ment of the Maritime Freight Rates Act.

An addendum report was submitted by Rand H. Matheson, manager of the commission, covering recent important developments since the last meeting. Full consideration was given by the commission to the matter and recommendations embodied in the report. Proposed increases in international class rates were considered and it was decided that the matter be followed closely in the interest of shippers and industries in the Maritimes. The subject of export and imports rates was also discussed at length and certain courses of action decided upon.

J. D. Palmer was present from Fredericton.

Here's that Fast "Phillips" Way

To Alkalize Stomach Quickly

On all sides, people are learning that the way to gain almost incredibly quick relief from stomach condition arising from overacidity, is to alkalize the stomach quickly with Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

You take either two teaspoons of the liquid Phillips' after meals; or two Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets. Almost instantly "acid indigestion" goes, gas from hyperacidity, "acid-headaches" — from over-indulgence in food or smoking — and nausea are relieved.

Try this Phillips' way if you have any acid stomach upsets. You will be surprised at results. Get either the liquid "Phillips" or the remarkable, new Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets. Only 25¢ for a big box of tablets at drug stores.

ALSO IN TABLET FORM:
Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

W.C.T.U. Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Good, King street. The President Mrs. A. A. Waters was in the chair. There was a good attendance of members and three visitors present. Devotions were led by Mrs. C. H. MacQuarrie with prayers by several of the members. Roll call of officers followed. This being the last meeting of the season the usual yearly reports from the various superintendents were given. The treasurer's report showed a very satisfactory year. We were sorry to receive the resignation of our treasurer Mrs. John Ferguson. A vote of thanks was tendered her for thirteen years of faithful service. Mrs. MacQuarrie gave the report on jail work. One Sunday afternoon service was held and was led by Lic. Norman Trafton. Plans were made for the annual picnic to be held later in the month. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. A. A. Waters; vice-president, Mrs. H. W. Leslie; second vice-president, Mrs. D. D. Ferguson; recording secretary, Mrs. A. McN. Astle; treasurer, Mrs. Edwin Horncastle; assistant treasurer, Miss Lois Goodspeed; corresponding secretary, Mrs. S. L. Colpitts; auditor, Mrs. C. L. Tracy. An interesting feature of the afternoon was the presentation of life membership certificates by Mrs. D. H. Ferguson to Mrs. C. N. Goodspeed and Mrs. W. W. Clark. The meeting closed with the Aaronic benediction.

Pretty Home Wedding

McElman—Kitchen

A quiet but pretty wedding took place this afternoon at the home of His Worship Mayor G. Willard Kitchen and Mrs. Kitchen when their youngest daughter Nancy Lee was united in marriage to Hanford Frank McElman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McElman of South Devon. The ceremony was performed at three o'clock with Rev. Gerald W. Goulet officiating. Given in marriage by her father the bride wore an afternoon dress of gold shark skin with brown taffeta hat and brown accessories. She carried talisman roses. The bride's only assistant was Miss Mildred Boyce of Marysville. The bridegroom was supported by Dow C. Kitchen, brother of the bride. The wedding guests included close relatives of the bridal couple. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McElman left on a motor trip through Maine, following which they will reside in the city. For travelling the bride chose a suit of dark brown which she wore with a tomato blouse and brown accessories.

The bride was educated at Fredericton High School, Provincial Normal School and the University of New Brunswick. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Fredericton High School and the Fredericton Business College and is now a member of the staff of the G. E. Barbour Co. Ltd., in the city.

The out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Herbin of Saint John, the latter a sister of the bride who has recently been guest of honor at several social functions.

Would Like Cenotaph Flood-lighted

At the final meeting of the Sir Howard Douglas chapter of the I.O. D.E. held last evening, the resolution of the advisory board, asking the city council to flood-light the cenotaph was adopted. Mrs. C. D. Richards, Regent of the chapter presided while a fair attendance of members was at hand. After the routine business, Mrs. B. B. Barnes, Educational Secretary, gave her report. It showed that ten schools had been visited, and in connection with the Empire Day programme, library additions, library buttons and suitable pictures had been presented. Mrs. George W. Brown gave the report of the Coronation proceedings, and read a vote of thanks from the advisory board to the Coronation committee. Plans were laid for a garden party to be given a little later, ending up the spring activities. Sympathy was extended to Mrs. A. J. Gregory, past regent of the chapter, who is at present in hospital in Toronto, and a resolution was passed to send flowers and greeting. The executive was given power to act during the summer, and it was moved that the meeting be adjourned.

The final meeting of the Victor Hatheway Chapter

I. O. D. E. for the year was held last evening and took the form of a dinner party. The dinner was followed by a short meeting with the Regent, Mrs. A. McF. Limerick, in the chair. Mrs. Clarence Burden read the educational Secretary's report on the Empire Day programme at the Model School, and the announcement was made that Mrs. Charles Johnston had presented three encyclopedias to the library of the Model School in memory of her father, the late A. E. Hanson. Mrs. Emerson Skone reported on the activities of the Girl Guide troop sponsored by the Chapter, stating they joined with other Girl Guide troops in the city for a church parade, and had participated in the Coronation celebration. The prize won by the Chapter in the provincial scrapbook competition was received, a book entitled "The History of the Coronation." Plans were made for Empire study work in the fall and the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Devon C.W.L. Monthly Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Devon Sub-division of the Catholic Women's League was held on Wednesday evening with the President Mrs. Frank Shortill in the chair and a good attendance of members. The reports of the different committees were received showing that splendid progress is being made by the League in the different works undertaken.
