Drunken Driver is Sentenced to Jail

James Connors of Millville was sentenced to serve 30 days in York County jail, when he appeared before Police Magistrate Limerick, this morning. He was charged with having care and control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor. He pleaded guilty to the charge.
Arrest was made yesterday afternoon following an automobile accident, in which the car driven by Connors crashed into one operated by Arthur Strugnell of Moncton.

The accident occurred in the vicinity of the covered bridge, near Barker's Point. Both cars were badly damaged about the fronts, and will necessitate extensive repairs.

Portland and Bangor.

Miss Evangeline Melanson of Bathurst who has been the guest of her aunt Mrs. J. L. Neville returned home today.

A wedding of interest to many friends in Fredericton and throughout the province was solemnized on Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the summer home of the bride's parents at Duck Cove, when Miss Christina Dingwall Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Graham, became the wife of Ian MacLure Sclan-ders, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F.
MacLure Sclanders, Saint John. The rooms were decorated with cut flowers and the ceremony was performed before a screen of purple and white lilacs. Rev. C. J. St. Clair Jeans, minister of the Church of St. John and St. Stephen, officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a tailored travelling suit of pale blue English polo cloth, having a hip length jacket. With her suit she also wore a pale pink georgette blouse, and French hat of navy straw, having a pink flower trim.
Her bouquet was of Rapture roses and forget-me-nots. Miss Greta Mac-Leod Fowler was the bride's only attendant and was wearing a gown of navy flowered sheer chiffon over pale blue crepe. Her hat was of navy blue and she carried a colonial bou-quet of yellow roses and daisies.
Hugh Sclanders was his brother's groomsman.

Mrs. Graham, mother of the bride, was wearing grey sheer crepe, with insets of lace in the sleeves and on the bodice. Her hat was of navy blue and she wore a corsage of roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Sclanders, mother of the groom, was wearing a gown of French blue sheer crepe with navy trimmings, navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds. Mrs. John M. Dickson, grandmother of the groom, was wearing a dress of black and green printed silk, fashioned with a black jacket. Her hat was of black straw and she wore a corsage of purple pansies. Miss Murie Sclanders, sister of the groom, was wearing a yellow linen ensemble fashioned with a brown jacket. Her hat was yellow and she wore brown accessories.

Following the ceremony, tea was served, when only members of the families and a few intimate friends were present. The bride's table was centred with a tiered wedding cake, and had for decoration small silver vases of pink carnations and pale pink tapers in silver candlesticks.
Later the bridal couple sailed in the steamer Saint John for Boston and other United States cities. For travelling the bride had on a topcoat of beige polo cloth. On their return they will spend the summer travelling in New Brunswick. The bride, until recently, has been a member of the secretarial staff of the provincial Red Cross. Mr. Sclanders is a member of the news staff of The Evening Times-Globe. Miss Graham has been the honor guest at many social functions prior to her marriage and has been showered with gifts by her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Skinner, St.
Andrews, came to the city to attend the wedding.

Ian Sclanders was for a couple of years Fredericton correspondent of the Saint John Telegraph and during his residence in this city made many friends who will extend congratulations and best wishes to the bride and bridegroom.

Cormier-McMann.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at St.
Dunstan's Church when Miss Yvonne Marie Cormier, daughter of Comptroller General E. J. Cormier, and Mrs. Cormier was united in marriage to William Barry McMann, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McMann, formerly of Fredericton, now of Los Angeles, Calif. The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Msgr. F. L.
Carney.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, and was gowned in a pink silk crepe dress made in simple lines over which she wore a blue coat. She wore a pink hat, white shoes, white gloves and she carried American beauty roses.

The bride's sister, Miss Ida Cormier as bridesmaid was in a white crepe dress with a navy taffeta silk coat and a white hat and carrying pink roses.

Austin McMann of Los Angeles, brother of the bridegroom acted as best man.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride where a reception was held the guests being relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. McMann left today for Boston and New York where they will visit relatives prior to returning to Los Angeles, Calif., where they will reside.

The bride and groom who both have many friends here were both educated in the Fredericton schools, the bridegroom having formerly resided in the city with his parents.

Mrs. McMann has been prominent in tennis circles in the city and has for some time been on the departmental staff of the Provincial government of New Brunswick.

Mr. McMann is employed with the J. B. Crosby & Co., of Los Angeles.
The out-of-town guests included Miss Nell Burns and Austin Mc-Cann, both of Los Angeles.
