Reds Release Manager Dressen and Coaches Sheehan and Kelly

SAID NOT FULLY TO BLAME FOR PRESENT EIGHTH PLACE POSITION OF THE TEAM

Bobby Wallace Named As Acting Pilot—Dressen Managed Club For Three Seasons.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 13-The eighth-place Cincinnati Reds unconditionally released manager Charley Dressen and coaches Tom Sheehan and George Kelly today, paid them in full on their season's contracts, and named Bobby Wallace, veteran of nearly half a century of baseball, as acting pilot.

The announcement, said General-Manager Warren C. Giles, was based soiely upon Dressen's request to be advised "definitely" as to his status for 1938. None of the three announced plans for the future.

Wallace who entered organized Coaseball when there were 12 clubs in the National League, will take charge temorrow as the Reds open their final home stand of the year, against Brooklyn. Assisting in the coaches' boxes will be Virgil 'Spud' Davis, the second-string catcher and Bill Hughes manager of the Reds' Muskogee, Okla., farm team.

There had been many contributing causes to the failure of the Reds this season," Giles said in a formal statement, "and by no means are we placing full responsibility for failure on Charlie and his assistants. They leave here with the kindliest feelings and best wishes of Mr. Crosley, (Powell Crosley, jr., President) and other club officials.

Dressen, who will be 39 Sept. 22, is a veteran of 20 years in baseball and came here from Nashville, Tenn., midway of the 1934 season, to succeed Bob O'Farrell.

Joseph Conrad Leads Seven Seas In Return Race

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Sept. 13-Capt. Alexis Troonin of the squarerigger Joseph Conrad, shot his craft into the lead shortly after the Conrad and the Seven Seas, another squarerigger, crossed the starting line off Hamilton today in a return race to Newport, R.I.

The boats got away at noon. The Joseph Conrad gradually increased her lead until both ships were lost to sight. The Conrad won the Newport-Hamilton race between the vessels with a bare 55-second advantage on corercted time.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

Way back when every boy carried a long-bladed pocket knife to be ready for a water melon carving . . . when Mordecai Brown was a famous pitched for the Cubs 25 years back? Way back when ladies wore lace gloves just like they do today, and had hose to match . . . and the squeeze play was common in baseball and the Yanks were always last.

Way back when Clark Griffith, Napoleon Lajoie, Jack Stahl and Jimmy Collins were famous big league managers . . . and the first loop-the-loop roller coaster was a super thrill?

Way back in the days of bicycles built for two . . . days when canoeing was more popular . . . days when no one talked about football until the world's series was a matter of his"Timmy" Green

From the looks of the weather here, it seems that the Marysville Juniors will have a nasty break on their trip.

Joe Di Maggio's bat is still a little smaller than the one the "Babe" swung in his top year. 'Di Mag' was the chap who was going to exceed Ruth's record of 60 odd homers in one season, and despite the fact that the season is drawing along, he still has about 20 circuits to pound out vet before he comes up to the Ruth

Good as Di Mag, Greenburg, Gehrig and the other high-power sluggers are, we haven't a man in the leagues of the same calibre of "Da Babe"-not for a while at least. The other chaps may, in coming years climb over the pile of homers that Ruth notched up, but it won't be this year.

The National Boxing Association wasn't too enthusiastic in giving the official World's heavyweight title to Joe Louis. President Joseph Maloney claims that he lacks championship calibre, and only won the bout with Farr by a narrow margin.

The way they ranked the present heavies will make many of the fan's eyes pop out. Not surprising is the fact that Maxie Schmeling ranked next to Louis. and that Farr comes next. But lo and behold, next on the list is the champion marathoner of the day, a man who beat "Old Man Kayo" by a backrunning retreat—Bob

In some ways, the retreat of Pastor deserves a lot of credit. A great difference exists however between it and the "Retreat from Mons."The "Old Contemptibles fought back-Pastor didn't; neither did he stiffen his stand and stop the advance. Woe to him. His name will never go down in history as a fighter: but as a sprinter-one never knows.

