

Miss Barbara Trites Captures Maritime Ladies' Golf Championship

BEATS DEFENDING CHAMPION, BABS CREIGHTON, 2-1 IN FINAL 18 HOLES

Large Gallery See New Titleholder Rally To Win —To Enter Canadian Meet With Miss Holmes; Miss M. J. Chestnut, Mrs. J. H. McMurray Win For Fredericton.

SAINT JOHN, Aug. 28—Staging a most remarkable rally to overcome a three-hole lead and add two of her own for good measure, Miss Barbara Trites, 21-year-old sensation from Bridgewater Golf Club, held sway over the select women shotmakers of the Maritimes yesterday. Closing out a grand week of golf that was good, bad and indifferent, marked by splendid weather, the Maritime tournament for 1937 ended with the youngster from the South Shore lifting the championship from Miss Elizabeth (Babs) Creighton, Yarmouth, by 2 and 1 yesterday afternoon.

A huge gallery followed the two youthful players through 17 holes of golf that was ragged at the start and became a treat to watch after the turn. Only making her debut in senior tournament company a year ago when her erratic play left her by the wayside, Miss Trites culminated five days of sparkling play on her part by annexing at least five prizes.

She made good the fiddle threat offered by another Bridgewater star in 1936 when Babs Creighton beat out Mrs. D. A. Campbell. Mrs. Campbell had eliminated the 1935 champion, Miss Edith Bauld, earlier in that meet. It was a popular victory yesterday. Miss Trites was showered with congratulations as she strode to the clubhouse and during the tea hour and presentation of prizes. Last night congratulatory messages were wired from many points. By her win over the 1936 titleholder, Miss Trites earned a tournament trip to the Canadian interprovincial match Labor Day and closed meet, to be staged at Winnipeg Sept. 6 to 11. Accompanying her will be Miss Dorothy Holmes, Truro, one of the semi-finals at the tourney at Riverside's sporty course this week.

Miss Creighton, whose season's play gave her the right to be the second player of two to be sent to the Canadian meet by the Maritime branch, Canadian Ladies' Golf Union, this year, is unable to make the trip, honeymoon plans in September prevent that, so Miss Holmes was named next best.

Fredericton Winners

Fredericton Golf Club came through with two winning decisions yesterday. Miss M. J. Chestnut gave the capital its first win when she downed Miss Barbara Nase of Westfield Country Club, five up and four to go in the first flight consolation. Mrs. J. H. McMurray won the other Fredericton verdict. Her margin over Mrs. H. O. Clark of Riverside was four and two in the third flight final.

We are going to hear a lot of Jimmy O'Boyle within the next few years. Just a little over 21 and always in prime fighting condition, he has been fighting semi-finals in the big time stuff, and now is offered a swat at Yaroz' title.

"Babs" Creighton, the former Maritime champ couldn't withstand the surging play of Miss Barbara Trites who according to all reports turned in sensational play. Jumping from "three down" to "two up" she won the title in one of the most sensational finishes ever seen in the meet.

Two Fredericton names were among the prize winners. Miss M. J. Chestnut took the first flight consolation prize, while Mrs. J. H. McMurray was the third flight winner.

Some people think we have done Tommy Farr an injustice by panning him in this pillar. "Why not give him a break and go in there and do his best. If he stays one round alright, and if he stays ten alright" they ask.

We haven't panned him, haven't said that he is a punk fighter so far, but just the same we know that he is going to take a licking from Joe Louis.

It will be time enough to call him a "punk" after the fight on Monday night.

GIANTS SPLIT WITH PIRATES

Terrymen Drop Opener 1-0, Take Second Game By Score of 3 to 2.

CARDS TRIMMED

No-Hit, No-Run Game By Frankhouse--Yanks Trim Browns.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27—New York Giants, in hot pursuit of the pace-making Chicago Cubs, gained only an even break here today with Pittsburgh Pirates in two hotly contested games.

