Four Aldermen to Seek Re-Election — One Vacancy In Queens Ward

OPPOSITION BEING FORMED

Police Commission Opponents Have to Seek Re-Election — Council Has Good Record

Although the date of the Civic election is nearly two months away it is understood that the civic pot is already beginning to boil and it is understood also that an effort is being made by those who are in favour of returning the Police Commission to bring out opposition to the members of the Council who are opposed to the Commission.

As luck would have it the majority of the Aldermen whose term will expire in January next are those who are in favour of abolishing the Commission. Ald. Dr. E. R. Ross, Ald. W. R. Crewdson, Ald. Murray E. Hagerman and Ald. Ivan McKnight are all opposed to the Police Commission and these will each seek re-election in January.

Government in All-Night Session Endeavors to Adjust Situation to Protect Women, Children

UNIVERSITIES ARE BUSILY ENGAGED SELECTING DEL.

DALHOUSIE, N. B., Nov. 23—So many students at Dalhousie University and the University of New Brunswick want to attend the National Conference of Canadian University Students, to be held at Winnipeg the last five days of this year, the two universities have asked the committee on organization to increase their quota and permit a larger number of students to attend the Conference.

Miss Margaret Kinney, one of the national secretaries of the conference, has just completed a tour of universities of the Maritimes and reports that "representative student committees are active in every university."

A vigorous student committee at Sir George Williams College, Montreal, is promoting the national conference.

Real difficulty is being experienced at the University of Toronto in assigning their quota of 50 students among the many organizations and

After an all night session extending for five hours and running into the early hours of the morning no agreement was arrived at between the Provincial Government and representatives of the United Mine Workers of America. Negotiations between representatives of the striking miners of the Minto coal district who demand union recognition and the Provincial Government designed to affect a settlement in the tie up of the coal industries of the province are being continued this morning following the all night session last night. So far there is no intimation that the conference has had any success or results.

The Conference got under way yesterday afternoon about two thirty o'clock and continued through the dinner hour last evening until after seven o'clock. The Cabinet met again as early as possible in the evening and remained in session until two o'clock this morning.

Labor's representatives at the conference beside the two U.M.W. officials were Silby Barrett, Glace Bay, N. S., international board member; Mathias Wuhr and Earl Upton, president and recording secretary, respectively, of Minto local No. 7409 of the U.M.W., and W. S. Walker, Minto, board member for Sub-District No. 7, District No. 26. The last three formed the local committee from Minto.

In the meantime the strikers at Minto had been refused credit by the Minto merchants. The merchants at Minto after having a meeting issued a notice to the Union officials that

OUR OLD GOVERNMENT HOUSE IS DISCUSSED BY A TORONTO NEWSPAPER

Says Windows Broken and Stairs Falling Down; Home News From Abroad Not Accurate

Home news from abroad is always interesting but not always accurate. The following news regarding our old Government House appears in the Toronto Globe and Mail:

"Premier Heppburn is not the first Canadian Premier to close a Government House occupied by the King's representative for many years.

"Twenty-two years after Confederation the then Premier of New Brunswick closed Government House of that Province and it has never been reopened. The circumstances were the same. It was an economy move. Today visitors to Fredericton, capital city, walk through the streets and see broken window panes in the once beautiful old Government House. The building has been abandoned for 48 years. Plaster is crumbling from the walls. Staircases have collapsed. Surrounding the building there were once beautiful green lawns, under well-kept trees. Today weeds and hay grow wild.

"It was a million-dollar structure. The Government had hoped to sell it and bring revenues to the public treasury. But there never has been a bidder.

"In Ontario the Government has permitted the Lieutenant Governor to finish his term of office in the residence. In New Brunswick, the then Premier sent Sir Leonard Tilley, the last Lieutenant Governor to live in the residence, a note telling him to vacate, that the Province would no longer pay the upkeep of the house. He was in the middle of his third term.

"The note informed him that his private residence, sixty miles away in St. John, was to be the official Government House. Since that day, New Brunswick has followed that policy. The result has been that the Province has had Government Houses wherever the Lieutenant Governors have happened to live. When the Legislature is in session, the Lieutenant Governors rent houses in Fredericton at their own residences or in some other part of the Province. Some of them put advertisements in the classified columns of the newspapers to obtain a Government House."

The above information regarding our historic old Government House is untrue. This building which is now occupied by headquarters of the Division of the R.C.M.P. is kept in excellent condition by that organization and both the building and the grounds are creditable to that fine body of men.

There are many in this province who still believe that the proper place for the Lieutenant Governor to reside is at the Capital of the Province and that the province could well provide a reasonable amount for the upkeep of Government House at the Capital. As it is the province pays considerable at the present time for this purpose and we have no Government House.

FRENCH UNDERGROUND ORGANIZATION PLAN TO OVERTHROW FRENCH REPUBLIC

Gigantic Plot Details Show Vast Military Organization Armed From Abroad

PARIS, Nov. 24—The widely organized underground secret society whose headquarters and activities are being raided throughout France, is attracting world wide attention.

Interior Minister Marx Dormoy announced a secret revolutionary organization armed from abroad plotted and Company, Toronto, is a staunch Liberal. His brother, Hon. R. C. Matthews, was minister of national revenue in the Bennett Conservative government from 1933 to 1935.

The new lieutenant-governor is widely known in financial, educational and church circles. He is chairman of the board of governors of McMaster University and several years ago was president of the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec. He is treasurer of the Baptist World Alliance.

to seize control of France and establish a dictatorship in preparation for restoration of the monarchy.

In a long communique detailing results to date in the nation-wide investigation by the Surete Nationale, Dormoy declared a "real plot against republican institutions" had been discovered.

"We are confronted with a secret semi-military organization entirely patterned after the army service," the communique said.

"It includes a general staff and a health service. Division of effectiveness into brigades, regiments, battalions and so forth demonstrates the incontestable civil war character of this organization."

Dormoy added that the Popular Front government is capable of crushing the underground organization, discovery of which developed from investigation of the mysterious Casoulards—"The Hooded Ones." Dormoy said a raid on headquarters of the Caisse Hypothecaire et Fluviale, "the president of whose board of directors is (Henri) Debonco, a consulting engineer in the Penhoet shipyards" established the semi-military pattern of the Rightist organization.
