OLD SCHOOL BOY ON OUR "EDUCASHUN"

A well known citizen writes several interesting articles on our Education problems and how things were handled in the days when he was a school boy. Is there any improvement?

Editor Daily Mail,
City.

Dear Sir:

Further consider this here Education Business ye know I often think, theres such a thing as givin too much Education to a Boy or girl, Course its a good thing to have, and it don't cost nothin to carry it around, course it cost the old man a lot, to put in this supply, and it took a long time to load up. Now when we went to school we Boys wuz smart enuff to grade out about the Eighth, if we didnt show sines of a strike bout then, operations Just ceased, we wuz pulled out and sent to learn a trade or sumthin else. Course the old folks then thought a Job was better for a Boy than goin to school. Education was only a second considerashun. Course wages was good for Boys then a right smart boy could get 2.00 a week, whether he earned it or not, and it helped out the Family purse. trouble now is Boys go to School too long, before they graduate they're men, and when they set out to work bein men, they want mens wages, and all they know is what was in the Books, and I guess theres a lot of that not much good, my idea is a reducin of a lot of this here stuff they're feedin them on nowadays, or else servin it out in smaller doses, and givin them good solid stuff sootable for praktical every day kind of work. turn a lot of em loose about the eighth grade lettin them get broke to Harness while they're young when they know they aint worth more than about 2.00 a week, and not too proud to do Boys work. Now I aint recommendin this treatment to the Board of Education remember. Im old fashioned I suppose, and we must advance an not go back wards, but backin up sometimes dont hurt a feller specially if you're apt to fall in a Hole.

It aint my intenshun to dictate to the Educational Department, and I hope they wont be put out at any of my arguments. Pleaze let me know if they do be.

OLD SCHOOL BOY.

TRAVEL

The railroad track is miles away,
And the day is loud with voices speaking,
Yet there isn't a train goes by all day
But I hear its whistle shrieking.

All night there isn't a train goes by,
Though the night is still for sleep and dreaming,
But I see its cinders red on the sky,
And hear its engine steaming.

My heart is warm with the friends I make,
And better friends I'll not be know-ing,
Yet there isn't a train I wouldn't take
No matter where it's going.

Modern evils, such as divorce, birth control, irreligion and destroyers of the family were discussed in an eloquent manner, deeply impressing all his listeners. Strong addresses on the subject were made by Frederick W. Boyle, Chancellor of the Council, and by Trustee John J. Barry. At the conclusion of the meeting sandwiches and coffee were served and the meeting was pronounced as one of the best of the Crusade.

Verbal Clashes

his reputation. J. W. Niles agreed with the former speaker, also describing Mr. Melville's tactics as "unfair."

A motion was then passed that any charges which Mr. Melville wished to make must be placed before the committee in writing. In reply, Mr. Melville said that he had charges to make and reserved the right to produce them. He further added that the committee did not want to deal with the charges.

Gives Assurance
The chairman assured him that any properly presented charges made by Mr. Melville would be dealt with and any offenders would be called to answer for their alleged offenses. Mr. Doucet further pointed out that in connection with the alleged charges against Mr. Abbot, the proper authorities would consider them if brought to their attention.

Following the somewhat "heated"

Mrs. Jack Camber and Mrs. Mary Foster of Springhill have recently returned from an enjoyable trip to New York. While away they met many old friends including Professor Phillip Mittel, son and daughter, who several years ago were annual visitors to the province, having at one time owned a camp at Davidson's Lake. Mrs. Camber and Mrs. Foster were graciously entertained by their old friends while in New York City.

Interesting Lecture by Mrs. Armstrong

The Women's Missionary Society of St. Paul's United Church held their Easter Thank Offering on Wednesday evening in the Fraser Memorial Hall. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. George Telford. The opening devotional service was conducted by Mrs. E. M. Taylor in a most impressive manner. Mrs. Taylor stressed the need of the members devoting more of their time, thought, prayer and money for the needy work of the mission. A pageant put on by the C.G.I.T. of the church was well rendered and indicative of how the nations of the world are bringing their thank offering to God in a very material way. For this thank offering meeting special invitations were sent to every woman in the congregation. After the pageant the collection was taken up by the girls of the C.G.I.T. Numerous blue envelopes showed the general response to the invitations. Mrs. Robert Scott gave a prayer of dedication of the offering to the worthy cause of the mission. The main feature of the evening was a series of colored slides which were given in a most interesting way by Mrs. J. R. G. Armstrong. The pictures were based on the year's study book and took the listeners to India, China, Arabia, Japan, South Africa, Burma and other countries. The audience who listened to Mrs. Armstrong's address were made conscious of the vast amount of work done in all parts of the world by the Women's Missionary Society, and went home feeling that the work was all very much worth while.