Blanked 1-0 in the opener by the combined four-hit flinging of Lefty Ed Brandt and Mace Brown, the Giants squeezed out a 3-2 decision in the second game with the aid of five-hit pitching by Al Smith, making his first start in six weeks. The Giants remained two games behind the Cubs, held idle by rain in Boston.

Fred Frankhouse who has played in the National League for 10 years without any remarkable success, crashed baseball's hall of game with a no-hit, no-run pitching performance in Brooklyn.

The 33-year-old member of Dodgers, once with Ottawa in the old Eastern Canadian League, turned the trick by a 5-0 margin against Cincinnati Reds, although his job was made easy when the game was called after two Reds were out in the eighth inning.

The Phillies climbed into sixth place by taking both games of a double-header from the drooping St. Louis Cardinals. The victories 4-1 and 6-5, gave Philadelphia three in a row over Frank Frisch's outfit.

In the second game Philadelphia piled up a 6-1 margin in the first four innings.

Gehrig Starts Show

NEW YORK, Aug. 27—It was Red Ruffing and Jim Bottomley day at Sportsmen's Park today, but Lou Gehrig stole the show.

"Iron Horse" Lou clouted his 29th homer to start New York Yankees' scoring, and then doubled and carried the winning run across himself in the eighth inning as the world champions nosed out the Browns 4-3. Gehrig also had a single for his third hit.

In Chicago, Pete Appleton limited White Sox to three hits to give Washington Senators a 5-0 shutout.

SALIENT FACTS OF FISTIC BATTLE

Salient facts on Monday's world heavyweight championship fight:

Place: Yankee Stadium—The official abattoir of the New York Yankees baseball teams. It is in the Stadium, in October, that the team unlucky enough to win the National pennant will be poleaxed. It is such a frightening place that the Cubs took one look at his chilly ramparts from the Polo Grounds yesterday, and meekly handed the Giants two games.

Principals: Joe Louis, 23, the color of Aunt Emma's caramel custards, social lion of Harlem's Sugar Hill, and the only man in America who can be arrested for carrying concealed weapons whenever he puts his hands in his pockets.

Tommy Farr: 23, has a face like a professional house-haunter, born in Tony-Pandy, Wales, which is a place known only to Tommy and Rand McNally, talks like something out of Dickens, and will get the Dickens knocked out of him Monday.

Time: 7 a. m., Bombay; 12 noon, Sydney; 4 p. m., Moscow, and 10 p. m., New York. That is, if your watch is correct.

Estimated attendance (by promoter Mike Jacobs): 50,000.

Estimated attendance (by unbiased parties): 35,000.

Farr's chance of taking title: about the same as a fellow would have of making a "7" with one dice.

Louis' chance of retaining title: All Joe has to do is to avoid vigor mortis, measles, and nousemaid's knee.

Betting odds: There is no betting. The one man who showed up with some Farr money was grabbed by the Smithsonian Institute and today swings from the ceiling along with Lindbergh's Spirit of St. Louis and Eli Whitney's cotton gin.

Weather: For Farr—stormy with lightning flashes. For Louis—Just a light breeze.

The St. Croix will use their ace, Ken Kallenberg, and their hopes are high of taking two straight.

The Miners are all set with all players in tip-top shape. Titus, who was used in the game on Wednesday night, will be on deck in case Nichols falters.

The teams play in St. Stephen Tuesday afternoon in the third game of their best-of-five series as an added attraction to the St. Stephen Exhibition.

Pontiacs-Giants at Saint John

SAINT JOHN, Aug. 28—Saint John Pontiacs and Moncton C.C.'s-Giants stage their third game of the provincial senior baseball semi-finals at Shamrock Park here today. Only rain can put a damper on the clubs' third meeting within four days.

In another effort for victory the Indians will send Big Bill Damery to the rubber, trusting he will be able to give them another win and receive the fine support the team has given him all through this season.
