Reunion Dinner on North Shore, U.N.B. Function

BATHURST, June 21—The graduates, students and former students of the University of New Brunswick residing on the North Shore held a reunion dinner and dance at Kent Lodge, Bathurst, Friday evening.
Each was permitted to bring a guest.
Seventy-three persons attended from Campbellton, Dalhousie, Newcastle, Nelson and Bathurst.

There are many U.N.B. graduates employed in this section of the province, and with a revival in the pulp and paper industry there has been a recent increase in the number of U.
N.B. graduates finding positions in the laboratories of the various mills, and in the woodlands departments.
Many civil engineers and foresters are employed in road building and in the surveying and mapping of timber lands.

Leland Webb, '19, Campbellton, was master of ceremonies, and each graduate introduced himself and his guest during the dinner. College songs and yells were rendered under Jim Yorston's leadership. A short toast list was honored. It included 'The King,' 'The University,' proposed by Dr. G. A. Mowat, '23, Campbellton, responded to by G. Percy Burchill, '10, South Nelson, and 'The Ladies,' proposed by W. C. Scott, '31, Dalhousie, and responded to by Mrs. Howard Rogers, '23, Bathurst.

Mr. Burchill emphasized the need for developing a sense of balance and a regard for wisdom without putting all stress on skills. Skills are useful but they are of no use without a knowledge of how to apply them, and a high sense of honor and honesty in the individual is most important, he said. The place of a university is to develop these essentials, the speaker pointed out, and the University of New Brunswick always had stood high in this respect. Because of it its graduates were holding important positions in all parts of the world. He urged all to become active members of the alumni and to take an interest in the affairs of the university. After the dinner a program of 16 dances was carried out in the hall of Kent Lodge. Music was supplied by an eight-piece orchestra under the direction of Prof. R. L. Doucet.

The arrangements for the dinner and dance were made by L. S. Webb, '16, Campbellton; W. C. Scott, '31, Dalhousie; R. J. Love, '28, Bathurst; G. D. Ellis, '32, Bathurst; and R. K.
Allen, '37, Bathurst.

J. W. Dafoe

If those conditions should take a violent turn for the worse—and he thought it inevitable in the not too distant future—that policy would collapse. The several present vaguely defined groups of opinion on the question would be realigned into two clear-cut factions, North Americans and Imperialists.

Of the latter group he commented: "In spite of much that I hear to the contrary I think they would together constitute a great multitude."

Marking Time

In the Government's present policy, said Mr. Dafoe, there was no outward evidence of an inward decision to take any particular course in the event of developments calling for action.

"The Government marks time and hopes that nothing is going to happen," he said, "and the people do likewise."

There are parallels in this regard between the attitudes of the Governments at London and Ottawa. The British Government had rejected obligations beyond what it chose to regard as "vital interests."

"The Canadian Government's only admitted 'vital interest' is the defense of Canada," he continued. "Beyond that it will consider what it is prudent and necessary to do when decisions can no longer be deferred."
"This is rejection not only of League engagements, but of any obligation, legal, moral, implied or advisable toward the Commonwealth of British nations or any nation member of the Commonwealth."

"With what Madariaga very properly calls 'the quiescent war' erupting into violence—which I cannot but think is inevitable at no distant date—the Canadian policy of pre-ning, where a chimney fire was in ed and no serious damage resulted.

serving national unity by postponing decisions will collapse."

The whole foreign policy issue, which is now threatening to swallow up all other political issues in Canada, is not new. "As a matter of fact, this question, in so far as it is an attempt to relate Canadian responsibilities to the external policy of Great Britain, has been a chronic source of political disturbance for the last half-century," he said.

Disraeli started it and since then it had never been entirely absent from political speculation in Canada or Great Britain. The heart of the issue always was and is now: "Shall Canada become an integrated part of a consolidated Empire with a common foreign policy involving definite commitments with respect to defense, preparations for war, and participation in war should it come?"

"Always when the atmosphere has been favorable it has been revived in the form adjustable to the moment," Mr. Dafoe said.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier fought closer integration. The war enlarged Canada's stature, but threatened to leave an Imperial Cabinet as a legacy in the 1921 Imperial conference.

Canadian Pacific New Freight Service

Montreal freight shippers are enjoying the fastest pick-up and delivery service in Canada since the inauguration of the Canadian Pacific Railway's new Carriage Department for the pick-up and delivery of railway freight.

Ninety-two brand new trucks, of a heavy type, from two to five tons, were bought especially for this new Canadian experiment, which is designed to handle freight with all the speed and efficiency of express shipments. Built for local delivery and pick-up of freight, in carload lots or less, the 92 trucks form a rapid and steady stream of communication between the Canadian Pacific freight sheds in Montreal and the city's shippers. By eliminating much of the handling of freight and instilling the Canadian Pacific motto for fast service into this end of freight traffic, the new trucks are speeding up the service to a degree previously unknown. Although this service has also been introduced to Ottawa and Sherbrooke, Montreal will be the main testing grounds.

Illustrations above show a section of the line of trucks at Place Viger freight sheds in Montreal, two of the trucks being loaded from the warehouse, and a loaded truck on its way to the door of some business house.
