LIBERALS MAY CUT HEPBURN ADRIFT

OTTAWA, June 11—Influential Ontario Liberals are reported to be canvassing quietly the political situation in the province. Since Premier Mitchell Hepburn cut the painter the other day by his declaration that he is no longer a 'Mackenzie King Liberal' some definite developments may be looked for on the return of Premier King next month from England.

One suggestion that Mr. Hepburn's statement, by its very nature, calls for an early Provincial Liberal convention to clarify the situation is being carefully considered.

Already in some quarters, the name of Hon. Norman McI. Rogers, Dominion Minister of Labor, is being mentioned as the strongest man for the leadership of a Mackenzie King Liberal Ontario party in the next Ontario election, when it comes. Mr. Rogers would have to be drafted for the job; he would not push himself for it at all. He could, probably be persuaded to take it on if there were a general call from old-line Liberals that he make the sacrifice and were Mr. King to ask him to do so, in view of the complicated situation which now exists. It would not hurt Mr. Rogers' career in the long run, many feel, were he to withdraw for a time from the Federal arena to assist the party in a critical period.

Ontario Liberals, led by a capable aggressive young man such as Mr. Rogers has already proved himself to be in the King Federal Cabinet, might surprise both Mr. Hepburn and the Conservatives.

Outside of Mr. Rogers' name, the leadership possibilities for an Ontario Liberal party would seem to rest between Arthur Roebuck, former Attorney General, and Hon. T. B. McQuesten, present Minister of Highways, and former president of the Ontario Liberal Association, who is understood to be none too happy under Mr. Hepburn these days.

Mr. Hepburn's 'pop off' the other day is considered here as a prelude to the formation of what he might call a Union Reform party, likely with Col. George Drew, Toronto, and possibly Wilfrid Heighington, Toronto Conservative M.L.A., giving it 'Union' flavor.

Many Liberals in Ontario have followed Mr. Hepburn with considerable difficulty, but now they feel that Mr. Hepburn himself has burned his bridges behind him, as a Liberal, and they can follow him no longer. The time for a real show down, they feel is arriving. Mr. Hepburn having chosen to diverge from the Liberal path, then it is up to the Liberals to provide themselves with another leader, one with greater stability than Mr. Hepburn has shown he possesses, and go into the fight in the next election with real vigor.
