St. Helens' Island to have a look at the boys in their camp proved to me that as an advertising effort for Scouting in Canada, it was a great success.

I am sure that the members of the Executive Board will be interested to learn that there were two French-speaking Scout Troops present, one from Lewiston, Me., and one from Manchester, N. H., U.S.A.

It was not difficult to observe that the Scout spirit, which seems to be prevalent at all such gatherings, was also in evidence at this Jamboree. On every hand, I noticed that the boys and their leaders seemed to be happy and apparently were having the time of their lives.

On Saturday morning, a great event took place when His Eminence Cardinal Villeneuve, accompanied by Monseigneur Laflamme and other Church dignitaries, visited the camp. They were received with a great demonstration of loyalty and affection. In introducing His Eminence, Monseigneur Laflamme referred to the former's great interest in the world-wide Movement of Scouting. In his address Cardinal Villeneuve hailed them all as Scouts and Catholic Scouts, members of the great world-wide brotherhood. He said that as he had been moving around among them, he had been greatly impressed and pleased with their singing, their games and their very evident joy in the life. One sentence which followed this remark struck me. He said: "All of this is human and beautiful and characteristic of good Scouting."

During the march past, I noted with interest that all the units carried the Union Jack, the Scout flag and other banners. The general setting, the fluttering of the flags, the immense crowd, the terrain and other things, which people usually refer to as "atmosphere," moved me deeply and made me feel that my eyes were witnessing the birth of a new age among French-speaking boys.

The Provincial Council of the Province of Quebec was represented by the Provincial Commissioner, Mr. T. H. Wardleworth, Mr. Roy Wilson of St. Johns and one or two others.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Yours faithfully,
(Signed) ARTHUR A. PINARD.

THE GOV'T'S CRIME

Is it a crime to increase a stenographer's salary? One would infer as much from the bitter denunciation of the provincial government voiced by Hon. F. C. Squires, leader of the Opposition, in his address at Hampton last evening.

The self-professed friend of the worker, the man who sheds tears over the fate of those who work for a living, when it suits his purpose to weep, becomes fiercely indignant because a stenographer in the public employ is given an increase in salary.

Because some of the other members of the staff who have given faithful service receive increases such as they might expect in private employment, or less as a matter of fact in most cases, he demands that the government should be turned out.

This is a strange attitude for one who announces himself as a friend of Labor. No one ever has accused government stenographers of growing rich on their salaries. They usually earn all they get. As a matter of fact the scale of pay in the provincial civil service has been notoriously low. The peculiar fascination of a government job has enabled the government to employ its various staffs at rather less instead of more than the general scale.

If it could be charged that favoritism was being shown, that political bias affected the wage and salary scale or that members of the staff were being paid more than their services were worth, there would be ground for complaint. Mr. Squires makes no such charges. He cannot.

Apparently it is the principle of fair wages for a fair day's work to which he objects.

That is not a policy that will appeal to the workers of New Brunswick to whom he is looking for support.—Moncton Transcript.

Forty Thousand Italians Are Fighting In Spain

(Special to The Daily Mail)
ROME, Oct. 18—An official report has been given out for the information of the Italian people which states that forty thousand Italians are fighting in Spain for General Franco.

On the other side there are fifteen thousand foreigners fighting for the Government. Two hundred of these are forming a brigade of English speaking soldiers.