The old square-rigger, "Jos' eph Conrad" surged ahead of the 'Seven Seas," taking the lead in

LAWSON LITTLE EARNS RESPECT

Won Canadian Open Since Turning Pro In 1936

California, is making the best record. 2:45 p. m., EDST. Against such competition as the best professional golf now holds you can't expect any man to win consistently, NBC has scheduled two important but Lawson has done fairly well.

and since that time he has won a and the clash between Minnesota and national championship (the Canadian Nebraska, at Lincoln, Neb. Both and now he's won a big medal play tough Shawnee course in 284 strokes was quite a feat.

It isn't any secret that the boys were calling Lawson all kinds of so ??sap when he announced his decision to turn pro at the Augusta tourney of NBC for broadcast on its two net-

King of Amateurs

He'd won the American and open championship two years in a row, and was the ackowledged king of world amateurs when he turned pro.

"Another Jones," they said. And they were right, insofar as amateur competition was concerned. Professional golf has stepped up in speed and scoring since Jones retirement in 1930 and with this in mind, and Lawson on top of the Simon-pures, they were calling him double-dyed sucker for turning pro smack in the middle of the toughest pro competition of all time.

But Lawson crossed 'em up. He hasn't won the National open, and he isn't likely to win it for a few years, but he grabbed the Canadian open right from under the noses of the best of the pros; he won the San Francisco match play tournament, and now he's won at Shawnee. He'll be eligible for the P.G.A. champion-

Can Laugh

Little is a good medal player, but it is at the match play angle of the games that he shines. He's one of the best putters you'll find anywhere. He outranges all but three or four men from the tee, and he's a powerhouse with the big iron clubs. All in all, Lawson Little is quite a golfer. He's laughing nowadays at the boys who called him a sucker for turning son is no dummy. He had the same is, and he's been honest about it.

Plenty of amateurs have become golf bums, and retained their amateur standing, but Lawson took it the hard way. You've got to admire the With the four contenders who have guy. He didn't dog it. He stayed fought for so many pennants, com- straight, and he is proving that he can > the return race from Hamilton to Newport, R. I. Something fascinating about the race, two old timers, scorned by the present day shipping world, still in the running and holding their heads up against the snickers of the fast steamships. The modern ship may have the speed, but the glamour belongs to the sails.

BRITISH HURDLER BREAKS EUROPEAN MARK IN PARIS

D. O. Finlay, the R. A. F. hurdler, won the 100 metres hurdles in 14.2 seconds at the recent international meet in Paris and thus beat the Euro- run. No. 6 is L. Kirkpatrick, of the United States, who was second, and pean record. His time is only one-tenth outside the world's record mark. No. 7 is J. Patterson, also of the United States, who placed third.

The photo shows D. O. Finlay (extreme right) during his record-breaking mound in an endeavor to come

OHIO STATE GAME WILL OPEN

OF PRO PALS al Broadcasting Company will open its 1937 football broadcast schedule, which includes outstanding gridiron added to the NBC schedule and will contests from coast-to-coast, with a be announced later. play-by-play description of the Ohio State-Texas Christian game to be played at Columbus; Ohio, Saturday Of all the amateur golfers who've 25. Bill Stern, NBC announcer, will turned pro in recent years Lawson broadcast his account of the game over Little, the army colonel's son from the NBC-Blue Network, beginning at The following Saturday, October 2, games: Notre Dame's opener with He left the amateurs in April, 1936, Drake University at South Bend, Ind., open), a major match play tourney, games will go on at 2:45 p. m., EST, the Notre Dame contest over the tournament. His stunt of playing that NBC-Blue Network, and the Minnesota-Nebraska game over the NBC-Blue Network. NBC will broadcast all Notre Dame home games this sca-

> Later games already scheduled by works include Notre Dame-Navy, October 23; Notre Dame-University of Pittsburgh, November 6; the classic)

FOOTBALL BROADCAST SCHEDULE FIELD TRIALS NEW YORK, Sept. 14-The Nation- (Army-Navy and Notre Dame-University of Southern California, November 27. Other contests are rapidly being

IN TWO SHAPES

B. E. TRACK AND AGAIN SET OVER

New Date Sept. 22-Heavy Rain Yesterday Causes Second Postponement.