Resumes Studies
Miss Annie Young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Young, left last evening for Montreal to resume her studies at Royal Victoria Hospital. Miss Young who was forced by illness to discontinue her studies on March 12th last year, has fully recovered and her many friends are wishing her every success in the future.

period of discussion, the committee continued examining accounts relative to road patrols. Several members of the committee were in accord with the view expressed by the Conservative member.

Mrs. Clark Murray Founder I.O.D.E.

Special interest always seems to centre around the beginnings of the I.O.D.E. in New Brunswick, and the Provincial Chapter thinks it might be of interest, especially to the new members of the Order, to give a brief history at this time. We shall use the information given in 1926 by the late Mrs. G. C. VanWart in an article entitled 'History of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire in New Brunswick.' New Brunswick has the honour of having the first provincial chapter and the first enrollment of the Daughters of the Empire.

On January 13th 1900 Mrs. Clark Murray sent out her now memorable telegram to the Mayors of all the provincial capitals in the Dominion. Arrangements were made for a general meeting to be held in the City Council chamber Feb. 1st, and was presided over by Mayor Beckwith. There were thirty-seven ladies present, and all became members at this meeting. A little later the enrollment was increased to forty-four.

The first slate of officers elected were: President, Mrs. John Black; 1st vice-president Mrs. W. C. Crockett; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Charles Fisher; secretary, Mrs. E. J. Payson; treasurer, Mrs. George Campbell; standard bearer, Mrs. G. C. VanWart.

This society was first called an auxiliary, later the provincial executive committee, and then Provincial Chapter. Some organization work was done but it was not permanent. Our provincial Chapter carried on work in New Brunswick alone until 1910. It contributed to and supported all national work initiated or approved by the National Chapter, the most important of which was the South African Patriotic Fund, South African Graves Fund, Work in India, and work in the schools. A great deal of local work was also accomplished.

The first Empire Day celebration in New Brunswick was held in Fredericton May 23rd 1900. In Oct. 1910 the national organization committee visited New Brunswick and organized six chapters, but only three survived, viz. Port Cumberland, Moncton; Loyalist, Saint John; and Sir Howard Douglas, Fredericton.

The Order has grown and prospered in New Brunswick. We have now thirty-five primary chapters, with a membership of 1315 in 1936; three Girl Guide Companies, and one Brownie Pack.

Mrs. Black acted as president until 1902, when she resigned, and Mrs. G. C. VanWart was elected president and filled that important office until 1917. In this year all Mrs. Geo. Hodge became the treasurer, and very efficiently conducted this department for a number of years.

Mrs. John Black the first president maintained her enthusiastic interest in the Order until the end of her life. In her memory the Provincial Chapter of New Brunswick has established a memorial. The sum of five hundred dollars has been given to be used in fifty dollar instalments for ten years, and awarded to young women for their first year in a university. The National Chapter does not contemplate erecting a memorial but has placed a scroll in the Head Office in Toronto in her memory.

Mrs. Clark Murray, the Foundress, organized a strong chapter in Montreal, February 13th 1900. February 13th is therefore known and honored as Founders Day because of this fact.

DURHAM BRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McLean, Mrs. Isherwood and Mrs. R. Cowperthwaite attended the service in the Anglican church at Devon on Easter Sunday morning.

The W.A. held their March meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Richardson on Thursday afternoon. There was a good attendance.

The roads are bad but still open for cars, and they keep going.

The young people's society held an Easter service in the United Church of Canada on Sunday afternoon. A pageant was put on first by five girls, Christ is Risen, which was well done; singing by the boys and girls; Byron Esty gave an address on our Love to God and our Neighbor which was well thought out and given in his usual good way. Although the roads were bad there was a good attendance and all felt well rewarded for their effort in getting to the church.

All who have been ill with flu are recovering.

A portrait of the late Mrs. Clark Murray has been given an honored place in the Parliament Building in Ottawa, in recognition of her splendid service to the Empire.

In conclusion may we quote from a letter of Mrs. Clark Murray to the secretary Mrs. E. J. Payson at Fredericton: "I believe that this organization will grow and grow until every colony shall be enrolled. Meantime as promoter I shall always look upon your Fredericton Committee (Provincial Chapter of New Brunswick), as my first and best support."
