The permanent paving is progressing very favorably, being finished up to Peter's River, a distance of about 6 miles. Many favorable comments are heard as to facility and smoothness of driving on this new pavement. When all the New Brunswick trunk roads have this permanent paving, it should be a big incentive to the tourists.

The many friends of Mr. Claude Buttmer, who was seriously injured a few weeks ago, are pleased to learn that he will be able to leave the James H. Dunn Hospital in a week or so.

The I.O.D.E. are holding a Bridge and Tea at the Billows on Tuesday next.

their license. If the situation is analyzed it will be discovered that it is poor teaching and not the child's fault why he or she is really kept in. Children must be considered as individuals.

Happiness is a basic principal of school life. The reasons why children don't like school or subjects should be studied and overcome. There are some reasons why children at New Harbour School are happy. The following are some of the reasons noted.

1. Don't have to stay in at recess or after school.
2. No examinations.
3. No homework.
4. Don't expect the same of all children but each child's individual best.
5. Children allowed to be natural. Never scolded or spoken to crossly.
6. Not afraid to ask or answer questions

Will Attend Wedding in England

Mrs. Cattley, wife of Professor R. E. D. Cattley of the University of New Brunswick is leaving on Friday for London, England where she will visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. W. 7. Not forced to do things they do not like to do.

8. Children given responsibility in everything.

9. See fun in work as well as play.

10. Taught to concentrate.

11. Cheerful surroundings.

12. Parents co-operation.

It is characteristic of the child to be active and to ask questions. Teaching is a joyous task to the teacher who understands these principles and applies them in terms of the child. In such happy atmosphere school is play and real learning is taking place. Activity is a part of all school studies.

Today the radio and visual education are within the range of even the poorest country school and they have a particular value in removing isolation of localities.

Roadside Flowers

We are the roadside flowers. Straying from garden grounds, Lovers of idle hours, Breakers of ordered bounds.

If only the earth will feed us If only the wind will be kind, We blossom for those who need us. The stragglers left behind.

And lo, the Lord of the garden, He makes His sun to rise, And His rain to fall with pardon On our dusty paradise.

On us He has laid the duty, The task of the wandering breed, To better the world with beauty, Wherever the way may lead.

Who shall inquire of the season, Or question the wind where it blows? We blossom and ask no reason: The Lord of the Garden knows.

—Bliss Carman.