SAINT JOHN. Sept. 14-The Maritime zone Empire track and field trials will be held at the K-Club recreational centre on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 22, beginning at 3 o'clock. Announcement to this effect was made yesterday by A. W. Covey, president of the Saint John Olympic Club, sponsor of the meet which had been postponed from Saturday on account of the heavy rain and again from yesterday afternoon with the steady downpour made competition impossible.

The committee in charge of the sports after viewing the track and DR. G. R. LISTER grounds decided that postponement until next week was necessary. The track was very fast before the rains of the past few days and it will take some time to dry out.

PONTIACS AND ST. CROIX MEET IN FINALS TODAY

Border Town Team Now One Up on Pontiacs— McLain, Croix Catcher, Out of Game, Smashed Thumb.

SAINT JOHN, Sept. 14-Weather permitting, the Saint John Pontiacs will journey to St. Stephen today where they are scheduled to meet St. Croix in the second game of the New Brunswick senior baseball finals which was set over from Saturday due to heavy rain.

The Pontiacs plan to send their veteran hurler, Ira Hannah, to the through and gain an even break in the best of five series for the crown. St. Croix are one game up by virtue of their 4-1 triumph over the Indians here last Thursday night.

Hannah, who has competed in more playoffs in N. B. than any other player in the Maritimes, is in fine shape again and it is believed he will give his old foes a tough tussle.

Word came from St. Stepen last night that Theo McLain, veteran catcher of the champions, will be out for the rest of the series with Saint John and possibly for the season as the result of an injury in a Sunday game at Calais.

Has Thumb Smashed

McLain's thumb was badly smashed by a pitched ball. It is likely that Charlie Godfrey, who a few seasons back brought his big hat into play to give St. Croix the Maritime title, will be callled in to replace McLain:

Medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub VICKS COUGH DROP

: Dentist :

Burchill-Wilkinson Boilding QUEEN STREET : Below Regent

Giants Outrank Foes on Paper

It's Nearly Time For the Fans To Take Their Pencils and Start Figuring Between the League Leaders.

It won't be long before the fans will have gotten ahead of the Cubs. It took pennant winner side-by-side with the cubs that even though they class amateurs have made a wad of the Cubs that even though they class amateurs have made a wad of the Cubs that even though they class amateurs have made a wad of the Cubs that even though they class amateurs have made a wad of the Cubs that even though they class amateurs have made a wad of the Cubs that even though they class amateurs have made a wad of the Cubs that even though they class amateurs have made a wad of the Cubs that even though they class amateurs have made a wad of the Cubs that even though they class amateurs have made a wad of the Cubs that even though they class amateurs have made a wad of the Cubs that even though they class amateurs have made a wad of the cubs. National's entry on paper and comparing them man-for-man to throw light with the cubs that even though they did pull up Chicago was due for some crack Simon-pures have gotten up on which is better equipped for the victories and the Giants likely to take in the higher income tax brackets the current warfare raging among the Compared with the Cubs the Giants chance. But he chose to play the least expected man who turns out to right and catchers. be the star.

Taking this into consideration, nevertheless there is no harm in doping out how they look on foolscap.

Pirates Rated Second

Of the four, New York rates highest in individual comparison with Pittsburgh second and Chicago third. Because of the Cubs' early lead in the standing over Pittsburgh, however, Chicago figures to beat out Pitts- and short but with Collins out the burgh. Were the two tied at the start of the month, Pittsburgh might some on the chin by the law of aver- because of their golf skill, and Law-

Giants, Cubs, Cardinals and the Pir- are stronger at first base, third base, game the hard way. And pro golf ates? You can toss most of man-for- in left and center field and in the is the hard way. He's making a man comparisons into the waste bas- vastly important pitching box. With ket because on the field in a world Herman, Jurges and Frey, Demaree series or a three weeks' home stretch and Hartnett with O'Dea, Chicago of a pennant race, very often it is the lined up superior at second, short, > pared right down the line, the Giants win. rate tops at third and pitching and have the second best second sacker, shortstop and center fielder of the four. They rank third at first base, left and right field and behind the bat, but at no position are they out-ranked by the rest of the field.

Chicago figures highest at second

(Continued on Page Two)