Bells of the New Year

We shall listen to the magic of the tunes upon the earth,
When the merry bells of New Year come our way;

We shall listen for their greeting to the newest of all birth,
And in thrill of keen emotion view the New Year young and gay.

We shall linger with ambitions that passed on in other years,
When we made our resolutions that would brighten up our souls;
We shall think of them a moment and, perhaps, somehow through tears

Realize that aims inactive are the dreams without the goals.

We shall gladly hear the message of the bells that in the sky
Voice a hope and joyous welcome to the Spirit of the New;

We shall hear with thrill of gladness all the tumult passing by,
For our hearts shall share this spirit through and through.

MUSICALES AT ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH DELIGHTFUL EVENT

An evening replete with the best of musical and literary numbers well rendered amply repaid those who attended the annual Christmas Musicales last evening at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

The program opened with prayer by Rev. George E. Ross, Minister and the singing of "God Save the King". Each number on the program was well rendered and deeply appreciated by the audience of lovers of good music. R. C. Bayley, organist, played as opening numbers "C. Saint-Saens' 'Le Cygne' (The Swan) in a manner sweet and appealing and at once created the impression that a choice program was in store for the listeners of the evening. "Love Divine" was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fleet in a manner seldom heard in the city. The blending of the voices was particularly good. Herbert Webber in his violin solo "A Gavotte" by F. J. Gossec as also in the "Chanson Triste" by P. Tchaikowsky was particularly good.

Those who heard the Cecilia Singers a year ago in the Christmas concert will readily concur that steady progress has been made with this band of well trained and admirable singers under the able leadership of R. C. Bayley as conductor.

The story of Henry VanDyke's "Other Wiseman" was given by Mrs. A. L. Gerow in her usual impressive and realistic manner. Due to the absence by illness of Kenneth Holder "Silent Night" was substituted in the program with Miss Sadie Blair as soloist. Bach's Credo on the organ concluded a delightful Christmas Musicales.
